HAROLD ALEXANDER SOUTHERN

(1919-1991)

How do you begin to talk about the life of Mr. Harold Southern? It seems to me the word is love. Harold had several loves in his life.

The first was his two wives, his five children, and nine grandchildren. Harold was a blessed man in that he was able to share life with two wonderful women. His first wife, Dare, died in 1982 and Harold married Anne in 1987. Even though they only had a short time together, you could see the love and devotion for one another. His children and grandchildren were also a love of his life, and he spoke of them often to us here at Robinhood Road.

His second love was Robinhood Road Baptist Church. He was always ready to reach out and speak a good word about his church and his pastor. We will miss him greatly.

His third love was Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. He was a person who saw the value of working together in the association to help the churches. He was a faithful worker in many areas in our association.

The fourth love was the one that made all the others fit together. This was his love for Jesus. He desired to share his faith with others. After his death, I had the privilege to look in his Bible. There I found the names of people he was praying for or wanted to visit in the near future, pictures of a former pastor and a missionary to Chile, marks beside scriptures of sermons that had been preached and notes from sermons he had heard.

Harold Southern was not a big man physically, but he certainly was a big man spiritually.

Michael Branscome, Pastor
Robinhood Road Baptist Church

JAMES MORTON UNDERWOOD

(1910-1991)

It is recorded in the Book of Acts that people would carry the sick out to the streets on beds and pallets so that as the Apostle Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on some of them and they would be healed. (Acts 5:15)

Few men of our generation have cast a shadow on the lives of others like Jimmie Underwood. Throughout his life he was involved in a vocation and avocations that allowed him great opportunity to touch others. In fact, it is hard to think of many of the positive aspects of Stokes County, King, Pilot Mountain Baptist Association or Quaker Gap Baptist Church that do not bear the mark of Jimmie Underwood's influence.

Through his teaching, and later tutoring, he passed on a love (or at least understanding) of math to many of our educators and accountants. Through organizations such as MYF, YMCA, and the Morehead Scholarship Selection Committee, he helped many of yesterday's youth become today's civic leaders. Through his involvement in the King Fire Department, King Outreach Ministry, and Lion's Club he helped others when they really needed help. Through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Jimmie helped individuals and churches do more together than we ever could have done alone.

I cannot even begin to scratch the surface of what Jimmie Underwood has meant to Quaker Gap Baptist Church. The impression he has made upon the church will last for many generations yet to come. His influence comes not so much from what he did — though he did just about everything a man could do in the church; it was more from who he was.

Jimmie Underwood was a man with a brilliant mind, a quiet wisdom, humble spirit and a genuine love for people. Any conversation with Jimmie always left you feeling affirmed, encouraged, appreciated and challenged. Whether he was dealing with young or old, wise or simple, one who agreed or one who disagreed, Jimmie treated all with the same respect and consideration. Perhaps that is why his shadow touched so many lives in such lasting ways. He touched us with his heart.

Jimmie Underwood was one of the few men of whom we can all state with sincerity: "Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, who is continually passing our way."

We will miss Jimmie in ways we have yet to learn. Thank you, God, for sharing Jimmie with us for so many years.

Rev. Jim Baldwin, Pastor
Quaker Gap Baptist Church

ISAAC W. WORRELL
(1923-1991)

A servant of the Church has fallen. Ike Worrell believed in the local church. When he moved to the Oaklawn community in 1964, he and his family united with Oaklawn Baptist Church. He first served the church as an RA leader. Later he served for several years on the Finance Committee. On occasion he would serve as substitute teacher in his Sunday School class.

Ike firmly believed in cooperation between the churches and the Pilot Mountain Association. From 1970-1982 he served the association on the Finance Committee, ten of those years as chairman. He served the association as chairman of the Audit Committee from 1982-1985.

A servant has fallen? No!

Men of faith, who use the talent God has given them to serve Christ and His church in a faithful, unassuming way, as Isaac Worrell did, do not fall.

They rise.

John Largen, Member
Oaklawn Baptist Church

Constitution

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this body shall be the ''Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Incorporated'' according to the laws and statutes of the State of North Carolina, and is hereinafter referred to as the Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

A. Purpose

The purpose of the Association is to glorify GOD by assisting congregations to be in fellowship and to fulfill their mission, individually and together.

B. Objectives

The objectives of the Association shall be:

1. To assist the congregations to ENHANCE THE FELLOWSHIP; (Help congregations relate to each other in a growing and mutually supportive fellowship within the family of believers in Christ)
2. To assist the congregations to REACH PEOPLE; (Help congregations accelerate their efforts to share the gospel with all people and to develop New Testament churches)
3. To assist the congregations to DEVELOP BELIEVERS; (Help congregations emphasize the biblical imperative to equip the saints by developing believers in prayer, discipleship, and stewardship and by calling out the called)
4. To assist the congregations to STRENGTHEN MISSIONS; (Help congregations fulfill the biblical mandate to go into all the world by strengthening their missions education, enlarging missions involvement, and increasing missions giving)
5. To assist the congregations to IMPROVE THE ORGANIZATION; (Help congregations determine the direction and participate in the life of the Association).

ARTICLE III. AUTHORITY

While the Association is autonomous under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, it claims no authority over any other Baptist body.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP

A. Composition

The Association shall be composed of Baptist churches which in their faith, polity and practice are in harmony with the purpose of the Association, and are actively participating in the support and work of the Association.

B. Affiliation

Any constituted Baptist church may be received under the watchcare of the Association for one year, after which it may be received by vote of the Association into this fellowship of churches, upon recommendation of the Credentials Committee to confirm evidence that the church is committed to harmonious and active involvement in the purpose and work of the Association.

C. Messengers

Messengers from the member churches shall constitute the session of the Association. Messengers shall be elected by the churches they represent. The pastors of member churches will be recognized as messengers; further, the number of messengers from each church, in addition to the pastor, shall be determined as follows:

> Three (3) messengers from each church for the first one hundred (100) members or fraction thereof, and one (1) messenger for each additional one hundred (100) members or major fraction thereof, up to a total of ten (10) messengers.

Such messengers shall be duly certified in the annual letter sent by the church to the Association.

The courtesies of the floor (report, discussion or debate) may be extended to non-messengers at the discretion of the body.

D. Dismissal

Should any church disqualify itself by faith, polity and practice not in harmony with the purpose of the Association, or fail to send a Uniform Associational Letter and/or messengers for three (3) consecutive years, the Executive Board may, upon failing to effect a resolution to the problem, recommend a withdrawal of fellowship from that church. A two-thirds majority vote of the Association in session shall be required for this action.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS

A. Regular Meetings

The Association shall meet semi-annually during the months of April and October.

B. Special Meetings

The Executive Board may call special sessions of the Association as the need arises. The Executive Board shall determine the time and place of called meetings. Written notices of special sessions with a statement of purpose for the meeting must be sent to all pastors and church-elected members of the Executive Board at least thirty (30) days before the session.

ARTICLE VI. ORGANIZATION

A. General Officers

The general officers of the Association shall be moderator, vice-moderator, clerk, assistant clerk, treasurer, and assistant treasurer. The general officers shall be the trustees of and the legal agent of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Incorporated. They shall have power to hold title; to buy, sell, lease, convey and receive gifts of property (both real and personal) for the Association; and to incur indebtedness in accord with the instructions of the Association in session or the Executive Board. The moderator shall sign as president; the vice-moderator as vice-president; the clerk or assistant clerk as secretary; and the treasurer or assistant treasurer as treasurer of the corporation. The signatures of any two of the officers named above shall be binding upon the corporation.

B. Associational Representatives

The Association may provide a representative for each requesting institution, agency or board.

C. Executive Board

The Executive Board shall act as the Association ad interim, except as limited by the constitution and by-laws of the Association.

D. Councils

1. Associational Coordinating Council

The Association shall have a Coordinating Council whose function shall be to coordinate the overall purpose and objectives of the Association as stated in Article II.

2. Mission Performance Councils

The Association shall have Mission Performance Councils designed to accomplish the Association's purpose and objectives by assisting the churches in the various areas of program development (such as Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Music Ministry, Brotherhood, WMU, Evangelism, Missions Development, Stewardship, etc.).

E. Conferences

F. Committees

1. Standing Committees

The Association shall have standing committees whose purposes and functions shall be to perform appropriate administrative services for the Association as an organizational entity.

2. Special Committees

The Association may have such special committees whose task shall be clearly defined at the time of appointment by the moderator. These special committees will serve for limited duration.

G. Staff

The Association may employ such staff persons as it deems necessary to carry on its work. Unless otherwise provided by the Association, the staff shall be elected by the Association upon nomination by the Personnel Committee.

ARTICLE VII. FINANCES

The Association shall have power to raise funds by voluntary contributions for carrying out its purpose and objectives. The financial records of the Association shall be audited annually.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENT

This constitution may be amended or revised only by the Association in session by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the messengers present. Any changes not brought by the Constitution Committee must first be referred to it for consideration. Proposed changes must be mailed to Executive Board members of the member churches at least thirty (30) days in advance of the associational meeting in which action on the change is proposed.

Revised October 23, 1990

By-Laws

2. To review the findings of the auditor and submit the annual report to the Association.

C. Communications Committee

The committee designs, implements and evaluates an effective program of communications for the Association. Its duties are:

1. To develop and implement an annual Associational Emphasis Week promotion plan;
2. To foster mutually beneficial relationships with secular media in the community;
3. To develop and implement a total communications plan to and from the churches;

4. To provide communications assistance to the churches;
5. To develop an effective communications plan with various groups in the area.

D. Constitution Committee

The committee monitors the administration and the organization of the Association in the light of the Constitution, By-Laws, Policies and Procedures (PMBA Operations Manual) adopted by the Association. Its duties are:

1. To receive and consider changes/revisions to these documents as recommended by others;
2. To evaluate the primary documents (listed above) and recommend changes/revisions as needed;
3. To serve as advisor to the Association in session and the Executive Board on matters regarding parliamentary procedure.

E. Credentials Committee

The committee assists the Association in determining when the churches are of like faith and order and can be properly accepted into the fellowship of the Association. It should work in close cooperation with the Church Growth Council and the primary officers of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To recommend and implement approved guidelines for receiving churches into the Association;
2. To counsel with churches seeking admission into the fellowship of the Association;
3. To examine the credentials of churches seeking admission into the fellowship of the Association.

F. Finance Committee

The committee assists the Association in securing, administering and reporting finances. Its duties are:

1. To develop and recommend the annual budget at the fall meeting of the Association;
2. To conduct studies and make recommendations concerning proposed expenditures not included in the annual budget of the Association;
3. To review expenditures periodically and recommend adjustments to the annual budget if needed;
4. To develop and recommend financial policies and procedures of the Association.

G. Nominating Committee

The committee leads in coordinating the selection of all elected leaders of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To select, interview, enlist and recommend general officers, program organization leaders, and committee personnel of the Association, entrusting to the Administrative Committee the recommendation of all replacements to the Nominating Committee; (NOTE: These leaders then become a part of the committee.)
2. To coordinate the selection of workers for all the organizations, councils, and committees of the Association;
3. To distribute leadership personnel according to the priority needs of the Association;
4. To assist program organization leaders in discovering and enlisting qualified persons to fill positions in their respective organizations;
5. To present workers to the Association in session for election;
6. To assist the Moderator in the appointment of special committees or workgroups as requested.

H. Order of Business Committee

The committee assists the Association in planning and conducting the regular and called meetings of the Association in session. Its duties are:

1. To propose to the Executive Board an order of business for the Association in session;
2. To enlist the program personnel for all meetings of the Association in session;
3. To publicize the proposed order of business for all meetings of the Association in session to the churches and at least thirty (30) days in advance of such meetings;
4. To arrange for all facilities needed for the Association in session in cooperation with the Moderator and other program personnel;
5. To arrange for and conduct proper registration of messengers and visitors to the Association in session and to report registration at such meetings as requested;
6. To assure that during the Association in session an appropriate recognition is given to those who have died;
7. To receive, consider and present (as appropriate) all resolutions to the Association in session;
8. To receive invitations from churches and suggestions for program emphases and personnel for future meetings of the Association in session;
9. To propose at each session the meeting place(s) and speaker(s) for the next Association in session.

I. Personnel Committee

The committee assists the Association in supervising all paid and volunteer staff of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To recommend policies and procedures for the selection, supervision, and termination of all staff personnel of the Association;
2. To prepare and maintain an organizational manual (as a part of the Operations Manual) relating to the personnel (professional, support and volunteer) of the Association;
3. To recruit, interview and recommend to the Association all new staff personnel in full cooperation with the appropriate supervisor;
4. To develop and recommend salaries and benefits for all employed personnel;
5. To develop and recommend to the Association all policies and procedures for paid and volunteer staff of the Association;
6. To develop and recommend policies and procedures regarding continuing education and development for paid staff of the Association.

J. Properties Committee

The committee maintains all properties owned by the Association. Its duties are:

1. To inspect and keep inventory of associational properties;
2. To make recommendations to the Personnel Committee regarding the employment, training, and supervision of maintenance personnel;
3. To develop and initiate scheduled cleaning procedures;
4. To develop and recommend a program of preventive maintenance;
5. To develop and recommend policies and procedures for using facilities and equipment;
6. To request and administer maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget;
7. To develop and recommend an adequate insurance plan.

K. Strategy Planning Committee

The committee assists the Association in determining its strategic objectives and staying on course in achieving them. Its duties are:

1. To monitor the needs and opportunities of the churches;
2. To provide updated information to the churches and to the programs of the Association;
3. To recommend annual planning guidelines for the Association;
4. To review and make recommendations regarding the coordinated plan in reference to planning guidelines for the Association;
5. To recommend modifications in the organizational structure of the Association in order to help fulfill the purpose and objectives of the Association;
6. To lead the Association to conduct strategic planning about every five (5) years.

VIII. STAFF OF THE ASSOCIATION

A. Executive Staff

All executive staff members should retain the "three-dimensional model" of minister, strategist and leader with different emphases among the dimensions as the particular area of work demands. All employed staff will be accountable, through the Executive Director and the Personnel Committee, to the Executive Board and the Association in session. Job descriptions of all staff members are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

B. Support Staff

The support staff is primarily clerical and serves the executive staff, the general officers, program organization councils, and committees of the Association. Job descriptions are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

C. Volunteer Staff

Since the work of the Association exceeds the ability or propriety of employing sufficient persons to accomplish all the tasks of the Association, volunteers will be enlisted, trained and utilized wherever feasible. Appropriate expressions of gratitude and recognition for such workers are the responsibility of the executive staff of the Association.

IX. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The policies and procedures of the Association and the specific organizational units thereof shall be proposed by those specific units affected. These policies and procedures shall be considered by the Constitution Committee and approved by the Executive Board or the Association in session. These policies and procedures shall become the PMBA Operations Manual.

X. REVISIONS

The By-Laws may be revised by the Association in session by a simple majority vote of the messengers present and voting. Any changes not recommended by the Constitution Committee must first be referred to them for study and consideration. Proposed changes must be mailed to Executive Board members of the member churches at least thirty (30) days in advance of the meeting of the Association in which action on the change is proposed.

Proceedings

1991 Spring Session

of the

Walnut Cove, North Carolina
April 21, 1991

THEME: "Here am I...Send me!"

1. The Spring session of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held at First Baptist Church, Walnut Cove, NC on Sunday afternoon, April 21, 1991, with 232 people registered from 40 churches (124 messengers, officers, and leaders and 108 visitors). There was a fellowship period at 2:30 PM.

2. Pre-session music was played by Erleen Craig, organist, and Esther Schmidt, pianist. Under the direction of Judy Bray, the First Baptist Church adult choir sang "Blessed Be the Name of Jesus" as the call to worship at 3:00 PM. Bill Fryar, pastor of the host church, gave the invocation and welcome. He expressed appreciation for the association's sharing in the church's 100th anniversary celebration.

3. Grant Jefferies, a member of Calvary and of the Evangelism Council, thanked associational people for their concern and prayers for Pastor Mark Corts, who suffered a heart attack in Illinois April 5th. Mr. Jefferies read Isaiah 6:1-11, from which came the theme for the Spring session.

4. Rick Tucker, PMBA music director and minister of music at Union Grove, led the congregation in singing "To God Be the Glory."

5. Moderator Cecil Cave gave the call to order at 3:14. Peggy Hall, clerk, made a motion that messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body for the Spring Session. Tripp May seconded the motion and it was approved. The moderator gave instructions concerning registration.

6. Mary Berridge, chairperson, moved on behalf of the Order of Business Committee that the program be approved as printed. Paul Kennedy seconded the motion and it carried.

7. Asking for a point of personal privilege, the moderator congratulated the host church on their 100th anniversary and then recognized the church's two ministers, Bill and Ann Fryar. These two have committed themselves to excellence in associational work. Mr. Cave presented Ann Fryar the Associational Sunday School Leadership Diploma and Bill Fryar, the Associational General Leadership Diploma. He commended them for leading out in the association in achieving these awards.

Mr. Cave recognized First Baptist's pastor emeritus, Sydney Goldfinch, who served 42 years as a missionary in Central and South America. Mr. Goldfinch will be receiving a Distinguished Alumni Award from Southern Theological Seminary in June.

Mr. Cave mentioned a letter from President George Bush and the Points of Light Foundation challenging people to get involved in volunteer work in their communities. Mr. Cave also expressed sympathy to family and friends of Mr. Ike Worrell, a member of Oaklawn and former associational leader, who died Friday.

8. Sheree Jones, Nominating Committee chairperson, expressed appreciation for people like Bill and Ann Fryar who represent the many leaders with which our association is blessed. Ms. Jones presented the names of those who have agreed to serve as leaders for 1991-92, saying these have answered God's call and have responded like Isaiah with, "Here am I, send me." As Ms. Jones read the names, the leaders came to the front of the auditorium. She made a motion on behalf of the Nominating Committee that these nominees be elected. There were no nominations from the floor and the motion was approved.

9. Bob Cantwell, pastor of Clemmons First and member of the Evangelism Council, distributed a sample "Personal Witnessing Guide." This guide is based upon the personalized tract which those who have gone to Sao Paulo distribute to Brazilians. The Evangelism Council felt that associational churches might like to try this approach. The four-page brochure can be custom designed for the individual congregation, who may print them "in house," have them printed locally, or ask PMBA office staff to help.

10. Rick Tucker led in singing "Tell It Out with Gladness."

11. J. L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore and chairman of the Resource Center Fund Raising Task Force, announced a Conference on Prayer for Spiritual Awakening at Caraway May 20-22. He then recalled the steps leading up to construction and entering the Resource Center, especially the cost. Though we had hoped to build without having to borrow, the association still owed $185,000 when we entered the Resource Center. Last fall the loan balance was approximately $90,000. Several leaders with a growing conviction that we find a plan to pay off this debt formed a Task Force of 25 individuals. Their task is to enlist enough people to give $500 over a period of two years to pay off the loan. As of today, the loan balance is $63,595. Mr. Wilson appealed to interested individuals to sign a pledge card today. He then led in an offertory prayer.

12. The organist played while an offering for the Resource Center was received. (Clerk's note: $740.00 was received.)

13. Mr. Cave expressed appreciation for the associational staff and said that though we have an adequate, attractive building, the building does not get the work done — it is the people within who, with their many capabilities, accomplish the work.

14. A pastors quartet sang, "There's Room at the Cross for You." Making up the quartet were Cecil Cave, Mineral Springs; Bill Guthrie, Crestwood; Jerry Laughter, South Fork; and Tim Wilkins, Southside.

15. Dr. Robert Kelly, a member of Ardmore and volunteer missionary to Sao Paulo, Brazil, shared "What I Have Seen and Experienced." He first shared what he has felt — as a Sunbeam, an RA, and an adult working in his church. Although he never felt called to be a full time missionary, his prayer had always been for God to use him. The need for a medical doctor to be a part of last year's team to Sao Paulo was an answer to prayer. He saw more people living in one area with many physical and spiritual needs than he had ever thought possible. He saw a friendliness and openness among the people of Brazil. He saw the difference people from Pilot Mountain Association can make among multitudes needing the gospel of Jesus Christ. He saw an 82 year old woman accept Christ as her Saviour. He saw how Brazilian churches conducted worship services and how there are different but effective ways to share the good news.

He experienced being part of a team that took the Great Commission seriously; visiting in the homes of strangers and enjoying their hospitality and food; witnessing; developing new friendships with people of a different language, customs, and food; and how God worked through answered prayer — resolving situations quickly for which there seemed to be no evident solution. Dr. Kelly said he hopes to experience even more this year as he and others go to fulfill the request of one of the churches in Pinheiros Association for a medical education team. This team will teach prenatal care, care for the newborn, deal with adolescent and elderly health problems, and teach preventative medicine. At the same time this medical team will be showing the people how to care for their spiritual needs by sharing the love of Jesus with them. Dr. Kelly closed by saying he had a new awareness of how God wants us to deal with lost people—one on one. This sharing of Jesus Christ with another can only happen when a person says, "Send me!"

16. First Baptist Church choir under the direction of Judy Bray sang "It's Up to Me."

17. Mr. Evans, Evangelism director and member of Forest Hill, referring to Isaiah 6, gave a brief history of King Uzziah, who served the nation of Judah for 50 years. He said, "The king of Judah had died; the God of Judah was still on the throne." Mr. Evans led in prayer and gave a brief message on "The Vision." This vision included the throne room of God, angels displaying humility and mobility (prepared to act), God as He is, Isaiah as he was, the people as they were, and the loving forgiveness of God. Mr. Evans concluded by saying, "When we see God as He is, ourselves as we are, and the world around us in the same condition as we are; then see the redemptive work of Jesus Christ, something is going to happen!"

18. Jim Baldwin, pastor of Quaker Gap and Evangelism Council member, spoke on "The Call." Isaiah's call was very simple, very direct, and the circumstances very extraordinary. However, the call is not always extraordinary. Mr. Baldwin shared his own call to salvation and then to the ministry. He has answered the call to go to Sao Paulo, the soon-to-be second largest city in the world. "The call to missions is not much different from the call to receive Jesus as Saviour; those called to receive are called to go," said Mr. Baldwin. He closed by saying "The call is clear; the call is to you and me. The question is, 'How shall we respond?' "

19. Ken Boaz, pastor of Fellowship and Sao Paul Team Coordinator, answered with a message on "The Response." He shared the joy that previous trips have brought him and said the associational setting today made him think of William Carey, the father of the modern missionary movement, who told of his call to missions at an associational gathering. Responding to God's call always begins with a vision — or maybe recapturing an old vision. There are many programs in which the church is involved, but God's people always need to see what God is about, what He is doing. Isaiah's sense of sin and subsequent repentance brought the marvelous assurance that one does not have to remain in sin.

Having his guilt removed by God, Isaiah immediately heard the question, "Whom shall I send and who will go for me?" Mr. Boaz said he wondered if God had been in that place before looking for someone to say "Yes" to Him. Now here was Isaiah in the right place with the right attitude. Action should always follow repentance and forgiveness. We, like Isaiah in the cleansing power of God's Spirit, can boldly declare, "Here am I, send me." Mr. Boaz closed with the question, "What is God calling you to do today?" and quoted I Corinthians 15:58 — "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

20. Executive Director Jim Hamblen spoke on "The Going." He reminded us of the vision — God, alive and on His throne, waiting for His people to respond to his call. Referring to a personal experience while he was in seminary, Mr. Hamblen quoted Dr. James Craine, a missionary to Mexico, who in a message to seminary students said: "It's not where you are when God calls to a specific work; it's where God is when He extends the call." Mr. Hamblen said the time has now come for the going. After counting the cost and calculating the risk, people often ask, "How long will I stay...how far will I go...to extend the missionary movement?" God answers with, "It does not matter how long or how far; it is until every living man and woman, boy and girl has had an opportunity to hear the gospel and to respond.'' Mr. Hamblen said, ''We are to GO until there is a COMING! Our going will be stopped only by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.'' Limitations, restrictions do not count in the Kingdom. God's Word says, ''Ye shall receive power. . . . and ye shall be my witnesses... '' That is a declarative statement, not imperative. Our commission is still to go, make disciples, baptize, and teach. God's answer to each and every one who has experienced His call, regardless of the perimeters, is ''Go in My Name.''

21. ''Set My Soul Afire'' was sung as the hymn of commitment. During the first verse, the 27 Sao Paulo team members moved to the front of the sanctuary. On the second verse those who have served as missionaries in other places outside the United States joined the Sao Paulo group. During the third verse the invitation was extended to those who wished to rededicate themselves, who covenanted to pray for those going, who pledged to go across the street to a neighbor needing Christ, and those who wished things to be different in their lives.

22. Mr. Cave asked everyone to join hands as a promise to pray for each other and as a visible sign to the 27 going to Sao Paulo that they would not be going alone. Ray Hamilton, pastor of Konnoak and member of the Evangelism Council, led in a prayer of commitment and commissioning, saying we had all ''been inspired, encouraged, instructed, and included.''

23. The Spring Session adjourned at 5:00 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Proceedings

of the

106TH Annual Session

of the

SOUTHSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH, WINSTON-SALEM, NC
October 22, 1991

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. A pre-session musical concert was presented at 2:45 PM by Cyrus Bush, soloist, and Larry Keesler, pianist. Mr. Bush is minister of music at Becks and Mr. Keesler is organist at First Baptist, Mount Airy. Mr. Bush sang "Lord, I Seek your Presence," "Jesus Paid It All" in Korean and English, "Broken and Spilled Out," "Moses," and "Available."

2. Cecil Cave, moderator and pastor of Mineral Springs, convened the 106th annual session of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association at 3:00 PM. He reminded us that the association was organized at Red Bank Baptist Church on October 16, 1885. Mrs. Bertha Sneed, a member of Antioch, was recognized for 56 years of unbroken attendance at PMBA annual meetings. Instructions were given concerning registration.

3. Mr. Cave announced that Cyrus Bush, minister of music at Becks, would lead the music at the afternoon session in place of Rick Tucker. The congregation sang "O Worship the King."

4. Tim Wilkins, pastor of Southside, welcomed those present and said it was a privilege to host this annual meeting. He shared a recommendation that the church had approved October 20 concerning their 100th anniversary, which will be celebrated throughout 1992. Mr. Wilkins recognized the presence of W. R. Grigg, a former pastor, and then led in prayer.

5. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that those messengers already registered, and those to be registered, constitute the body of the 106th annual session. Motion was seconded and approved.

6. The moderator expressed appreciation to Cyrus Bush, Larry Keesler, and Neil Maxey for their contributions in music and to Mary Berridge and the Order of Business Committee, who were asked to stand. Mr. Cave gave instructions regarding Evaluation Forms for this meeting.

7. Mr. Cave introduced Tom Austin, pastor of Knollwood and member of the Pastoral Ministries Council, who would interpret the theme, "Let us renew our strength," as it relates to the five objectives of our association which make up the segments of the program. (Clerk's Note: Text of the theme interpretation is attached to original Proceedings in PMBA files.)

8. Improve the Organization was the first program section. Mr. Austin said, "It is not an overstatement to suggest that the grand designs of faith have fallen on troublous days" and cited Albert Schweitzer's words comparing the religion of our age with an African River in the dry season. The big words in our speech today are, for the most part, words like alienation, death, guilt, estrangement, dread rather than the great words that once had the power to elicit either our fears or our hopes. He asked, "Can we, in an age replete with denials, repudiations, and doubts. . . . reorient ourselves and humbly find a new beginning for faith?" We cannot find it in church rhetoric. . . . but must search for a narrow gate rather than the broad way. He challenged us to ponder the promise in the theme taken from Isaiah 40:31. Those who have been renewed shall soar like eagles; run the marathon and not be weary; walk with a fast pace and not faint.

9. Cyrus Bush led in singing "O God, We Ask for Strength."

10. Jim Hamblen, executive director, brought a recommendation from the Associational Coordinating Council that the proposed calendar for 1991-1992 be approved. Boyce Wilson, Knollwood, moved that the calendar be accepted. Following a second, the motion was approved.

11. Barry Burge, chairman of the Constitution Committee, told of proposed changes to the Bylaws dealing with name change of a conference, completion of the Language Missions Council section, revision of the Sunday School Council section, and one deletion concerning Bylaws revisions. Mr. Burge moved that the changes as recommended by the Committee and the Executive Board be adopted. The motion was seconded and approved.

12. Clay Booher, chairman of the Audit Committee, called attention to their report in the Book of Reports and recognized the other members of the committee. Mr. Booher moved that the association continue an annual outside audit and that the firm of Gray, Callison and Company be retained to audit the books for 1991. Motion was approved.

13. Larry Matthews, treasurer, reported on financial matters of the association. The nine months' Treasurer's Report printed in the Book of Reports revealed that $197,256.14 had been contributed by the congregations, an increase of $33,318.25 over last year at this time. Mr. Matthews said the principal amount due on the Resource Center loan was $46,486.49 at the end of October. All money received for the Resource Center each month is paid directly on principal plus the $15,385 allocated in the basic budget. He remarked that, as soon as the loan is paid off, more money will be available to leaders for ministries. Mr. Matthews expressed appreciation to Sandra Hall for her work as financial secretary and said it had been his pleasure to serve as treasurer. The financial report was received by consensus.

14. Sheree Jones, Nominating Committee chairperson, shared the joy members of this committee feel in enlisting and equipping leaders to serve, saying God has blessed the association with gifted and talented people. She referred messengers to their report in the Book of Reports. Members of each council and committee were asked to stand. Ms. Jones asked that two names be added to the list of associational representatives: Jim Saul, Oaklawn, the Biblical Recorder; and Warren Carr, Wake Forest, Forsyth Council for Older Adults. She moved that the leaders as listed be elected to serve in Pilot Mountain Association for 1991-92 and it was approved.

15. Personnel Committee chairman, Charles Edwards, began his report with the words, ''Let's celebrate!'' He recognized Mike Bradshaw, Missions Ministries Director, and Sandra Hall, financial secretary, upon their fifth anniversary on the associational staff. Referring to Mrs. Hall as ''minister of finance'' and Mr. Bradshaw as an ''entrepreneur in ministries,'' Mr. Edwards recounted some of their many contributions. Checks were presented to each of them as a tangible expression of appreciation. Mr. Bradshaw responded for both, saying they were excited about being part of the associational staff and about what staff and people can do together in the future.

Mr. Edwards shared a brief history of associational leaders' desire and need for someone to help local congregations in the area of congregational development. A recent survey conducted by the Personnel Committee revealed a mixed response from the 65 pastors contacted, but there was enough encouragement and sufficient interest for the committee to pursue the calling of an additional staff person. A six-phase sequential decision-making process for calling a Congregational Development Director was presented to the Executive Board September 24, 1991:

1. Approve the process by Executive Board
2. Establish a Job Description; present to Executive Board for approval
3. Develop financial package in consultation with Finance Committee; present to Executive Board for approval
4. Determine criteria for selection process; look at resumes; interview candidates
5. Present candidate to Executive Board and Association-in-session for formal call
6. Congregational Development Director begins work

These six steps will allow time to assess the situation, clarify the purposes and allow for a broad base of ownership. Mr. Edwards moved that the association begin a definite process to call a Congregational Development Director which involves multiple phases with specific points which allow deliberation and decision by associational leadership and congregational representatives. Following a second, the motion was approved unanimously.

16. Tom Austin continued his theme interpretation for Develop Believers by sharing his fascination with the automatic pilot in modern airplanes. He said there is nothing automatic about the Christian life; one decides every day for or against Christ in all decision-making. Referring to Ephesians 4:14-16, he said conversion is more than an initial act; it is a growing experience. We all have pockets of resistance, times of betrayal and denial, as well as affirmations. We all began as baby Christians. The church must prepare people for a lifetime of growth. The church is both evangelist and educator; both obstetrician and pediatrician; involved in both delivery and nurturing. Referring to the lectures of John Claypool, Mr. Austin said we are to move to the aid of another by making available to them the fruits of our own woundedness, that we help believers develop when we lay bare our own woundedness and acknowledge what is saving and helping us. The places where we find struggle most acute are the places where we can help others move from beyond the birth stage to the growth stage. They, like us, are just pilgrims on a journey of faith.

17. Cyrus Bush led in singing "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah."

18. Bill Guthrie, a member of the Seminary Extension Council and president of the Ministers Conference, quoted II Timothy 2:15 in which the Apostle Paul was speaking to the young minister, Timothy, and to us. He called attention to information concerning Seminary Extension courses available next year and encouraged everyone to enroll, emphasizing that there are no special educational or professional requirements.

19. Ty Talton, Sunday School director, reported that "Breakthrough" is the five year theme for Sunday School throughout the Southern Baptist Convention. He announced the October 28th Training School at Becks and the November 7th Sunday School Growth Seminar, to be held at Ardmore and led by Neil Jackson of the Sunday School Board. He reminded churches who conducted Vacation Bible Schools to send in reports. Mr. Talton presented to Tripp May, minister of education at Northwest and member of the ASSISTeam, his Associational Sunday School Leadership Diploma.

20. Joyce Love, WMU director, shared the work and planning that led to the World Missions Conference September 15-22, 1991. Twenty-six congregations participated. During the week, 10,335 people attended the meetings with 429 as the average church attendance. Three lunches were hosted by Ardmore, Quaker Gap and Kernersville First with 400 attending. This gave everyone an opportunity to hear state, home, and foreign missionaries as well as for the missionaries to hear, and fellowship with, one another. There were 14 rededications and four professions of faith during the World Missions Conference.

Diane Kirby, Clemmons First, shared what the week had meant to her as she renewed her friendship with Ms. Beulah Peoples. The two of them had served together in GA Camp many years ago. They renewed their friendship and committed themselves to prayer. Cecil Cave said he led his church, Mineral Springs, to participate because he thought it would be good for the church for missionary education. However, he did not expect things to happen evangelistically. Each night the church had a different emphasis. On Youth Night, God moved in the hearts of two young people to accept Christ as Savior and Lord. These young people have since been baptized and are attending the new member's orientation class. "We can't always predict what God is going to do. I am thankful for the fruits of those days," said Mr. Cave.

21. In his theme interpretation for Enhance the Fellowship, Mr. Austin developed the thought of what people do to have fellowship, to "come out of their shells, to share their experience." He said the word fellowship conveys various meanings to various people. When we try to explain what is meant by Christian fellowship, we have to qualify the term. He said the only single word in any language that conveys the meaning of Christian fellowship is koinonia. He quoted Paul's benediction in II Corinthians 13:14: "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all." Ralph Sockman, a great Methodist preacher, helped Mr. Austin to understand the meaning of fellowship. Mr. Sockman said we have been given three sets of eyes with which to perceive — the body (to see form, color, outward manifestations, persons); the mind (to see how information fits together, so we have insight to make the pieces of the puzzle fit together); and the heart (eyes that search for the final understanding, for meaning to what people say and who they are). Mr. Austin closed with these words: "Genuine Koinonia is a vital fuel for maintaining the energy of the church as a finely tuned organism. Don't pamper it — receive it, rejoice in it, be gifted by it. Thanks be to God!"

22. Cyrus Bush led in singing "The Church's One Foundation."

23. Mr. Cave complimented Jim Hamblen, executive director, as "one who plans and assists people, then stands back and lets things go, knowing they will go well. He has a sense of sensitivity to the gifts God has bestowed on our churches. God has gifted him in a special way." Mr. Hamblen welcomed the new ministers who have come into our association since last Annual Meeting. He asked them to stand as he called out their names. Present were James Cagle, Union Hill; Mark Dudley, Clemmons First; Tommy Hall, Oaklawn; Neil Maxey, Rural Hall First; Larry Parks, Knollwood; Scott Pond, Lewisville; Randall Spiva, Glenn View; Wade Tucker, Friends; and David Wilson, Peace Haven. Mr. Hamblen later introduced David Hughes, Winston-Salem First.

The following special guests were recognized: J. Ray Butler, moderator of the Rowan Baptist Assocaition and pastor of United Missionary Cornerstone Baptist Church; Joseph Jesudason, pastor/leader of the Christian Fellowship of India meeting regularly in the Resource Center; and Mark White, Brotherhood Department of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Mr. White brought greetings from Dr. Roy Smith, executive secretary/treasurer of the Baptist State Convention, and expressed appreciation to the many contributions of the association to the life of Baptists in North Carolina and around the world. He said it is his privilege to serve as the C.A.R.E. representative to PMBA.

Mr. Hamblen recognized Mark Corts, pastor of Calvary, who is recovering from open heart surgery; Charles Corts, Mark's father; Hilda Warfford, member of Ardmore and wife of a former director of missions in our association; and Kathleen Frink Sullivan, for the foundation she laid in the early work of this association. He also recognized everyone who had served as missionaries or are members of missionary families, and retired ministers.

24. Tim Wilkins, host pastor, gave instructions regarding the fellowship meal.

25. Boyce Wilson, chairman of the Strategy Planning Committee and member of Knollwood, introduced Dr. W. D. Lindsey, director of missions for Greater Detroit Baptist Association. Dr. Lindsey received his education at Baylor University and Southern Seminary. He is from a family of missionaries and has served as missionary, pastor, minister of education, and minister of music. Dr. Lindsey presented a mini piano concert, playing "Great Is Thy Faithfulness," "I Know Whom I Have Believed," and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

26. Charles Stevens, pastor of Kernersville First, led in a time of remembrance for those who have died since the last annual meeting. Reading II Corinthians 4:17-18, he said that in the midst of all the changes that come into our lives, some things are going to abide. Though loved ones have gone from the physical scene and are not physically present with us today, they still have an impact on our lives—their influence, their contribution, their dreams, the things they loved. Because of their commitment, dedication, service and love, they are still at work in our midst, blessing and enriching our lives.

27. Mr. Stevens led in a prayer of thanksgiving for our heritage and in a blessing for the fellowship meal.

EVENING SESSION

28. At 6:45 PM a musical concert was presented by the sanctuary choir of Southside Baptist Church under the direction of their minister of music, Martha Evans. The choir sang "You Are Exalted" and "Majesty and Glory." O. H. Walker, Jr. at the organ and Martha Evans at the piano played "To God Be the Glory." Mr. Walker played "Prelude in Classic Style" at the organ.

29. Moderator Cecil Cave convened the evening session at 7:02 PM by sharing a brief summary of the afternoon session and giving instructions for registration.

30. Tom Austin introduced the Reach People segment. Quoting Samuel Miller, he expounded on "living at the growing edge" redemptively, quietly, and patiently. He said we do not reach people with a "canned formula, rehearsed slogans nor any marketing plan." We reach people when we show the depths of who we are by standing beside them. George McCloud of the Iona Community said of Jesus that He reached people on a cross between thieves, on the town garbage-heap, on a cosmopolitan crossroad where three languages were necessary to show Jesus' title, at a place where soldiers gambled and thieves cursed. Mr. Austin ended by saying, "That's what church people should be and what being church is all about. Thanks be to God!"

31. Rick Tucker, PMBA music director and minister of music at Union Grove, expressed appreciation for Cyrus Bush, who led the music at the afternoon session, and for PMBA's allowing him to serve as music director for the past two years. He led in singing "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

32. Coley Rimmer, director of Church and Community Ministries Council, shared what this council has been doing and is planning in the near future, especially in the areas of SelfHelp Crafts Sale, the Baptist Toy Store, and literacy missions. There were four professions at faith during last year's Toy Store. Fifty families requested a visit from a local church. Sixty-seven people were trained this past year in literacy workshops. In 1993 the emphasis will be on Ministry. A task force is being enlisted to plan for this emphasis.

33. Randy Godwin, director of Church Growth, reported that the two purposes of this council are to assist churches on plateau or in decline and to assist in starting/developing new congregations. Mr. Godwin said the council has researched and compiled a five-year selected history of each PMBA church from information on the Uniform Church Letters. These are available to a representative from each church. Mr. Godwin called attention to three dates in 1992 having to do with PACT (Project: Assistance to Churches in Transition).

34. Herman Kitchen, member of the Credentials Committee, reported that the committee had accepted letters of withdrawals of affiliation by Victory Baptist and Colfax Baptist churches. On behalf of the Credentials Committee, he moved that North Winston Baptist Church presently located in Mineral Springs Middle School be accepted under watchcare of the association for one year inasmuch as the congregation has indicated their desire to be a part of this fellowship. Following a chorus of seconds, the motion was approved unanimously. On behalf of the congregation, Reuban Gilliam, pastor of North Winston, received the right hand of fellowship from the moderator.

Mr. Kitchen made a motion on behalf of the Credentials Committee that New Life Baptist Church, YMCA Camp Road in King, be received into full membership of the association because we are conviced that its faith, polity, and practice are in harmony with the purposes of the association; and this church has been under the watchcare of the association for the one year as required by our constitution and has reiterated its desire to be affiliated with us. Following a number of seconds, the motion was approved unanimously. Along with members of New Life, messengers from King First were recognized for the covenant relationship between the two congregations. Marshall Boyles, New Life pastor, received the right hand of fellowship from Moderator Cecil Cave.

35. Evangelism Director Ed Evans, Forest Hill, brought greetings in Portuguese and he and Ken Boaz, Sao Paulo coordinator and pastor of Fellowship, entered into a dialog concerning the North Carolina/Sao Paulo partnership. There have been four trips to Sao Paulo with 84 individuals from 16 congregations involved in evangelistic work. A medical team also went last year. These volunteers have helped in starting about 30 missions in the Pinheiros Association, with which our association is aligned. Plans are in process for bringing a team of Brazilians to our association April 20-May 5, 1992. They will be available to speak in PMBA churches, to receive training, and to share in fellowship. One last trip to Sao Paulo is scheduled for September 17-30, 1992. Mr. Evans encouraged congregations to use people who have gone to Sao Paulo during the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions.

36. Tom Austin brought the theme interpretation for Strengthen Missions. He told of a microscopic plant named Plankton (''drifting'') which floats over the ocean through no power or will of its own and likened it to people of the twentieth century who seem powerless to direct their own destiny, their own sense of mission. The church should enable her people to live with purpose in a world without purpose. He said so many are content to grow in physical stature only. This ''segregation of concern'' exempts most people in a church from a sense of personal responsibility. This loss of a sense of mission is a judgment upon those who are leaders in the churches. Many churches are constantly seeking to save themselves, to build themselves up in worldly status and power. We have turned away from reconciling the world and are content to reconcile ourselves. Mr. Austin told about Fred Craddock who, in a restaurant, observed a distinguished older man moving about from table to table. A private person, Mr. Craddock was somewhat resentful as the old man came to his table. Upon learning that Mr. Craddock was a preacher, the old man pulled up a chair and began to talk. He shared sad experiences from his childhood that left him feeling he belonged to nobody and was accepted by no one. His life changed drastically when a new preacher came to the church in his community and said to him: ''Who are you, son; whose boy are you?....Wait a minute....I see the family resemblance; you are a son of God....Boy, you've got quite an inheritance; go and claim it!'' The old man telling this story revealed that his name was Ben Hooper. Rev. Mr. Craddock remembered how his grandfather had told him many times about an illegitimate man who had been elected governor of Tennessee. That person was Ben Hooper. Mr. Austin closed by saying that we have two things to say to every human being in the world: (1) ''We know who you are. We see the family resemblance; you are a son/daughter of God.'' and (2) ''You have a great inheritance; go and claim it!''

37. Rick Tucker led in singing ''Jesus Shall Reign.''

38. Ron Wood, Finance Committee member and pastor of Mount Calvary, thanked the association for the privilege of serving on this committee, for being elected 1991-92 chairman, and for the leadership of Amis Daniel in his role as as chairman. Mr. Wood called attention to the proposed 1992 budget as printed in the Book of Reports. He noted that one reason for the increase is due to inclusion of a Congregational Development Director. He pointed out that receipts this year are approximately $40,000 over the previous year. Mr. Wood moved that the association adopt the 1992 budget as proposed. It was approved unanimously.

39. Cecil Cave led in an offertory prayer and an offering was received for the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center. (Clerk's note: $527.74 was received.) Offertory music was provided by O.H. Walker, Jr. at the organ.

40. Boyce Wilson introduced Dr. W. D. Lindsey for the special feature. Mr. Wilson characterized Dr. Lindsey as the ''story telling man,'' who had learned from another ''story telling man — Jesus.'' He is currently the director of missions for the Greater Detroit Baptist Association and assigned to the Metropolitan Missions Department of the Home Mission Board.

41. Dr. Lindsey brought greetings from our brothers and sisters in Detroit and the 300 congregations in that area. He spoke of the close friendship he and Jim Hamblen have shared over the years. He cautioned messengers not to get their idea of Detroit from ABC news. He and his family live almost in the center of the city. Dr. Lindsey said God is in Detroit and challenged us to join God in the work He is doing.

Detroit is a city of 4.7 million people and 115 ethnic groups. Out of the 4.7 million, three million are lost. Employment rate is now 8.8% (it was 17.3 in 1982). His association was started in 1951 with six churches; there are now 62 congregations. There is one church for every 48,000 people, as compared to one for every 6,000 in the Southern Baptist Convention.

Dr. Lindsey said the story of Detroit centers around economics, not race or culture. There are 300,000 Arabs living in the area and 75,000 Iraqis, and five times as many Muslims as Southern Baptists. The Islamic faith is the fastest growing one in America and growing fastest in the Detroit area. There are more than 50 mosques, one with 11,000 members. He thinks Detroit is a ''side door back into the Middle East,'' which is presently closed to mission work. There are over 70 schools of higher learning in the area. Dr. Lindsey said only two kinds of people live in this vast area — lost and saved. He sees many advantages for the two associations in a partnership. PMBA folks will have the opportunity to touch some of the neediest people in the world; Detroit is the poorest section in North America. It is an opportunity to plug into a major ethnic city. He reminded us that the life of man began in a garden but will end in a City.

Dr. Lindsey read from Romans 15:22-24 and cited reasons the aged Apostle Paul longed to go to Spain with the Gospel: (1) Because he had the heart of an evangelist; (2) He was a master at taking risks for Christ; and (3) He was simply obedient to Christ and His commandment to go into all the world. Dr. Lindsey told the story of Michael Copeland, a Jew from New York who married a Texas girl and eventually accepted Christ as His Saviour. His family disowned him and he lost an inheritance of $15 million. When asked if it was worth it, Mr. Copeland replied, ''Yes.'' Dr. Lindsey said some believers think the Great Commission is the great suggestion, when it is a command, an order. It is the Private's uniform that is described in Ephesians 6. He asked, ''What if we aw our baptism as our oath of allegiance to our Chief? What if we all said I'm a Christian soldier under orders and I will never retreat?''

Dr. Lindsey said for some, their ''Spain'' will be Detroit. Dr. Lindsey closed with an illustration about a subway accident in England. Amid the death, darkness and smoke a nurse was doing all she could to alleviate the suffering. Seeing a well dressed man on the docks, she asked him why he did not help. The man, a medical doctor, replied, ''I would — but I must have my instruments.'' Detroit with its many needs and opportunities is asking PMBA to come and help. God is saying He needs His instruments. ''Brothers and sisters, you and I are His instruments!'' challenged Dr. Lindsey.

42. Boyce Wilson, chairman of the Strategy Planning Committee, moved the following: That the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association enter into a domestic missions partnership with the Greater Detroit Baptist Association for the period October 22, 1991, through September 30, 1994; and that the Strategy Planning Committee be the responsible Pilot Mountain Baptist Association work unit for developing a ''Plan of Action'' for the partnership, for negotiating the ''Plan'' with the Greater Detroit Baptist Association, and for coordinating the implementation of the ''Plan'' through the Coordinating Council and the Executive Board; and that the Strategy Planning Committee furnish a status report of the partnership at each meeting of the Executive Board and the Association-in-Session. The motion was unanimously adopted.

43. The moderator asked that all the officers for 1991-92 stand, along with all others serving in any capacity in the association. Mr. Cave then led in a prayer of dedication and commitment.

44. Mr. Cave gave instructions concerning the Evaluation Sheets. He expressed appreciation to all who attended this 106th Annual Session, for all the contributions made, and the PMBA staff.

45. Paul Norman, pastor of Leak Memorial, moved to adjourn. Following a second, Mr. Cave led in the benediction. The 106th Annual Session was adjourned at 9:07 PM.

Respectfully submitted:

Pray that Pilot Mountain Baptist Association recreation will grow stronger in developing youth for Christ first, as well as teaching our youth how to play, compete, win; and, most of all, love in doing so.

JACK THORNTON, Director

Baptist Men

The Baptist Men's organization continued to encourage the men and boys in missions. An RA Missions Fair and Car Competition was held and well attended. Other meetings included the annual training event, a dinner meeting, and a noon lunch meeting focusing on mission opportunities.

Men of the association were involved in the following activities during the year: disaster relief training; construction of seminary facilities in Poland; general evangelism in Sao Paulo, Brazil; construction of church facilities in North Carolina; construction of Habitat for Humanity homes in Winston-Salem; and lay renewal team work in our association and across the state.

HARRY HARKEY, Director

Chaplaincy Ministry Council

In 1990-1991 the Chaplaincy Ministries Council has continued to focus on developing lay ministry in area nursing homes. Our summer intern this year was Frank Martin, a student at the School of Social Work, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. Building on the work done by two previous summer interns, Frank set up lines of communication with area nursing home directors. He re-established contact with interested persons in churches who have supported this program in past years.

In the past three years we have developed resources to be used by individuals beginning to visit nursing homes, produced a video to be used in churches to recruit volunteers, established nursing home outreach centers in several churches, and developed a system for reporting visits to the associational office.

The Chaplaincy Ministries Council begins this fall a new program of offering twice yearly lectures designed to support some interest of active ministry in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The first such lecture, which is scheduled for late October, will deal with the subject of how to develop self-care for those ministering to Alzheimer victims.

The Rev. Linda Lewis will assume the chair of the Chaplaincy Ministries Council beginning in October, 1991.

BETTY W. TALBERT, Chairperson

Christian Life Council

Christian Life has had a year of planning and growing experiences. We have learned to plan mini-workshops that will meet the needs of, inform, and guide, the churches. On April 23, 1992, from 6:00-9:00 PM at the Resource Center, we will sponsor a workshop, ''Showcase of Marriage Enrichment Models.'' Bill Yates, Pfafftown pastor, will lead this session.

GLENDORA EPPERSON, Director

Church and Community Ministries Council

The purpose of Church and Community Ministries Council is to assist churches to minister and witness to persons of special need. Program areas are: Blind, Adult Mentally Handicapped, Hunger, Literacy, International, and Crisis Ministries.

Accomplishments this past year include:

1. Third World Self Help Craft Sale at PMBA. We sold $16,235 which went directly to people in under developed Third World countries. We want to thank the 35 volunteers who helped with the sale.
2. Baptist Toy Store was held at the PMBA Resource Center. One half of the families were families we had not helped before. We received 1,400 toys which were distributed to 503 children in 204 families. There were four professions of faith and two rededications of faith. Fifty families requested a visit from a local church. Fifty percent of these names were given to PMBA churches. We want to thank the 54 volunteers and the many churches giving toys for children.
3. Literacy - Two tutor training workshops were held at the Resource Center with 67 attending. Bess Hollingsworth has conducted several other workshops in addition to the two at PMBA. We have planned three tutor training workshops and an English as a Second Language Workshop for 1992.
4. James Garrison, a graduate student at Wake Forest, was our summer worker with special ministries. We appreciate his work with the blind and mentally handicapped people of our area. We had 74 attend the Spring Celebration at Becks in June with the help of 47 volunteers. Twenty-one went to Carowinds in July for Super Summer Celebration. We appreciate the help of Robin Hood Road and Ardmore Baptist Men in sponsoring a Beep Ball game and picnic for the blind at Hines Park with 100 attending. The 24 volunteer drivers were a Godsend. We thank all the volunteers for making the summer special for special people.

In our annual planning retreat in May at Janie Hooker's home in Hanging Rock, we planned for the above events for 1992. We also plan to add two Servant Leadership events, to learn how to use our gifts in God's service, in 1992. Also, 1993 will be the year of emphasis on MINISTRY. A Task Force is being enlisted to plan for this emphasis.

We are greatly encouraged by the number of churches participating in the various ministry programs of our council. We ask for your continued involvement. Of the ministries planned by all ministry councils, there were 207 church involvements in direct ministries last year. That means our churches are doing a great work!

COLEY RIMMER, Director

Church Growth Council

The Church Growth Council's main goal for 1991 was to incorporate the constitutional changes for our council that were approved by the association. From these changes we have established our goals for next year. Our emphasis for 1992 will center around shaping the future for PMBA churches that are in changing communities. We will accomplish this goal through a PACT (*P*roject: *A*ssistance for *C*hurches in *T*ransition) Blitz. The endeavor will be in cooperation with the Home Mission Board, our State Convention, and PMBA. The project will consist of three phases:

Phase 1: Awareness with Bob Watson, leader - March 23, 24
Phase II: Interviews and Training - April 27-29
Phase III: Blitz - September 18-20.

RANDY GODWIN, Director

Cooperative Ministries Council

The Cooperative Ministries Council serves as a liaison between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Association. The Council seeks ways to share in cooperative fellowship and ministry among the pastors and churches of the two associations. In December the ministers and spouses of the two associations came together for a joint worship service and lunch at Ardmore Baptist Church. The Christmas message was delivered by Dr. J. Ray Butler, the moderator of Rowan Baptist Association.

In order to alleviate any paternalistic approach in joint ventures between the two associations, small team meetings were scheduled by Dr. Corbin Cooper, director of Cooperative Ministries with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, to receive input from selected ministers from both associations. Suggestions from these team sessions would be implemented in local settings across the state. Due to Dr. Cooper's illness, these sessions were postponed. They will be rescheduled and, hopefully, workable suggestions will be forthcoming with accompanying implementation.

CECIL CAVE, Director

Creative Ministries Council

During this associational year the Creative Ministries Council focused on using creative ministries in the marketplace. February 2, 1991 the council conducted a workshop on "Puppetry in the Marketplace" at Ardmore Baptist Church. On September 28, 1991 a workshop on "Clowns in the Marketplace (Part I)" was held at Oaklawn Baptist Church. Workshops are scheduled in February and September of 1992 and will continue the marketplace theme.

Members of our council (puppeteers and clowns) were present at Joel Coliseum in November 1990 to welcome messengers to the NC Baptist State Convention.

A member of our council led a clowning workshop in the Liberty Association in May of 1991.

Churches are encouraged to call on the Creative Ministries Council for assistance.

TRIPP MAY, Director

Deacon Ministries Council

The Deacon Ministries Council was represented at the Key Leadership Conference held at Ridgecrest this spring. The emphasis was focused on deacons as a ministry body and was led by Eddie Hammett, from the State Convention, who is in charge of deacon training.

Immediate plans for the 1991-92 year include a training session for deacons and spouses on November 21, from 7:00-9:00 PM at the associational Resource Center. This session will be led by Eddie Hammett.

The council also wants to make the churches aware of what materials and resources are available at the Resource Center and on the state level to assist them with their deacon ministry.

ROBERT E. BARBERA, Director

Evangelism Council

The overall objective of the Evangelism Council has been to enhance the evangelistic climate within the churches of our association. We have sought to accomplish this through a variety of methods, to include:

- The use of THE PILOT
- Participation in the associational Spring Meeting
- Distribution of a Personal Witness Guide
- Discipleship Training Seminar for pastors and other church leaders

Plans are being made to recommend and coordinate an area-wide type crusade for 1994.

ED EVANS, Director

SAO PAULO/NC PARTNERSHIP

In April of 1991, a team of 26 folks was sent from the PMBA to work with ten churches and missions of the Pinheiros Association in the metropolis of Sao Paulo, Brazil. This effort was the third evangelistic team, five teams total, that have been commissioned by the PMBA during the five-year Sao Paulo/NC Partnership, an effort to begin 1,000 new churches in the state of Sao Paulo by 1992.

Plans for the final year of the partnership include another evangelistic team to be sent in September, 1992 and hosting a team from Sao Paulo to share in our association in April and May, 1992.

May God bless this effort in the building of His Kingdom through our Lord Jesus Christ.

KEN BOAZ, Coordinator

Language Missions Council

The goal of the Language Missions Council has been to work with our language churches this year. The three language congregations that we work with are Hispanic Mission at Union Grove Baptist Church, Korean Mission at Winston-Salem First Baptist Church, and Vietnamese Mission at Ardmore Baptist Church.

The council asks that you pray for these congregations and their leadership as they try to reach out to their language groups in our communities.

During the last few months we have begun a Christian Fellowship of India under the leadership of Joseph Jesudason. They are presently meeting once a month at the Resource Center. We ask that you pray for this fellowship, that God will direct them in their ministry.

MIKE BRANSCOME, Director

Media Library Council

A Church Media Library Workshop was held on November 10, 1990 at Oaklawn Church with eight people present. Two courses were taught by state approved instructors:

1. How to Process Media - taught by Mrs. Sarah Covington
2. How to Classify and Catalog Media - taught by Mrs. Pat Naramore

MARY BULLARD, Director

Music Council

The PMBA Music Council's purpose is to plan, promote, and implement training events and corporate music experiences which strengthen the work of Music Ministry in the local church.

The 1990-91 year included several events aimed at supporting local church Music Ministry. First, the Fall of 1990 included an ADULT CHOIR FESTIVAL held at Clemmons First. Six local choirs, with over 100 singers, presented choral selections and shared in a time of hymn singing. This was a fun and worshipful experience.

The Spring highlight was the presentation of the youth musical LIVE AT THE PALACE in April of 1991. Thirty-five young people from several local churches participated in this PMBA activity, which was held at Pfafftown.

1991-92 includes some exciting events, beginning with an ORGAN WORKSHOP which was held on September 28, 1991 at Salem College. The workshop leader was Margaret Mueller and there were 16 organists in attendance. The Winter of '92 will bring a PraiSing to the PMBA where the brand new Baptist Hymnal will be introduced locally to those who have not yet had that opportunity. In May of 1992 there will be an Older Children's Choir Workshop, focusing on choir workers and members.

The Music Council meets monthly for planning and these meetings are followed by a lunch/fellowship for music ministers throughout the association. The council members work hard to provide positive, productive experiences in music. We anticipate that the upcoming opportunities will lend a helping hand to many PMBA congregations.

C. RICHARD TUCKER, JR., Director

Ordination Council

The purpose of the Ordination Council is to assist churches upon request in examining candidates for the gospel ministry.

This past year the council was called upon by one church for this assistance. At the request of Ardmore Baptist Church, we met in June to examine Amy Vick. The council was able to make a positive recommendation and the church proceeded with the ordination.

WILSON HARMON, Director

Pastoral Ministries Council

The Pastoral Ministries Council is really composed of three councils:

1. The Deacon Ministries Council works with deacons of churches in our association to plan training events and to be of assistance to deacons in any way. Bobby Barbera of Union Grove leads this council.
2. The Ordination Council is available to assist churches when they wish to interview a candidate for ordination to the ministry. Donald Farrow, pastor of Waughtown, leads this council.
3. The Church-Minister Relations Council has as its purpose that of assisting churches and ministers during periods of conflict. The council can only serve when it is called upon by a church or a minister. This council is available to listen and to offer counsel. Tom Austin, pastor of Knollwood, leads this council.

In addition to these services, the Pastoral Ministries Council is exploring ways and means to be of help to ministers. One event we are planning in 1992 is a one day spiritual retreat for ministers.

This council exists to be of service to the churches and the ministers.

RUSSELL WIMMER, Director
DAN HUTCHINS, Co-Director

Seminary Extension Council

The Seminary Extension Council sponsored ten Seminary Extension courses this year, including two courses taught at the Forsyth Prison. There was a total enrollment of 79 students. The Council produced a promotional video tape that is available to the churches.

Congratulations are in order for Peggy Isley, a member of Ardmore, who received her diploma in Christian Studies this past year.

NANCY SEBASTIAN, Director

Senior Adult Ministries Council

The Senior Adult Ministries Council sponsored a senior adult luncheon at Ardmore Baptist Church on May 2, 1991 with approximately 240 people in attendance, representing about 28 churches in the association. Our speaker for the luncheon was R. G. Puckett, editor and business manager of the Biblical Recorder.

The luncheon for 1992 will be held on Thursday, April 30, at First Baptist Church, Kernersville.

ARTHUR M. WETZEL, Director

Single Adult Ministries Council

Your Single Adult Ministries Council continues to seek out new and effective ways to serve those churches in our association ministering to the needs of single adults. This year we accomplished this in several different ways. The council embarked upon the task of establishing direct contact with single adult leaders in each of our local congregations. Leaders have been invited to come together, to share with one another and to share in the council's own planning process. Resource materials have been acquired and made available to the churches through the PMBA Resource Center.

The highlight event of the year was a ''Springfest'' for single adults in our association. This all day event featured a number of workshops dealing with relevant topics for singles, but also incorporated a banquet and a ''celebration'' concert. The council appreciates the assistance given by the host church, Becks Baptist, and all other churches represented at this event. It was this kind of coming together and cooperation that made 1990-91 a year of successes and blessings for your Single Adult Ministries Council.

CHARLES MARTIN, Director

Stewardship Council

The association sponsored a Bold Missions Stewardship Conference March 10, 1991 with twenty-five persons attending. Fifteen churches were represented. Talmage Williams and Ken Batts of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina led the conference. Resources were given to every church represented, which included materials for stewardship chairpersons, education, missions, budget and accounting.

There was an introduction to the new Cooperative Program support plan of One for All. One for All is a five-year strategy for Cooperative Program support which undergirds and promotes our one mission, taking the good news of Christ to all the world.

Special stewardship events planned for this coming year are:

- An Annuity Tax Seminar on January 21 for all church staff and stewardship committees. The purposes of this meeting are to help participants budget for the present and plan for the future.
- A Bold Missions Planning and Giving Conference on March 19, which should serve the same purposes of this past year's conference.
- A Christian Money Management Conference on May 29-30, which is designed to lead participants to make a commitment to use Christian money management principles and to teach Christian money management principles to members of their churches.

As we enter this new year may each of us be willing to increase our personal giving to our churches and help lead our churches to increase the percentage of gifts going through the Cooperative Program and associational missions. Bold Mission Thrust awaits bold commitment.

RICHARD HICKS, Director

Sunday School Council/ASSIST

Nineteen ninety-one has been the first year of the ''Breakthrough'' emphasis. ''Breakthrough: Reach to Win'' has been the theme for the year as we have challenged PMBA Sunday Schools to strengthen their outreach efforts.

We conducted the following events in support of our churches:

1. Fall Training School - October 8-9, 1990 (3 locations)
2. Hosted the Regional Sunday School Clinic for the Baptist State Convention - April 5-6, 1991
3. Led two Vacation Bible School training clinics - May 4 & 6, 1991
4. Held a preview workshop on ''Ordering Your New Curriculum'' - June 11, 1991
5. Provided personal consultation and direct assistance to more than 20 churches.

Our ASSISTeam participated in the following training events:

1. ASSIST Institute in February
2. State VBS Clinic in March
3. Annual Planning Retreat in May
4. Key Leadership in May
5. Sunday School Week at Ridgecrest

which enabled us to continue our status as a Standard Association for the third year in a row.

''Breakthrough: Teach the Bible to Win'' is the theme for 1991-92. Our goals for the coming year are:

1. Conduct training for at least one Outreach project to assist congregations in reaching the lost.
2. Provide training to assist congregations in Prospect Discovery.
3. Assist at least five congregations in development of Outreach organizations in their Sunday Schools.
4. Enlist a resource person on the team to assist language missions in development of Sunday Schools.
5. Provide training for Sunday School leadership of all churches through fall and spring training schools with annual recognition of diplomas completed.
6. Provide training resources for leadership development for use of churches.
7. Work with Christian Educators Conference in developing a task force which can assist churches in the selection and evaluation of curriculum materials.
8. Conduct an annual Sunday School Rally to promote and challenge Sunday School leadership in our churches.
9. Begin making plans for a major Sunday School event in 1994.

TY TALTON, Director

Woman's Missionary Union

Our emphasis challenged us this past year in Woman's Missionary Union to do more to share Christ's love to all the world. Through the Holy Spirit, we are ''Empowered'' and we can make a difference in our association and in our world. As a WMU Council, we have the responsibility and opportunity to educate and involve every congregation in missions.

Baptist Women's Day of Prayer was held November 5 at Northwest Baptist. There were 20 churches and 88 people in attendance for the morning meeting and 24 churches and 88 people in attendance for the evening meeting. Thirty-three different churches were represented and $433 was received in the offering, along with canned goods for Crisis Control.

A Pastor/Spouse Dinner was held January 22 at King First with 15 pastors, 18 churches represented, with a total present of 80.

The annual Baptist Women Salad Supper was held at Kernersville First on March 12. Three hundred sixty-five attended from 35 churches. Empowered was the theme with Jennifer Blackwell speaking about her experiences in Senegal, West Africa.

The state WMU Annual Meeting was held in Winston-Salem on March 22 and 23 with the PMBA WMU Council hosting and serving as the local arrangements committee.

The WMU Annual Meeting was April 4 at Stanleyville First with 122 attending from 28 churches. All volunteers were recognized and given certificates.

Mission Action is ministering to others and is the heart of WMU. We received over 200 health care kits that we gave to the prison for the Christmas Party we held. Birthday parties were held every month at Goodwill Industries.

All WMU Council members attended WMU Week at Ridgecrest, training at Caraway, or regional training. All churches were contacted by council members throughout the year and assistance given when requested.

JOYCE LOVE, Director

Youth Ministries Council

In 1991 the Youth Ministries Council continued its efforts to assist local congregations in performing youth ministry. Several associational youth events were planned to help the smaller churches with their ministry.

On November 9-10, 1990 we sponsored our annual youth retreat, led by Bob Talley of First Baptist, Burlington. The theme was ''So Many Choices...So Little Time!'' Eleven churches were represented with 140 in attendance.

We also sponsored á youth rally March 8 at Becks Baptist. Michael Capps led the teenagers in games and a worship service. The Cause provided a musical concert. One hundred forty youth from 14 churches attended.

An associational Water Wars was held at Hathaway Park on July 19. Water balloons and water guns helped cool approximately 60 people from the summer's heat.

Through the past few years there has been a fellowship of friends created between churches as a result of continued response from the teenagers. We would like to continue this by assisting smaller churches in their youth ministry efforts through planning and coordinating associational youth events.

SANDY STILES, Director

Administrative Services Committees

Administrative Committee

The Administrative Committee met quarterly to perform the administrative and executive functions for the association. The primary responsibility of the committee is to establish the agenda for the Executive Board, take action within the framework of the association and Executive Board, and to recommend all replacements to the Nominating Committee.

At two of the meetings there was much discussion concerning the content and attendance at Executive Board meetings. The following suggestions resulted: (1) Begin with a fellowship time from 7:00-7:30; (2) Encourage everyone to wear a name tag; (3) Compile a statistical report on attendance over the past four years, which indicated an average attendance of 41 per meeting of a possible 280 membership.

Concerning the recommendation for members to the Nominating Committee, an attempt was made to include members from as many congregations as possible. There are currently 12 churches represented. The committee commends the hard work of the Nominating Committee and is grateful for the many hours spent in securing the outstanding leadership of our association.

PEGGY CONRAD, Chairperson

Audit Committee

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association's 1990 Audit has been completed by Gray, Callison and Company, P.A., Certified Public Accountants. The Audit Report was presented to the Audit Committee by Timothy L. Jefferies, CPA, on July 15, 1991. The Audit Committee was responsible for securing this outside audit for the association and feels that we received a favorable report and commend the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association staff for their performance.

The full Audit Report, which has an unqualified opinion, is available for inspection at the associational office. The following is the Management Letter which was prepared to strengthen internal controls and operating efficiency.

The committee recommends that an outside audit be made annually.

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.
1105 Long Drive
Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27106-3900

Gentlemen:

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 1990, we considered the Company's internal control structure to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

However, during our audit we became aware of several matters that are opportunities for strengthening internal controls and operating efficiency. The memorandum that accompanies this letter summarizes our comments and suggestions regarding those matters. This letter does not affect our report dated June 14, 1991, on the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.

We will review the status of these comments during our next audit engagement. We have already discussed many of these comments and suggestions with various staff personnel, and we will be pleased to discuss them in further detail at your convenience, to perform any additional study of these matters, or to assist you in implementing the recommendations.

Very truly yours,
GRAY, CALLISON & CO., P.A.
Timothy L. Jefferies

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.
Management Letter Memorandum

June 28, 1991

1. DESIGNATED FUND INTEREST:

During our audit, we noted that the amount of interest accumulating on designated fund assets amounted to $4,985 in 1990. Under current policy, the interest is added to the Missions Development Fund, because the interest is earned on designated assets.

We recommend that you consider using this interest to reduce the cost of borrowed funds on the Resource Center. This could be accomplished by a direct reduction of principal or offset of interest paid. In general, the cost of borrowed funds exceeds earnings on invested funds, and because both funds are designated in nature, the net cost of the borrowed funds could be reduced without substantially changing your policy.

Communications Committee

Each of us wants to be good communicators. This report and the other attached reports are a part of PMBA efforts to effectively communicate the association's ministries.

During the year thousands of pages of minutes, meeting announcements, financial reports, promotional flyers, newsletters and ''Handouts'' are produced in the Resource Center. All of these items are a part of the association's communication process — a process which is vital to our effective volunteer ministry as an association.

During this year the Communications Committee has evaluated the flow of communication pieces. The committee recognized the pastor may at times feel overwhelmed with mail from the association. In the committee's review, it seems the current mailing list format covers the need to inform, update, and notify the appropriate persons in the congregations. We realize some could say, ''I don't need to know this...'' This could be true in your congregation — but in a consideration of the whole, your counterparts need the information. Suggestions regarding the mailing list are always welcome by the PMBA staff and the Communications Committee.

During May the committee worked with Sally Hicks and Peggy Hall to develop material for the annual Associational Emphasis Week. A bulletin insert was distributed for reproduction and used in local congregations. The committee is appreciative to each congregation which distributed the bulletin insert and focused attention on the ministry of PMBA.

A slide presentation, ''Missionary at Heart,'' was produced in the association. This year the committee has polished and updated the script. New slides have been added to the presentation in anticipation of transferring the production to video. When completed, ''Missionary at Heart'' will be a communication tool to share the PMBA ministry message with deacons, WMU members, Sunday School classes, mission committees, etc., who need to be challenged, informed, and involved in the mission ministries of PMBA.

Work is underway on an informational packet about the association. One audience for the packet is ministers seeking information about the PMBA. Most of the packet printing will be done in the Resource Center. The enhanced printing equipment now available in the Resource Center will make this possible.

Communication is a second-by-second process. Our association has an effective team using their ability and the associational equipment to produce first-class communication material. I believe the PMBA communications encourage ministry, greater support, and increased mission action.

The Communications Committee is always ready to provide communication assistance to your congregation. Please contact the Resource Center.

Special thanks must be given to Sally Hicks for her staff support and to the Communications Committee members Fred Flagler (Knollwood), Joe Haymes (Winston-Salem First), and Robert E. Lee (Pfafftown).

T. Sunday School Council

PROPOSED

1. The principal function is to strengthen the work of the churches and:
   a. Call the churches to be on mission by
      - Reaching persons for Bible study
      - Teaching the Bible
      - Witnessing to persons about Christ and leading persons into church membership
      - Ministering to Sunday School members and non-members
      - Leading members to worship
      - Interpreting and undergirding the work of the church and denomination
      - Establishing new work
   b. Provide resources and services to churches and leaders
   c. Train, develop, and encourage church and associational leaders
   d. Provide opportunities for working together in missions, ministry, growth, and evangelism

e. Establish and maintain appropriate communications and relationships with the community and denomination

2. The objective is to assist church leaders, through program interpretation and training, to be more effective in their responsibility. This objective can be achieved through the development of Sunday School leadership in the churches by projects, conferences and meetings, personal consultation, and direct assistance.

3. Leaders

The term ''ASSIST'' is an acronym for ''Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team.'' The ASSISTeam is composed of two groups: a) the Sunday School Council which is the primary consultative, planning, coordinating, and evaluating body; and b) the Expanded Team which provides additional specialized leadership for more effective, focused training.

a. Sunday School Council (Basic Team)

The enlarged basic team model includes age-group directors and directors for areas needing special attention. Members include:

Sunday School Director
Outreach Director
Teaching Improvement-Training Director Vacation Bible School Director
Secretary
Adult Director
Youth Director
Children's Director
Preschool Director
Special Ministries Director

b. Expanded Team

The expanded team model provides ASSISTeam age-group leaders as resources for a closely graded organization. Possible members include:

Cradle Roll Leader
Younger Preschool Leader
Middle Preschool Leader
Older Preschool Leader Younger Children's Leader
Middle Children's Leader
Older Children's Leader Younger Youth Leader
Older Youth Leader
Single Adult Leader
College Leader
Young Adult Leader
Middle Adult Leader
Senior Adult Leader
Homebound Adult Leader
Small Church Consultant
Language Ministries Consultant
New Sunday School Consultant

X. REVISIONS

The By-Laws may be revised by the Association in session by a simple majority vote of the messengers present and voting. Any changes not recommended by the Constitution Committee must first be referred them for study and consideration; proposed changes must be mailed to Executive Board members and clerks* of the member churches at least thirty (30) days in advance of the meeting of the Association in which action on the change is proposed.

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE
BARRY BURGE, Chairman

Credentials Committee

The Credentials Committee met on October 7, 1991 with representatives from New Life Baptist Church, which was received under watchcare of the association at last Annual Meeting. The committee recommends unanimously that New Life Baptist Church, YMCA Camp Road, King, NC, be received into full membership of the Association because we are convinced that its faith, polity, and practice are in harmony with the purposes of the association; and this church has been under the watchcare of the association for the one year as required by our constitution and has reiterated its desire to be affiliated with us.

The Credentials Committee met on August 6, 1991 with representatives from the North Winston Baptist Church, which is asking for watchcare status. Excerpts from the minutes of that meeting state: "The gifts which North Winston will bring to PMBA are dedication of membership and the learning process as we interact with each other. The gift they expect from PMBA will be to learn from the association." The committee unanimously recommends that North Winston Baptist Church, presently meeting in the facilities of Mineral Springs Middle School, Winston-Salem, NC, be received under the watchcare of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

In its August 6th meeting, the committee accepted the withdrawals of affiliation by Victory Baptist Church and Colfax Baptist Church and will present this to the association-in-session.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE
Sheree Jones, Chairperson

Personnel Committee

The Personnel Committee is grateful for the happy privilege of working with such a committed and capable staff as serves the Pilot Mountain Association. We are pleased to serve together in a climate of ministry goals and concern for persons with an openness to accountability.

In regular meetings held six times a year, we devote our attention to the two-fold concern of the effectiveness of our ministry team and their sense of personal fulfillment in their ministries.

In addition, this year we have sought to assess the need for a new staff member in church development and to establish a process by which the association will make the decision. This will continue to be our goal as we look to the new year.

CHARLES EDWARDS, Chairman

Resource Center Volunteers

A special thank you to the volunteers who serve so faithfully and well. They give countless hours freely to help the work of your association go more smoothly and efficiently.

RECEPTIONISTS: Mary Ella Barefoot,* Fellowship; Elizabeth Brown,* Old Town; Joan England, Old Town; Louise Garner,* Rural Hall First; Paul M. Hall, Danbury; Wanda

Hanes, Old Town; Janie Hooker,* Goodwill; Helen Hylton,* Wake Forest; Natalie Johanson, Old Town; Eleanor Kilby, Old Town; Georgie Kitchen,* College Park; Ruth Lawrence, College Park; Frances McDaniel,* Edgewood; Velma McGee, College Park; Sue Tesh, Clemmons First; Marjorie Turner,* College Park

* Regulars - each week; others are on call as needed

HOSTESSES: Nell Badgett, Peace Haven; Kitty Bullin, Crestwood; LaVerna Clapp, Ardmore; Jessie Denny, Ardmore; Margaret Holland, Ardmore

OTHER: Miriam Burchette, a member of Ardmore and resident of Brookridge, coordinates volunteers from Brookridge each month to help get The Pilot ready for mailing.

Properties Committee

The 1990-91 operating year for the Properties Committee was so productive because of the involvement of its committee members in at least one of several significant projects.

Mrs. Georgie Kitchen took responsibility for researching and writing the committee's guidelines for the use and care of the Resource Center's kitchen. She assisted also in the procurement of linen table cloths.

Mrs. Barbara Trent applied her professional businesswoman's abilities and resources to our purchase of a laser printer and interface connector to each of the computers. This major complement to our office equipment will greatly enhance the quality of the printed materials distributed by the staff, especially The Pilot.

Rev. Mike Branscome helped to research and find the new office chairs needed in the Executive Director's office for the increasing number of committee meetings held there.

John Scaro and Barry West assisted the committee in the selection of a wall safe and shelving units for storage of supplies.

John Watts has applied his professional skills in researching and estimating costs of work to be done in the Resource Center's mechanical room. There the committee will focus upon the installation of a fire-rated ceiling, left undone during the building phase.

Looking ahead, the Properties Committee has proposed the multi-staged installation of additional parking spaces above the present front parking area. Hopefully in 1992, the addition can be graded and rocked.

Two of the most significant accomplishments of the Properties Committee this year relate to the Resource Center's sign and the initial funding of an interest-bearing designated account for capital improvements. After more than a year's struggle with city aldermen, the PMBA was finally able to erect its beautiful lighted sign at the entrance of the driveway alongside Long Drive. Interest from the Capital Improvements fund will be applied to mission ministries.

In every aspect of its effort to maintain the adequate and beautiful facilities of the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center, the Properties Committee has been helped and encouraged by the PMBA staff, especially staff liaison, Mrs. Sandra Hall, and Executive Director, Jim Hamblen. Without their unceasing effort, much of what we strove to accomplish would have been more difficult or still needing to be done.

Thanks to God for each of these persons and for their ministry in and through the 1990-91 Properties Committee.

BOB HICKS, Chairman

Strategy Planning Committee

The Strategy Planning Committee has met monthly during the 1990-91 year.

The primary focus during the year has been the work of two study groups; i.e., Evangelism and Social Systems. The study groups have been gathering information and will prepare a summary report which will include recommendations for the various associational council (program) leaders. The reports will be completed in the first quarter of 1992. The leaders will use the reports in their program planning for 1993 and beyond.

The committee has an on-going responsibility of refining the organizational structure and/or the administrative process for enhancing the work of the association. The most significant process or procedural change recommended, approved and implemented during 1991 has been the format of conducting the Associational Coordinating Council meetings. After discussing the agenda at the first of the meeting, the Coordinating Council is divided into three focus sub-groups: Congregational Development, Missions Development, and Administrative. The smaller groups have enhanced the communication, cooperation, and commitment among the councils and within the Coordinating Council. The meeting is concluded with the entire Coordinating Council reconvening and hearing reports and/or recommendations from the three sub-groups.

During the planning retreat of the Coordinating Council held in June, the Strategy Planning Committee was asked to formulate a proposed planning policy pertaining to the frequency of the participation of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in foreign and domestic missions partnerships. At the Executive Board meeting held June 18, the Strategy Planning Committee presented the following motion: "that the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association adopt a planning policy of participating in only one foreign missions partnership and one domestic partnership at a time." The motion was unanimously approved.

The committee studied the role of, and the benefits to, the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in participating in a three-year domestic unilateral partnership with the Greater Detroit Baptist Association or the New York Baptist State Convention Partnership being sponsored by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The information available from both areas of work was reviewed, discussed and a motion was approved to recommend to the Coordinating Council and the Executive Board that a partnership be formed with the Greater Detroit Baptist Association.

As the next step in the domestic partnership planning policy process, the Strategy Planning Committee made a motion to the Coordinating Council and the Executive Board meetings held on September 24, 1991, "that the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association enter into a domestic missions partnership with the Greater Detroit Baptist Association; and that the Strategy Planning Committee be the responsible work unit for developing a 'Plan of Action' for the partnership, for negotiating the 'Plan' with the Greater Detroit Baptist Association; and for coordinating the implementation of the 'Plan' through the Coordinating Council and the Executive Board." The motion was approved.

The members have been very faithful to the committee and focused on the tasks and responsibilities of the committee.

BOYCE WILSON, Chairman

Christian Educators Conference

The name was changed this year from ''Ministers of Education Conference'' to ''Christian Educators Conference'' in order to help attract all people who have any education responsibility in their church. This conference is not just for the Minister of Education. We meet the third Wednesday of each month, at 8:30 AM, for breakfast. Our meetings are usually held at a different church in our association each time.

This past year we had a panel discussion on different Sunday School curriculum, as well as talked about the changes that were coming in the October literature. During this past year we had a Broadman representative come and share with us the material that was available to help us with the education programs of our churches.

One goal for 1992 will be to plan and conduct another enrichment workshop as we have in the past.

SCOTT POND, Acting President

Church Secretaries Conference

The purpose of the PMBA Church Secretaries Conference is to provide fellowship, support and encouragement to church secretaries in our association. We provide programs that are interesting and entertaining to each of the secretaries.

The conference meets bi-monthly at 12:00 noon on the second or third Thursday. A luncheon and program are provided for those who attend at a nominal cost of $2.00 per person. Membership is open to secretaries and other staff members of all Baptist churches, agencies and institutions in the Pilot Mountain Association, and other religious organizations in our area, whether full time, part time, or volunteer.

During the past year our programs have included the following:

November, 1990	Christian Hospitality presented by Sharon Sink. Goodwill Baptist Church hosted this meeting.
January, 1991	Christian Weight Loss presented by Susan Miller. Union Baptist Church hosted this meeting.
March, 1991	The Working Woman presented by Beverly Meyst. Pfafftown Baptist Church was the host church.
May, 1991	Crime Prevention and Survival for Women presented by Christy Chason of Citizens Against Crime in Greensboro. Knollwood Baptist Church hosted this meeting.
July, 1991	Opportunities for Continuing Education presented by Lori Denise Bryan, Forsyth Technical College. PMBA hosted this meeting.
September, 1991	Planning for Retirement presented by Ruth W. Fine, Wachovia Bank & Trust Company. Old Town Baptist Church hosted this meeting.

MARY ELLA BAREFOOT
President 1991-92

Ministers Conference

The purpose of our Ministers Conference is to provide opportunities for fellowship among pastors, church staff members, retired ministers, and staff members from local Baptist institutions. This year we have sought to do this through:

- Monthly meetings
- Small support groups
- Sharing of personal testimonies (conversion, call, unique experiences in ministry, etc.)
- Common-interests survey
- Recreational opportunities
- Fellowship meals

We are blessed with a deep sense of respect, cooperation and love among the ministers in our association. In many respects, our PMBA Ministers Conference has been a positive witness to our community, state and convention. I am grateful to the churches and institutions that hosted our meetings this year and to all who served with me as Ministers Conference officers.

MIKE WILLARD

Ministers' Wives

The Ministers' Wives organization began the 1990-91 year with a Saturday morning breakfast in September at the home of Beverly Hamblen. Five other monthly meetings were held at 10:00 AM on Thursdays in homes of the members. In November members visited Greenfield's Christmas Store in Kernersville and enjoyed lunch at the Tea Room afterwards. The May meeting was a covered dish luncheon at the associational office. In February wives shared with their husbands the Valentine Banquet at Griffith Church.

A special event of the year was hosting the annual meeting of the North Carolina Ministers' Wives before the State Convention. Refreshments were served to those attending the meeting at Forest Hill Church.

Programs were planned to help achieve the purpose of the organization: "to promote fellowship among the Baptist Minsiters' Wives of our association; to provide opportunities for friendship, learning, and services; and to share, listen, and encourage one another."

Officers for 1991-92 are:

President	Martha Carr, Wake Forest
Vice President	Wanda Smith, Knollwood
Secretary, Treasurer, Historian	Johnsie Liner, Knollwood Ruth Lawrence, College Park
Devotions	Edna Myers, Wake Forest
Programs	Louise Noffsinger, Knollwood Frances Goss, Ardmore
Decorations	Miriam Mitchell, Wake Forest Charlotte Ludlum, Winston-Salem First

VELMA McGEE
President 1990-91

Ministers of Youth Conference

During 1991 the Youth Ministers Conference continued in its efforts to provide support and fellowship for PMBA youth ministers and youth workers. During our monthly breakfast meetings, we met together sharing numerous personal, professional, and ministerial concerns in an open, understanding, and confidential atmosphere.

In February the conference provided an opportunity for youth ministers, spouses, and friends to share an evening meal together celebrating Valentines Day. Twenty-five persons attended.

Marc Clark from Griffith Baptist Church led the conference's annual Youth Workers Clinic in March. Twelve persons, representing six PMBA churches, attended this drama workshop which was both informative and enjoyable.

Hopefully in 1991-92 the conference can continue to provide fellowship opportunities, training and support for youth ministry persons in the association.

ANDY OLIVER, President

CECIL CAVE, Moderator &
Chairman of Executive Board

Executive Director

Since I was called as Executive Director of PMBA in the fall of 1983, I have had the rare privilege to serve with many individuals and associational work units which have been very productive and which have brought me great joy and satisfaction. I offer the following comments related to specific areas which are listed in alphabetical order, which avoids any implication of priority in my judgment. These work units have provided arenas of growth both to me as an individual and to our association in general.

1. The Associational Coordinating Council has matured as a group of leaders who cooperate and collaborate in the planning and implementing of programs to assist congregations in their work based upon priorities approved by the association.
2. The ''Barnabas Group'' has become a strong support group for some ministers and for me. It continues to offer rich opportunities for fellowship and mutual concern.
3. The Finance Committee has struggled through several difficult periods and has emerged as a significant advisory group to the whole association.
4. The Nominating Committee has served all parts of the PMBA by the care and diligence in recommending leaders and workers throughout the organizational structure of our association.
5. The Personnel Committee has evolved into a model for committees of this type in any congregation or any organization anywhere. The increased responsibility and function of this unit will serve our association in the future as it has in the past.
6. The Strategy Planning Committee has emerged as an effective advisory group to all parts of our association. This group volunteers to gather data and information which is intended to highlight areas of opportunity and need which may be helpful to other program areas as they work to provide resources for local congregations as they seek to fulfill GOD's Will as they understand it.

There are many other significant leaders and workers who have functioned well and I intend no negative implications by not mentioning them here. One group that is most important to me I have reserved for last. I do not believe there is any other Executive Director in any other association who is as blessed with such a competent staff. Please accept this public expression of gratitude to

- Sally Hicks, Communications Secretary
- Sandra Hall, Financial Secretary
- Peggy Hall, Administrative Assistant...and
- Mike Bradshaw, Missions Ministries Director.

Regarding my individual efforts over the past months, by agreement with the Personnel Committee, my priorities of time and energy have been redirected toward

- Counseling with ministers and other congregational leaders as requested...
- Consulting with congregations in specialized areas as requested...
- Facilitating the PMBA organizational structure, especially in new emerging work units, as possible.

In general, I have had the opportunity to refocus my attention and time commitments toward assistance to local congregations and the work of the PMBA. I believe this will aid us all in serving GOD and working to make this the finest association it possibly can become!

JIM HAMBLEN, Executive Director

Historian

As assistant clerk, one of my responsibilities is to serve as historian of the association. One of the duties under this category is to ''encourage churches to gather and preserve their historical records and to write, communicate and interpret their history.'' One of the best tools I know about for accomplishing this is the Resource Kit for Your Church's History, which is available from the Historical Commission in Nashville, Tennessee. Please feel free to call upon me if I can be of help to you in the matter of historical records.

Honors Clerks

We congratulate the Church Clerks who achieved ''Honors Clerk'' this year. These eighteen clerks or church secretaries met the following requirements to achieve ''Honors Clerk'':

1. Attend the associational Clerks Conference in August
2. Have their church's Uniform Church Letter in to the PMBA Resource Center by the deadline
3. Turn in a neat and legible Uniform Church Letter.

This is no small achievement! Associational staff and leaders commend these hard working, dedicated people, and we know their congregations are very proud of them. Congratulations to:

Dedication

HENRY M. DUGGINS
(1921-1992)

Henry M. Duggins was a man of great love, conviction and Christian action. He fiercely loved God, his church, his family, country and life.

Henry Duggins' love for and faith in God was demonstrated in every aspect of his life. He was a man who knew God as a loving God who cared about all people and all aspects of people's lives. He believed in putting all things into God's hands. Nothing in his life was apart from God.

Henry Duggins' great love of country was evidenced by the Purple Heart, Bronze Star and numerous other medals he was awarded for his service in World War II. The patriotism born in Henry Duggins as a young soldier thrived and grew throughout his life. Those who knew him throughout the remainder of his life can attest to the fact that he was always ready to proudly defend and uplift his country.

Henry Duggins was a man who believed in the sacredness of the family. He preached it and demonstrated it throughout his own life. He was always an involved, caring and loving husband, parent and grandparent. His greatest gift to them, among many, was his constant teaching about God and the ultimate importance of God for their own lives.

Henry Duggins served as a Baptist minister in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for some 30 years — 12 years at Vienna Baptist Church followed by 17 years at Mount Calvary Baptist Church. In both cases, Henry Duggins led these congregations through major building programs. The fellowship building at Mount Calvary is named for him. Henry Duggins was a minister, servant and leader within these churches. Yes, Henry Duggins loved to preach the gospel — the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ — and the lessons from the Old Testament. His lessons from the pulpit remain a blessing and inspiration to many lives yet. But, Henry Duggins was also a minister to the needs of people; always visiting the sick, comforting those suffering from loss, giving encouragement to the lay and church leaders, rejoicing over blessings, and emphasizing the importance of reaching out to the youth of the church.

Henry Duggins also had a great appreciation and love for nature. He most especially loved the coast and enjoyed spending time in fellowship fishing with friends there.

In his church and ministry, as in his life, Henry Duggins realized that God was the answer for everyone and every situation.

Constitution

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this body shall be the "Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Incorporated" according to the laws and statutes of the State of North Carolina, and is hereinafter referred to as the Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

A. Purpose

The purpose of the Association is to glorify GOD by assisting congregations to be in fellowship and to fulfill their mission, individually and together.

B. Objectives

The objectives of the Association shall be:

1. To assist the congregations to ENHANCE THE FELLOWSHIP; (Help congregations relate to each other in a growing and mutually supportive fellowship within the family of believers in Christ)
2. To assist the congregations to REACH PEOPLE; (Help congregations accelerate their efforts to share the gospel with all people and to develop New Testament churches)
3. To assist the congregations to DEVELOP BELIEVERS; (Help congregations emphasize the biblical imperative to equip the saints by developing believers in prayer, discipleship, and stewardship and by calling out the called)
4. To assist the congregations to STRENGTHEN MISSIONS; (Help congregations fulfill the biblical mandate to go into all the world by strengthening their missions education, enlarging missions involvement, and increasing missions giving)
5. To assist the congregations to IMPROVE THE ORGANIZATION; (Help congregations determine the direction and participate in the life of the Association).

ARTICLE III. AUTHORITY

While the Association is autonomous under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, it claims no authority over any other Baptist body.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP

A. Composition

The Association shall be composed of Baptist churches which in their faith, polity and practice are in harmony with the purpose of the Association, and are actively participating in the support and work of the Association.

B. Affiliation

Any constituted Baptist church may be received under the watchcare of the Association for one year, after which it may be received by vote of the Association into this fellowship of churches, upon recommendation of the Credentials Committee to confirm evidence that the church is committed to harmonious and active involvement in the purpose and work of the Association.

C. Messengers

Messengers from the member churches shall constitute the session of the Association. Messengers shall be elected by the churches they represent. The pastor's of member churches will be recognized as messengers; further, the number of messengers from each church, in addition to the pastor, shall be determined as follows:

> Three (3) messengers from each church for the first one hundred (100) members or fraction thereof, and one (1) messenger for each additional one hundred (100) members or major fraction thereof, up to a total of ten (10) messengers.

Such messengers shall be duly certified in the annual letter sent by the church to the Association.

The courtesies of the floor (report, discussion or debate) may be extended to non-messengers at the discretion of the body.

D. Dismissal

Should any church disqualify itself by faith, polity and practice not in harmony with the purpose of the Association, or fail to send a Uniform Associational Letter and/or messengers for three (3) consecutive years, the Executive Board may, upon failing to effect a resolution to the problem, recommend a withdrawal of fellowship from that church. A two-thirds majority vote of the Association in session shall be required for this action.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS

A. Regular Meetings

The Association shall meet semi-annually during the months of April and October.

B. Special Meetings

The Executive Board may call special sessions of the Association as the need arises. The Executive Board shall determine the time and place of called meetings. Written notices of special sessions with a statement of purpose for the meeting must be sent to all pastors and church-elected members of the Executive Board at least thirty (30) days before the session.

ARTICLE VI. ORGANIZATION

A. General Officers

The general officers of the Association shall be moderator, vice-moderator, clerk, assistant clerk, treasurer, and assistant treasurer. The general officers shall be the trustees of and the legal agent of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Incorporated. They shall have power to hold title; to buy, sell, lease, convey and receive gifts of property (both real and personal) for the Association; and to incur indebtedness in accord with the instructions of the Association in session or the Executive Board. The moderator shall sign as president; the vice-moderator as vice-president; the clerk or assistant clerk as secretary; and the treasurer or assistant treasurer as treasurer of the corporation. The signatures of any two of the officers named above shall be binding upon the corporation.

B. Associational Representatives

The Association may provide a representative for each requesting institution, agency or board.

C. Executive Board

The Executive Board shall act as the Association ad interim, except as limited by the constitution and by-laws of the Association.

D. Councils

1. Associational Coordinating Council

The Association shall have a Coordinating Council whose function shall be to coordinate the overall purpose and objectives of the Association as stated in Article II.

2. Mission Performance Councils

The Association shall have Mission Performance Councils designed to accomplish the Association's purpose and objectives by assisting the churches in the various areas of program development (such as Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Music Ministry, Brotherhood, WMU, Evangelism, Missions Development, Stewardship, etc.).

E. Conferences

F. Committees

1. Standing Committees

The Association shall have standing committees whose purposes and functions shall be to perform appropriate administrative services for the Association as an organizational entity.

2. Special Committees

The Association may have such special committees whose task shall be clearly defined at the time of appointment by the moderator. These special committees will serve for limited duration.

G. Staff

The Association may employ such staff persons as it deems necessary to carry on its work. Unless otherwise provided by the Association, the staff shall be elected by the Association upon nomination by the Personnel Committee.

ARTICLE VII. FINANCES

The Association shall have power to raise funds by voluntary contributions for carrying out its purpose and objectives. The financial records of the Association shall be audited annually.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENT

This constitution may be amended or revised only by the Association in session by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the messengers present. Any changes not brought by the Constitution Committee must first be referred to it for consideration. Proposed changes must be mailed to Executive Board members of the member churches at least thirty (30) days in advance of the associational meeting in which action on the change is proposed.

Revised October 23, 1990

    n. Properties Committee Chairperson
    o. Strategy Planning Committee Chairperson
    p. Three at-large members elected from the Executive Board for a three-year term on a rotational basis

B. Audit Committee

The committee is responsible for having the financial records audited annually. Its duties are:

1. To select the independent auditor;
2. To review the findings of the auditor and submit the annual report to the Association.

C. Communications Committee

The committee designs, implements and evaluates an effective program of communications for the Association. Its duties are:

1. To develop and implement an annual Associational Emphasis Week promotion plan;
2. To foster mutually beneficial relationships with secular media in the community
3. To develop and implement a total communications plan to and from the churches

4. To provide communications assistance to the churches;
5. To develop an effective communications plan with various groups in the area.

D. Constitution Committee

The committee monitors the administration and the organization of the Association in the light of the Constitution, By-Laws, Policies and Procedures (PMBA Operations Manual) adopted by the Association. Its duties are:

1. To receive and consider changes/revisions to these documents as recommended by others;
2. To evaluate the primary documents (listed above) and recommend changes/revisions as needed;
3. To serve as advisor to the Association in session and the Executive Board on matters regarding parliamentary procedure.

E. Credentials Committee

The committee assists the Association in determining when the churches are of like faith and order and can be properly accepted into the fellowship of the Association. It should work in close cooperation with the Church Growth Council and the primary officers of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To recommend and implement approved guidelines for receiving churches into the Association;
2. To counsel with churches seeking admission into the fellowship of the Association;
3. To examine the credentials of churches seeking admission into the fellowship of the Association.

F. Finance Committee

The committee assists the Association in securing, administering and reporting finances. Its duties are:

1. To develop and recommend the annual budget at the fall meeting of the Association;
2. To conduct studies and make recommendations concerning proposed expenditures not included in the annual budget of the Association;
3. To review expenditures periodically and recommend adjustments to the annual budget if needed;
4. To develop and recommend financial policies and procedures of the Association.

G. Nominating Committee

The committee leads in coordinating the selection of all elected leaders of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To select, interview, enlist and recommend general officers, program organization leaders, and committee personnel of the Association, entrusting to the Administrative Committee the recommendation of all replacements to the Nominating Committee; (NOTE: These leaders then become a part of the committee.)
2. To coordinate the selection of workers for all the organizations, councils, and committees of the Association;
3. To distribute leadership personnel according to the priority needs of the Association;
4. To assist program organization leaders in discovering and enlisting qualified persons to fill positions in their respective organizations;
5. To present workers to the Association in session for election;
6. To assist the Moderator in the appointment of special committees or workgroups as requested.

H. Order of Business Committee

The committee assists the Association in planning and conducting the regular and called meetings of the Association in session. Its duties are:

1. To propose to the Executive Board an order of business for the Association in session;
2. To enlist the program personnel for all meetings of the Association in session;
3. To publicize the proposed order of business for all meetings of the Association in session to the churches and at least thirty (30) days in advance of such meetings;
4. To arrange for all facilities needed for the Association in session in cooperation with the Moderator and other program personnel;
5. To arrange for and conduct proper registration of messengers and visitors to the Association in session and to report registration at such meetings as requested;
6. To assure that during the Association in session an appropriate recognition is given to those who have died;
7. To receive, consider and present (as appropriate) all resolutions to the Association in session;
8. To receive invitations from churches and suggestions for program emphases and personnel for future meetings of the Association in session;
9. To propose at each session the meeting place(s) and speaker(s) for the next Association in session.

I. Personnel Committee

The committee assists the Association in supervising all paid and volunteer staff of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To recommend policies and procedures for the selection, supervision, and termination of all staff personnel of the Association;
2. To prepare and maintain an organizational manual (as a part of the Operations Manual) relating to the personnel (professional, support and volunteer) of the Association;
3. To recruit, interview and recommend to the Association all new staff personnel in full cooperation with the appropriate supervisor;
4. To develop and recommend salaries and benefits for all employed personnel;
5. To develop and recommend to the Association all policies and procedures for paid and volunteer staff of the Association;
6. To develop and recommend policies and procedures regarding continuing education and development for paid staff of the Association.

J. Properties Committee

The committee maintains all properties owned by the Association. Its duties are:

1. To inspect and keep inventory of associational properties;
2. To make recommendations to the Personnel Committee regarding the employment, training, and supervision of maintenance personnel;
3. To develop and initiate scheduled cleaning procedures;
4. To develop and recommend a program of preventive maintenance;
5. To develop and recommend policies and procedures for using facilities and equipment;
6. To request and administer maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget;
7. To develop and recommend an adequate insurance plan.

K. Strategy Planning Committee

The committee assists the Association in determining its strategic objectives and staying on course in achieving them. Its duties are:

1. To monitor the needs and opportunities of the churches;
2. To provide updated information to the churches and to the programs of the Association;
3. To recommend annual planning guidelines for the Association;
4. To review and make recommendations regarding the coordinated plan in reference to planning guidelines for the Association;
5. To recommend modifications in the organizational structure of the Association in order to help fulfill the purpose and objectives of the Association;
6. To lead the Association to conduct strategic planning about every five (5) years.

A. Executive Staff

All executive staff members should retain the ''three-dimensional model'' of minister, strategist and leader with different emphases among the dimensions as the particular area of work demands. All employed staff will be accountable, through the Executive Director and the Personnel Committee, to the Executive Board and the Association in session. Job descriptions of all staff members are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

B. Support Staff

The support staff is primarily clerical and serves the executive staff, the general officers, program organization councils, and committees of the Association. Job descriptions are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

C. Volunteer Staff

Since the work of the Association exceeds the ability or propriety of employing sufficient persons to accomplish all the tasks of the Association, volunteers will be enlisted, trained and utilized wherever feasible. Appropriate expressions of gratitude and recognition for such workers are the responsibility of the executive staff of the Association.

IX. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The policies and procedures of the Association and the specific organizational units thereof shall be proposed by those specific units affected. These policies and procedures shall be considered by the Constitution Committee and approved by the Executive Board or the Association in session. These policies and procedures shall become the PMBA Operations Manual.

X. REVISIONS

The By-Laws may be revised by the Association in session by a simple majority vote of the messengers present and voting. Any changes not recommended by the Constitution Committee must first be referred to them for study and consideration. Proposed changes must be mailed to Executive Board members of the member churches at least thirty (30) days in advance of the meeting of the Association in which action on the change is proposed.

Litany of Commitment

Scripture: When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field." (Matthew 9:36-38)

What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such a faith save him? Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to him, "Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed" but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead. . . . As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.'' (James 2:14-17,26)

Jesus told His disciples; ''A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.'' (John 13:34-35)

People: Acting upon the emphasis of our Lord, we agree to faithfully proclaim the Gospel of Salvation and to minister to the needs of people as God gives us the opportunity in our communities; in Sao Paulo, Brazil; and in Detroit. We shall be faithful in study and energetic in all aspects of ministry and proclamation. We will faithfully yield ourselves to the Holy Spirit so that God may mightily use us at all times.

Leader: Jesus came that we might have life and have it more abundantly. He wants all people everywhere to live abundantly.

People: We are living abundantly in Christ and want to share the source of that life with others. As Ambassadors for Christ, we are willing to respond in mission. We are willing to minister in the name of Christ with God's people wherever we are called.

We commit ourselves to the task of taking the Gospel to people. We do so depending upon the empowerment of the Holy Spirit and the saving grace we have through faith in Jesus Christ, our Lord. We acknowledge our tendency to fear change and shrink from opportunity. Please strengthen us and encourage us so we overcome fear and embrace opportunity.

For Those Who Go: We know that it will not be easy but we will rely upon empowerment of the Holy Spirit and upon God's strength and resources. We covet the prayers and support of those who remain.

For Those Who Remain: God empowers us all and we commit ourselves to living and proclaiming the Gospel where we are. We further commit to keep those who travel to Sao Pauo, Brazil; to Detroit; and elsewhere uppermost in our prayers
as they travel
as they build
as they tell the story of Jesus
as they share themselves.

Prayer by the Leader

Response by the People: Hear our prayer, O Lord. We commit ourselves as ''living sacrifices.'' We raise our prayer in the strong name of Jesus. Amen.

Proceedings

1992 Spring Session

of the

CRESTWOOD BAPTIST CHURCH
Winston-Salem, North Carolina
April 26, 1992

THEME: "Ye shall be witnesses..." (Acts 1:8)

1. The Spring session of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held at Crestwood Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, NC on Sunday afternoon, April 26, 1992, with 192 people registered from 43 churches (116 registered messengers, officers, and leaders and 76 guests).

2. Following a prelude played by Barbara Matthews, organist, and Andra Knight, pianist, Moderator Peggy Conrad called the session to order at 3:00 p.m. She expressed appreciation to Bill Guthrie and the Crestwood congregation for hosting the meeting.

3. Rich Lowder, minister of music and education at Pfafftown, led in the congregational hymn, "Rejoice, the Lord Is King."

4. Host Pastor Bill Guthrie gave the invocation and welcomed those present on behalf of the church. The Crestwood choir, under the direction of Gary Knight, sang "Ye Shall Be Witnesses," the theme for this session. Mr. Guthrie read Acts 1:8, sharing from this verse the promise of the power, the power of the promise, the place of the witness, and persons to proclaim.

5. The moderator expressed appreciation to Order of Business Committee chairman, Carlton Mitchell, and members for their hard work in planning the Spring Meeting program. She welcomed the special guests from Sao Paulo, Brazil, who are in our association from April 21-May 5. The guests are Pastor Jairo de Brito Gomes, Pastor Waudeque Filismino da Silva, Pastor Abimael Putumunjun Ribeiro, Pastor Americo dos Santos, Pastor Jose Luiz Marcelino, Edson Luiz Carpi, Vera Lucia Siqueira Carpi, Susana Zamataro, and Junha Marta Vieira Duarte.

6. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that those messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body of the Spring Session. Motion was seconded and approved.

7. The moderator recognized Jim Hamblen, executive director, who is recovering from a heart attack. As an expression of gratitude for God's goodness in being with Mr. Hamblen and the association during this time, Rich Lowder led in singing "To God Be the Glory." Mr. Hamblen gave an update on his condition, and praised Baptist Hospital's staff and trustees, the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, and the PMBA staff. He thanked everyone for their prayers and concern.

8. Mr. Hamblen presented to C. L. "Tripp" May, minister of education at Northwest and director of the Creative Ministries Council, an Associational Leadership Diploma in the area of recreation. Mr. Hamblen expressed personal thanks to Mr. May for his hard work and for serving as a model to others.

9. Charles Edwards, chairman of the Personnel Committee, shared the committee's concern and role during Mr. Hamblen's "unscheduled visit to the hospital." After meeting with the staff and consulting with other committee members, they decided that an acting executive director was not needed. The training and commitment of staff and associational leaders made it unnecessary. He expressed appreciation to Mike Bradshaw, other staff members, and leaders for demonstrating that the type organization Mr. Hamblen has led in establishing really works.

Mr. Edwards gave a progress report on calling a Congregational Development Director. The director will assist local churches in the area of congregational development by direct involvement with the local churches and through training of associational leadership to be available to lead in the churches. The committee is presently working on a formal job description and financial package which will be presented to the Executive Board in June. If these are approved, the committee will begin interviewing candidates. "The process for calling a new staff member is in place, it is unfolding, and we look forward to its completion," said Mr. Edwards.

10. Fran Bovender, vice chairperson of the Nominating Committee, shared how her pastor at the conclusion of each baptismal service says, "You see, there is yet room for you." Citing the continuing need for good associational leaders, Mrs. Bovender said, "You see, there is yet room for you. We would like to immerse you in. . . .associational work." Nominees for officers went to the platform and other nominees stood as their names were read. Mrs. Bovender, on behalf of the Nominating Committee, moved that the nominees be elected. There were no nominations from the floor and the motion carried. Officers elected for 1992-1993 are: Irvin Grigg, moderator; Joyce Love, vice moderator; Peggy Hall, clerk; John Woodard, assistant clerk; Carl Christensen, treasurer; and Bill Norris, assistant treasurer. (Complete list attached to original minutes.)

11. Irvin Grigg, vice moderator, gave a brief financial update on the Resource Center, which, he said, "was built as an aid to carry out the Great Commission." Sixty percent of the nearly $627,000 cost of the building was given or pledged in advance, making it necessary to borrow $250,000. He said he was delighted to report that $25,476.77 was the balance owed on the loan as of March 31, 1992. At the present rate of payment, the association should be debt free in about twelve months. Of $30,000 in pledges and gifts from individuals, $26,500 has been paid and applied to the building, leaving a balance of approximately $3600.

Mr. Grigg challenged those present to encourage their churches to make every effort to pay off the loan by the end of this calendar year "so we can start off 1993 debt free." He said this will put the association in a position to take care of a new staff member, as well as adequately finance our programs so that we can spread the good news of Jesus Christ, which we consider the most important thing in the world.

12. Rich Lowder led in singing "O Zion, Haste." J. L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore, led in an offertory prayer. An offering was taken to help retire the indebtedness on the Resource Center. (Clerk's note: $474.90 was received.)

13. The moderator, saying we can do more together than we can separately, reminded us of how we came to be called Pilot Mountain Association. She read an excerpt from the cover of M. M. Goss's book, Our History, Our Trust, which states that the name is an Indian one, "Jomeokee" - the Great Guide. Mrs. Conrad introduced the three segments of the program: Commission, Celebration, and Challenge.

14. Randy Godwin, Church Growth director, spoke on "COMMISSION," using the theme from Acts 1:8. He asked and answered the questions, "To whom are we to witness? About what are we to witness? and What are we supposed to tell?" We are to tell them "The wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life." We are to give people the "A to Z" about sin but we are also to tell them there is hope and that God loves everyone, that He can change lives.

15. Ed Evans, Evangelism director, said the Evangelism Council feels strongly that the time is right to lead out in an area wide evangelistic crusade with Jim Wilson, an associate with the Billy Graham Crusade, as evangelist. Eddie Brackett, King First pastor and member of the council, is the coordinator of this effort which is tentatively being planned for the last two weeks in April of 1994. An area wide crusade will require commitment, planning, dedication, and "shoe leather's being worn out." He asked those present to commit to prayer both personally and in the churches. Mr. Evans led in prayer.

16. Ken Boaz, Evangelism Council member, spoke on "CELEBRATION." He told of coming as new pastor to Fellowship and the excitement of Curt Bovender, who had recently gone to Togo, Africa and was looking forward to being involved in the new partnership with Sao Paulo, Brazil. Bill Guthrie laid the groundwork for the Brazil partnership and then Mr. Boaz became the coordinator. He has led three groups to Sao Paulo and will be making a fourth trip in September. He challenged everyone to consider being a part of this final trip September 17-30. Pastors are especially needed. The only prerequisites are to love the Lord and be willing to share Him. Sao Paulo's goal is to begin 1,000 churches through the partnership.

Mr. Boaz said that some time ago people began to ask, "If this is a partnership, why are no Brazilians coming to our association?" Folks here began to work and plan, the churches gave generously, and the result is the presence of nine people from Sao Paulo being in our midst. Mr. Boaz introduced the Brazilians, then moved that they be accepted as honorary members of Pilot Mountain Association. The motion was seconded and approved.

The Brazilians sang "Alleluia" in Portuguese and a cappella. Pastor Jairo Gomes gave his testimony, interpreted by Barry Nealy, associate director of missions in Piedmont Association. He shared his wish that others from Brazil could be here, and that those here could see with their own eyes what God is doing in Sao Paulo to turn people from darkness to light. He said many good things are happening in the interchange between the two associations. By the end of 1992, four missions will become churches. They have baptized many people as a result of the evangelistic teams going from our association. He said, "I pray that no one will stop when the partnership with Brazil is terminated until everyone in the world hears that Jesus Christ is the Saviour."

Mr. Gomez read II Timothy 3:1-5 and spoke of people in our churches who possess "not so good qualities" - lovers of self, lovers of money, those who think going to hell is not so bad. He said we must always be alert to the attempt of the world invading the churches to transform them into some sort of social club. Mr. Gomez said, ''We are in the world but not of the world. Jesus spoke of transforming the world by actions of the power of God. The church for which God gave His Son belongs to the Son of the Living God and we are His servants.''

17. Rich Lowder led in singing ''Jesus Shall Reign.''

18. Ken Boaz asked for a point of special privilege and requested that the Brazilians be allowed to sing another hymn. Accompanied by Gary Knight, the group sang ''Battle Hymn of the Republic.'' The congregation joined in on the chorus.

19. Paul Kennedy, Strategy Planning Committee member, speaking on ''CHALLENGE,'' shared an incident that took place at Wayne State University in Detroit which illustrated the desire of people all over the world to know about God. When Jesus made Himself known to Mary on Easter Sunday morning, he told her to go tell His brothers the good news. He asked her to leave the Garden and go out into the world. Jesus performed most of His ministry out in the world. Mr. Kennedy said it is a paradox that as we get to know God better, we become hungrier to know Him in a deeper way. Our appetite for God is satisfied out in the world. He quoted Kennon Callahan: ''When the church is in the world, God is in the church. When the church is not in the world, God is in the world.'' He challenged us to get out into the world—in Winston-Salem, in Sao Paulo, in Detroit. Without God life has no meaning. Telling of a recent experience at a Board meeting that illustrated how even Christians are captives, Mr. Kennedy said, ''Satan has made slaves out of Christians.''

From the back of the sanctuary, a group of people entered, bound tightly to each other by a rope: Boyce Wilson, posing as the devil; Georgie Kitchen, representing a homeless mother whose world was crumbling; Sandra Hall, representing a wife besieged by demands from all sides; and Marcos Bonfin representing another captive of the devil. All expressed a desire to be free of that which bound them to Satan. Mr. Kennedy remarked, ''I want you to remember this Spring Meeting. Satan is holding people captive. God is calling people like you and me to free people of the world from the grasp of Satan.'' He told of a true incident shared with him by Sherrie Pridemore of the Baptist Center in Greater Detroit Baptist Association that graphically illustrated the need and urgency to rescue captives of Satan. Mr. Kennedy said, ''People want meaning in their lives. We have the message; we've got to get it out. When the Christian is in the world, the Holy Spirit is active in the world.'' He invited people to respond to God's call today, to commit themselves to the task God has given them to free captives — in Detroit, in Sao Paulo, and in the area in which they live.

20. Mr. Kennedy led in a Litany of Commitment. The Crestwood choir sang ''Great Is Thy Faithfulness.''

21. Following a prayer by Mrs. Conrad, the Spring Meeting was adjourned at 4:55 p.m.

Proceedings

of the

107TH Annual Session

of the

ARDMORE BAPTIST CHURCH
Winston-Salem, NC

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. The 107th Annual Meeting of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held October 27, 1992 at Ardmore Baptist Church. Peggy Conrad, moderator and member of Union Grove Baptist Church, convened the session at 3:03 PM with a welcome to those attending. Expressing appreciation for Ardmore's invitation to meet with them, she said that if everyone listened closely they could hear "growing going on." (Ardmore is in the midst of extensive renovation/construction.) On a table at the front of the sanctuary a pitcher, basin, and towel were displayed, visibly portraying the theme, "Developing the hearts of Christ's servants."

2. Cyrus Bush, PMBA music director and minister of music at Becks, thanked Dan Suttles, minister of music at Oaklawn, for serving as pianist at the afternoon session. He also expressed appreciation for the opportunity to serve as the association's music director. Mr. Bush led in the singing of "Blessed Be the Name."

3. Ty Talton, associate pastor of Ardmore, welcomed messengers and guests as a worshipping congregation celebrating what God is doing through Pilot Mountain Association. He then led in prayer.

4. Merrillyn Helton, Ardmore, presented a sacred concert. She sang, a cappella, "For the Beauty of the Earth"; then "This Is My Father's World," "They Could Not," and "It Takes Us All" accompanied by Dan Suttles at the piano. Mr. Bush and Mrs. Helton ended the concert with "God Loves."

5. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that those messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body of the 107th annual session. Carlton Mitchell seconded the motion and it carried. (Clerk's note: There were 238 registered messengers/officers and leaders, and 77 visitors for a total of 316 in attendance representing 64 congregations.)

6. Mrs. Conrad gave instructions about registering. She expressed special thanks to Carlton Mitchell and the Order of Business Committee for their work throughout the year in planning the annual meeting programs. Mrs. Bertha Sneed, Antioch, was recognized "as an inspiration to us all" upon her 57th consecutive year attending annual meetings.

7. David Wooten, pastor of Forest Hill, announced project Crossover Witness prior to the Baptist State Convention in November and encouraged churches to participate. This concept, done prior to Southern Baptist Conventions, is a test program in our state. A Crossover Witness Rally will be held at Forest Hill November 7 with Howard Ramsey of the Home Mission Board as speaker.

8. Jim Hamblen, executive director, asked Joyce Love and Ty Talton to join him on the platform. He said that the work and leadership of the Sunday School and WMU are models of servanthood, living out the theme of this 107th annual session. Mr. Hamblen

    m. Personnel Committee Chairperson
    n. Properties Committee Chairperson
    o. Strategy Planning Committee Chairperson
    p. Three at-large members elected from the Executive Board for a three-year term on a rotational basis

B. Audit Committee

The committee is responsible for having the financial records audited annually. Its duties are:

1. To select the independent auditor;
2. To review the findings of the auditor and submit the annual report to the Association.

C. Communications Committee

The committee designs, implements and evaluates an effective program of communications for the Association. Its duties are:

1. To develop and implement an annual Associational Emphasis Week promotion plan;
2. To foster mutually beneficial relationships with secular media in the community;
3. To develop and implement a total communications plan to and from the churches;

4. To provide communications assistance to the churches;
5. To develop an effective communications plan with various groups in the area.

D. Constitution Committee

The committee monitors the administration and the organization of the Association in the light of the Constitution, By-Laws, Policies and Procedures (PMBA Operations Manual) adopted by the Association. Its duties are:

1. To receive and consider changes/revisions to these documents as recommended by others;
2. To evaluate the primary documents (listed above) and recommend changes/revisions as needed;
3. To serve as advisor to the Association in session and the Executive Board on matters regarding parliamentary procedure.

E. Credentials Committee

The committee assists the Association in determining when the churches are of like faith and order and can be properly accepted into the fellowship of the Association. It should work in close cooperation with the Church Growth Council and the primary officers of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To recommend and implement approved guidelines for receiving churches into the Association;
2. To counsel with churches seeking admission into the fellowship of the Association;
3. To examine the credentials of churches seeking admission into the fellowship of the Association.

F. Finance Committee

The committee assists the Association in securing, administering and reporting finances. Its duties are:

1. To develop and recommend the annual budget at the fall meeting of the Association;
2. To conduct studies and make recommendations concerning proposed expenditures not included in the annual budget of the Association;
3. To review expenditures periodically and recommend adjustments to the annual budget if needed;
4. To develop and recommend financial policies and procedures of the Association.

G. Nominating Committee

The committee leads in coordinating the selection of all elected leaders of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To select, interview, enlist and recommend general officers, program organization leaders, and committee personnel of the Association, entrusting to the Administrative Committee the recommendation of all replacements to the Nominating Committee; (NOTE: These leaders then become a part of the committee.)
2. To coordinate the selection of workers for all the organizations, councils, and committees of the Association;
3. To distribute leadership personnel according to the priority needs of the Association;
4. To assist program organization leaders in discovering and enlisting qualified persons to fill positions in their respective organizations;
5. To present workers to the Association in session for election;
6. To assist the Moderator in the appointment of special committees or workgroups as requested.

H. Order of Business Committee

The committee assists the Association in planning and conducting the regular and called meetings of the Association in session. Its duties are:

1. To propose to the Executive Board an order of business for the Association in session;
2. To enlist the program personnel for all meetings of the Association in session;
3. To publicize the proposed order of business for all meetings of the Association in session to the churches and at least thirty (30) days in advance of such meetings;
4. To arrange for all facilities needed for the Association in session in cooperation with the Moderator and other program personnel;
5. To arrange for and conduct proper registration of messengers and visitors to the Association in session and to report registration at such meetings as requested;
6. To assure that during the Association in session an appropriate recognition is given to those who have died;
7. To receive, consider and present (as appropriate) all resolutions to the Association in session;
8. To receive invitations from churches and suggestions for program emphases and personnel for future meetings of the Association in session;
9. To propose at each session the meeting place(s) and speaker(s) for the next Association in session.

I. Personnel Committee

The committee assists the Association in supervising all paid and volunteer staff of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To recommend policies and procedures for the selection, supervision, and termination of all staff personnel of the Association;
2. To prepare and maintain an organizational manual (as a part of the Operations Manual) relating to the personnel (professional, support and volunteer) of the Association;
3. To recruit, interview and recommend to the Association all new staff personnel in full cooperation with the appropriate supervisor;
4. To develop and recommend salaries and benefits for all employed personnel;
5. To develop and recommend to the Association all policies and procedures for paid and volunteer staff of the Association;
6. To develop and recommend policies and procedures regarding continuing education and development for paid staff of the Association.

J. Properties Committee

The committee maintains all properties owned by the Association. Its duties are:

1. To inspect and keep inventory of associational properties;
2. To make recommendations to the Personnel Committee regarding the employment, training, and supervision of maintenance personnel;
3. To develop and initiate scheduled cleaning procedures;
4. To develop and recommend a program of preventive maintenance;
5. To develop and recommend policies and procedures for using facilities and equipment;
6. To request and administer maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget;
7. To develop and recommend an adequate insurance plan.

K. Strategy Planning Committee

The committee assists the Association in determining its strategic objectives and staying on course in achieving them. Its duties are:

1. To monitor the needs and opportunities of the churches;
2. To provide updated information to the churches and to the programs of the Association;
3. To recommend annual planning guidelines for the Association;
4. To review and make recommendations regarding the coordinated plan in reference to planning guidelines for the Association;
5. To recommend modifications in the organizational structure of the Association in order to help fulfill the purpose and objectives of the Association;
6. To lead the Association to conduct strategic planning about every five (5) years.

A. Executive Staff

All executive staff members should retain the ''three-dimensional model'' of minister, strategist and leader with different emphases among the dimensions as the particular area of work demands. All employed staff will be accountable, through the Executive Director and the Personnel Committee, to the Executive Board and the Association in session. Job descriptions of all staff members are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

B. Support Staff

The support staff is primarily clerical and serves the executive staff, the general officers, program organization councils, and committees of the Association. Job descriptions are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

C. Volunteer Staff

Since the work of the Association exceeds the ability or propriety of employing sufficient persons to accomplish all the tasks of the Association, volunteers will be enlisted, trained and utilized wherever feasible. Appropriate expressions of gratitude and recognition for such workers are the responsibility of the executive staff of the Association.

IX. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The policies and procedures of the Association and the specific organizational units thereof shall be proposed by those specific units affected. These policies and procedures shall be considered by the Constitution Committee and approved by the Executive Board or the Association in session. These policies and procedures shall become the PMBA Operations Manual.

X. REVISIONS

The By-Laws may be revised by the Association in session by a simple majority vote of the messengers present and voting. Any changes not recommended by the Constitution Committee must first be referred to them for study and consideration. Proposed changes must be mailed to Executive Board members of the member churches at least thirty (30) days in advance of the meeting of the Association in which action on the change is proposed.

Litany of Commitment

Scripture: When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field." (Matthew 9:36-38)

What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such a faith save him? Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to him, "Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed" but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead. . . . As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead." (James 2:14-17,26)

Jesus told His disciples; "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another." (John 13:34-35)

People: Acting upon the emphasis of our Lord, we agree to faithfully proclaim the Gospel of Salvation and to minister to the needs of people as God gives us the opportunity in our communities; in Sao Paulo, Brazil; and in Detroit. We shall be faithful in study and energetic in all aspects of ministry and proclamation. We will faithfully yield ourselves to the Holy Spirit so that God may mightily use us at all times.

Leader: Jesus came that we might have life and have it more abundantly. He wants all people everywhere to live abundantly.

People: We are living abundantly in Christ and want to share the source of that life with others. As Ambassadors for Christ, we are willing to respond in mission. We are willing to minister in the name of Christ with God's people wherever we are called.

We commit ourselves to the task of taking the Gospel to people. We do so depending upon the empowerment of the Holy Spirit and the saving grace we have through faith in Jesus Christ, our Lord. We acknowledge our tendency to fear change and shrink from opportunity. Please strengthen us and encourage us so we overcome fear and embrace opportunity.

For Those Who Go: We know that it will not be easy but we will rely upon empowerment of the Holy Spirit and upon God's strength and resources. We covet the prayers and support of those who remain.

For Those Who Remain: God empowers us all and we commit ourselves to living and proclaiming the Gospel where we are. We further commit to keep those who travel to Sao Pauo, Brazil; to Detroit; and elsewhere uppermost in our prayers

as they build
as they tell the story of Jesus
as they share themselves.

Prayer by the Leader

Response by the People: Hear our prayer, O Lord. We commit ourselves as "living sacrifices." We raise our prayer in the strong name of Jesus. Amen.

Proceedings

1992 Spring Session
of the

CRESTWOOD BAPTIST CHURCH
Winston-Salem, North Carolina
April 26, 1992

THEME: "Ye shall be witnesses..." (Acts 1:8)

1. The Spring session of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held at Crestwood Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, NC on Sunday afternoon, April 26, 1992, with 192 people registered from 43 churches (116 registered messengers, officers, and leaders and 76 guests).

2. Following a prelude played by Barbara Matthews, organist, and Andra Knight, pianist, Moderator Peggy Conrad called the session to order at 3:00 p.m. She expressed appreciation to Bill Guthrie and the Crestwood congregation for hosting the meeting.

3. Rich Lowder, minister of music and education at Pfafftown, led in the congregational hymn, "Rejoice, the Lord Is King."

4. Host Pastor Bill Guthrie gave the invocation and welcomed those present on behalf of the church. The Crestwood choir, under the direction of Gary Knight, sang "Ye Shall Be Witnesses," the theme for this session. Mr. Guthrie read Acts 1:8, sharing from this verse the promise of the power, the power of the promise, the place of the witness, and persons to proclaim.

5. The moderator expressed appreciation to Order of Business Committee chairman, Carlton Mitchell, and members for their hard work in planning the Spring Meeting program. She welcomed the special guests from Sao Paulo, Brazil, who are in our association from April 21-May 5. The guests are Pastor Jairo de Brito Gomes, Pastor Waudeque Filismino da Silva, Pastor Abimael Putumunjun Ribeiro, Pastor Americo dos Santos, Pastor Jose Luiz Marcelino, Edson Luiz Carpi, Vera Lucia Siqueira Carpi, Susana Zamataro, and Junha Marta Vieira Duarte.

6. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that those messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body of the Spring Session. Motion was seconded and approved.

7. The moderator recognized Jim Hamblen, executive director, who is recovering from a heart attack. As an expression of gratitude for God's goodness in being with Mr. Hamblen and the association during this time, Rich Lowder led in singing "To God Be the Glory." Mr. Hamblen gave an update on his condition, and praised Baptist Hospital's staff and trustees, the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, and the PMBA staff. He thanked everyone for their prayers and concern.

8. Mr. Hamblen presented to C. L. "Tripp" May, minister of education at Northwest and director of the Creative Ministries Council, an Associational Leadership Diploma in the area of recreation. Mr. Hamblen expressed personal thanks to Mr. May for his hard work and for serving as a model to others.

9. Charles Edwards, chairman of the Personnel Committee, shared the committee's concern and role during Mr. Hamblen's "unscheduled visit to the hospital." After meeting with the staff and consulting with other committee members, they decided that an acting executive director was not needed. The training and commitment of staff and associational leaders made it unnecessary. He expressed appreciation to Mike Bradshaw, other staff members, and leaders for demonstrating that the type organization Mr. Hamblen has led in establishing really works.

Mr. Edwards gave a progress report on calling a Congregational Development Director. The director will assist local churches in the area of congregational development by direct involvement with the local churches and through training of associational leadership to be available to lead in the churches. The committee is presently working on a formal job description and financial package which will be presented to the Executive Board in June. If these are approved, the committee will begin interviewing candidates. "The process for calling a new staff member is in place, it is unfolding, and we look forward to its completion," said Mr. Edwards.

10. Fran Bovender, vice chairperson of the Nominating Committee, shared how her pastor at the conclusion of each baptismal service says, "You see, there is yet room for you." Citing the continuing need for good associational leaders, Mrs. Bovender said, "You see, there is yet room for you. We would like to immerse you in. . . . associational work." Nominees for officers went to the platform and other nominees stood as their names were read. Mrs. Bovender, on behalf of the Nominating Committee, moved that the nominees be elected. There were no nominations from the floor and the motion carried. Officers elected for 1992-1993 are: Irvin Grigg, moderator; Joyce Love, vice moderator; Peggy Hall, clerk; John Woodard, assistant clerk; Carl Christensen, treasurer; and Bill Norris, assistant treasurer. (Complete list attached to original minutes.)

11. Irvin Grigg, vice moderator, gave a brief financial update on the Resource Center, which, he said, "was built as an aid to carry out the Great Commission." Sixty percent of the nearly $627,000 cost of the building was given or pledged in advance, making it necessary to borrow $250,000. He said he was delighted to report that $25,476.77 was the balance owed on the loan as of March 31, 1992. At the present rate of payment, the association should be debt free in about twelve months. Of $30,000 in pledges and gifts from individuals, $26,500 has been paid and applied to the building, leaving a balance of approximately $3600.

Mr. Grigg challenged those present to encourage their churches to make every effort to pay off the loan by the end of this calendar year "so we can start off 1993 debt free." He said this will put the association in a position to take care of a new staff member, as well as adequately finance our programs so that we can spread the good news of Jesus Christ, which we consider the most important thing in the world.

12. Rich Lowder led in singing "O Zion, Haste." J. L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore, led in an offertory prayer. An offering was taken to help retire the indebtedness on the Resource Center. (Clerk's note: $474.90 was received.)

13. The moderator, saying we can do more together than we can separately, reminded us of how we came to be called Pilot Mountain Association. She read an excerpt from the cover of M. M. Goss's book, Our History, Our Trust, which states that the name is an Indian one, "Jomeokee" - the Great Guide. Mrs. Conrad introduced the three segments of the program: Commission, Celebration, and Challenge.

14. Randy Godwin, Church Growth director, spoke on "COMMISSION," using the theme from Acts 1:8. He asked and answered the questions, "To whom are we to witness? About what are we to witness? and What are we supposed to tell?" We are to tell them "The wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life." We are to give people the "A to Z" about sin but we are also to tell them there is hope and that God loves everyone, that He can change lives.

15. Ed Evans, Evangelism director, said the Evangelism Council feels strongly that the time is right to lead out in an area wide evangelistic crusade with Jim Wilson, an associate with the Billy Graham Crusade, as evangelist. Eddie Brackett, King First pastor and member of the council, is the coordinator of this effort which is tentatively being planned for the last two weeks in April of 1994. An area wide crusade will require commitment, planning, dedication, and "shoe leather's being worn out." He asked those present to commit to prayer both personally and in the churches. Mr. Evans led in prayer.

16. Ken Boaz, Evangelism Council member, spoke on "CELEBRATION." He told of coming as new pastor to Fellowship and the excitement of Curt Bovender, who had recently gone to Togo, Africa and was looking forward to being involved in the new partnership with Sao Paulo, Brazil. Bill Guthrie laid the groundwork for the Brazil partnership and then Mr. Boaz became the coordinator. He has led three groups to Sao Paulo and will be making a fourth trip in September. He challenged everyone to consider being a part of this final trip September 17-30. Pastors are especially needed. The only prerequisites are to love the Lord and be willing to share Him. Sao Paulo's goal is to begin 1,000 churches through the partnership.

Mr. Boaz said that some time ago people began to ask, "If this is a partnership, why are no Brazilians coming to our association?" Folks here began to work and plan, the churches gave generously, and the result is the presence of nine people from Sao Paulo being in our midst. Mr. Boaz introduced the Brazilians, then moved that they be accepted as honorary members of Pilot Mountain Association. The motion was seconded and approved.

The Brazilians sang "Alleluia" in Portuguese and a cappella. Pastor Jairo Gomes gave his testimony, interpreted by Barry Nealy, associate director of missions in Piedmont Association. He shared his wish that others from Brazil could be here, and that those here could see with their own eyes what God is doing in Sao Paulo to turn people from darkness to light. He said many good things are happening in the interchange between the two associations. By the end of 1992, four missions will become churches. They have baptized many people as a result of the evangelistic teams going from our association. He said, "I pray that no one will stop when the partnership with Brazil is terminated until everyone in the world hears that Jesus Christ is the Saviour."

Mr. Gomez read II Timothy 3:1-5 and spoke of people in our churches who possess "not so good qualities" - lovers of self, lovers of money, those who think going to hell is not so bad. He said we must always be alert to the attempt of the world invading the churches to transform them into some sort of social club. Mr. Gomez said, ''We are in the world but not of the world. Jesus spoke of transforming the world by actions of the power of God. The church for which God gave His Son belongs to the Son of the Living God and we are His servants.''

17. Rich Lowder led in singing ''Jesus Shall Reign.''

18. Ken Boaz asked for a point of special privilege and requested that the Brazilians be allowed to sing another hymn. Accompanied by Gary Knight, the group sang ''Battle Hymn of the Republic.'' The congregation joined in on the chorus.

19. Paul Kennedy, Strategy Planning Committee member, speaking on ''CHALLENGE,'' shared an incident that took place at Wayne State University in Detroit which illustrated the desire of people all over the world to know about God. When Jesus made Himself known to Mary on Easter Sunday morning, he told her to go tell His brothers the good news. He asked her to leave the Garden and go out into the world. Jesus performed most of His ministry out in the world. Mr. Kennedy said it is a paradox that as we get to know God better, we become hungrier to know Him in a deeper way. Our appetite for God is satisfied out in the world. He quoted Kennon Callahan: ''When the church is in the world, God is in the church. When the church is not in the world, God is in the world.'' He challenged us to get out into the world—in Winston-Salem, in Sao Paulo, in Detroit. Without God life has no meaning. Telling of a recent experience at a Board meeting that illustrated how even Christians are captives, Mr. Kennedy said, ''Satan has made slaves out of Christians.''

From the back of the sanctuary, a group of people entered, bound tightly to each other by a rope: Boyce Wilson, posing as the devil; Georgie Kitchen, representing a homeless mother whose world was crumbling; Sandra Hall, representing a wife besieged by demands from all sides; and Marcos Bonfin representing another captive of the devil. All expressed a desire to be free of that which bound them to Satan. Mr. Kennedy remarked, ''I want you to remember this Spring Meeting. Satan is holding people captive. God is calling people like you and me to free people of the world from the grasp of Satan.'' He told of a true incident shared with him by Sherrie Pridemore of the Baptist Center in Greater Detroit Baptist Association that graphically illustrated the need and urgency to rescue captives of Satan. Mr. Kennedy said, ''People want meaning in their lives. We have the message; we've got to get it out. When the Christian is in the world, the Holy Spirit is active in the world.'' He invited people to respond to God's call today, to commit themselves to the task God has given them to free captives — in Detroit, in Sao Paulo, and in the area in which they live.

20. Mr. Kennedy led in a Litany of Commitment. The Crestwood choir sang ''Great Is Thy Faithfulness.''

21. Following a prayer by Mrs. Conrad, the Spring Meeting was adjourned at 4:55 p.m.

Proceedings

of the

107TH Annual Session

of the

ARDMORE BAPTIST CHURCH
Winston-Salem, NC
October 27, 1992

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. The 107th Annual Meeting of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held October 27, 1992 at Ardmore Baptist Church. Peggy Conrad, moderator and member of Union Grove Baptist Church, convened the session at 3:03 PM with a welcome to those attending. Expressing appreciation for Ardmore's invitation to meet with them, she said that if everyone listened closely they could hear "growing going on." (Ardmore is in the midst of extensive renovation/construction.) On a table at the front of the sanctuary a pitcher, basin, and towel were displayed, visibly portraying the theme, "Developing the hearts of Christ's servants."

2. Cyrus Bush, PMBA music director and minister of music at Becks, thanked Dan Suttles, minister of music at Oaklawn, for serving as pianist at the afternoon session. He also expressed appreciation for the opportunity to serve as the association's music director. Mr. Bush led in the singing of "Blessed Be the Name."

3. Ty Talton, associate pastor of Ardmore, welcomed messengers and guests as a worshipping congregation celebrating what God is doing through Pilot Mountain Association. He then led in prayer.

4. Merrillyn Helton, Ardmore, presented a sacred concert. She sang, a cappella, "For the Beauty of the Earth"; then "This Is My Father's World," "They Could Not," and "It Takes Us All" accompanied by Dan Suttles at the piano. Mr. Bush and Mrs. Helton ended the concert with "God Loves."

5. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that those messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body of the 107th annual session. Carlton Mitchell seconded the motion and it carried. (Clerk's note: There were 238 registered messengers/officers and leaders, and 77 visitors for a total of 316 in attendance representing 64 congregations.)

6. Mrs. Conrad gave instructions about registering. She expressed special thanks to Carlton Mitchell and the Order of Business Committee for their work throughout the year in planning the annual meeting programs. Mrs. Bertha Sneed, Antioch, was recognized "as an inspiration to us all" upon her 57th consecutive year attending annual meetings.

7. David Wooten, pastor of Forest Hill, announced project Crossover Witness prior to the Baptist State Convention in November and encouraged churches to participate. This concept, done prior to Southern Baptist Conventions, is a test program in our state. A Crossover Witness Rally will be held at Forest Hill November 7 with Howard Ramsey of the Home Mission Board as speaker.

8. Jim Hamblen, executive director, asked Joyce Love and Ty Talton to join him on the platform. He said that the work and leadership of the Sunday School and WMU are models of servanthood, living out the theme of this 107th annual session. Mr. Hamblen presented Mrs. Love a certificate for completing another course of study relating to WMU and read a letter from Nancy Curtis, WMU director for North Carolina, commending Mrs. Love for her accomplishments.

Mr. Hamblen presented to Ty Talton, Sunday School director, a Basic Achievement certificate in recognition for excellence in Sunday School work in PMBA. This is the fourth consecutive year the associational Sunday School has received such an award.

9. Mr. Hamblen welcomed new ministers who have come into the association since the last annual meeting. Those present included Dean Barley, Danbury; James L. Doss, Northwest; Larry Doyle, Hispanic Mission; Joe McWethy, Edgewood; Nathan Parrish, Unity; Dave Turner, Macedonia; David Wooten, Forest Hill; Philip Wagoner, Mineral Springs; David Best, Kernersville First; Jim Fowler, Ardmore; David Hasker, Northwest; Carlena Kool, Konnoak; and Mitzi Moore, Friends. The following missionaries were present and recognized: Mike Ledbetter, Mexico; Gene and Peggy Ruble, Indonesia; Francis Smith, Chile; and Ted and Frances York, Ivory Coast.

10. Peggy Conrad introduced Jerry Potter, director of deaf ministries for the Baptist State Convention and regional missionary. Mr. Potter brought greetings from the Baptist State Convention and its institutions. He described the task of regional missionaries as "assisting the churches in doing the mission God has called them to do." Mr. Potter said he felt fortunate to be chosen as the missionary for the fifth region, which includes PMBA and six other associations.

11. Carlton Mitchell, chairman of the Order of Business Committee, announced that copies of PMBA's history are available. He then introduced the author, McPherson Mashburn Goss, as an "elder statesman in our midst" as well as a pastor and leader in our association and in the Baptist State Convention. Mr. Goss presented a historical vignette on Sidney Francis Conrad, one of the founders of our association. Mr. Goss portrayed Mr. Conrad as a man reflecting on his life not too long before his death. At 17 years of age, after graduating from high school, he was called into the Confederate Army where he saw much destruction and death. When the war was over, he returned to Yadkin County and worked on the family farm. At 24 years of age he accepted Christ and was baptized. Following his call into the ministry, he attended Wake Forest University and Southern Seminary, then located in Greenville, SC. Mr. Conrad held 22 pastorates, often serving two or three churches simultaneously. He pastored Walnut Cove, Red Bank, Waughtown, and Brown Memorial. He served as a missionary in PMBA and for seven years was field editor of the North Carolina Baptist Journal published in Fayetteville.

Mr. Conrad was the first pastor of the Lewisville Church; while there he determined to do all he could to begin a separate association in this area. He and Henry Alford Brown of Winston Baptist Church became close friends and allies in the endeavor to form a new association. Since Mr. Conrad was also pastor of Red Bank, he invited those interested in a new association to meet at Red Bank for the 1885 organizational meeting. Although a committee had been appointed at a prior meeting in Lewisville to draw up a name, there was no consensus. At Red Bank, no one name pleased the majority. The debate became heated. During adjournment for lunch, the group went outside. Looking to the west, they could see Pilot Mountain, calm, clear and serene. They all agreed that the new association would be known as Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. In 1900 Mr. Conrad moved to Charlotte to pastor Olivet Baptist Church. He died in 1932.

Mr. Goss commended Mr. Conrad's good friend and fellow minister, Henry Brown, who helped shape the association during those early years. He said, "This association is the lengthened shadow of Henry Alford Brown." Mr. Goss concluded by saying that he had been in many associations but the kindness, understanding, patience, helpfulness and spirit of good fellowship of this association is indeed rare.

Peggy Conrad added that, as she explored the biographies of Sidney Francis Conrad, she was delighted to discover that she was married to his great, great nephew, Hillus Conrad.

12. Cyrus Bush led in singing the hymn, "For All the Saints."

13. On behalf of the Associational Coordinating Council, Mr. Hamblen moved that the 1992-93 calendar of activities be adopted. The motion was approved. He reminded the body that the primary reason for the association's existence is to assist congregations and the planned schedule of events (calendar) is designed to help PMBA fulfill its purpose.

14. Clay Booher, chairman of the Audit Committee, reported that Gray, Callison and Company completed their audit for 1991 and found no inconsistences in the records of the association. The full report is available in the PMBA office. On behalf of the Audit Committee, he moved that the association continue a yearly audit; that Gray, Callison and Company be retained to do the 1992 audit; and that the 1991 audit be accepted as reported. The motion was approved.

15. Carl Christensen, treasurer, commented upon the nine-month financial report, January 1-September 30, 1992. The association has operated within the budget; to date, 63% of budgeted money has been spent. Resource Center indebtedness stood at $13,198 on September 30. As of today, the debt is $12,139. Presently, $975 is on hand to apply toward the debt with $3,150 in pledges outstanding. Mr. Christensen thanked member churches for their continuing financial support of PMBA.

16. Ron Wood, Finance Committee chairman, said the committee feels 1993 is a pivotal year in our association. In a recent letter, Mr. Wood called on WMU organizations in our churches to help retire Resource Center indebtedness by the end of 1992. Several churches and individuals have already responded with a contribution. Mr. Wood urged prayerful consideration of the need to retire this debt.

Mr. Wood referred to the 1993 Proposed Budget in the Book of Reports. Total projected budget is $330,789.26, about $5,000 less than this year's. He said that the Finance Committee, working with the Associational Coordinating Council, had compiled a realistic budget with the highest degree of earnestness and awareness of the needs of our association. Mr. Wood thanked members of the committee for their service and hard work. On behalf of the Finance Committee, he moved the adoption of the budget for the 1993 calendar year. Motion was approved unanimously.

17. Sheree Jones, Nominating Committee chairperson, expressed appreciation for the privilege of working with this committee and said there are many exciting ways to serve Christ in PMBA. She called attention to their report in the Book of Reports, which listed the names of those who have agreed to serve. She asked that the following names be added: Tripp May, Northwest, Creative Ministries Council; Ron Wood, King First, director of Stewardship Council (his name to be removed from Strategy Planning Committee); Norine Lee, Pfafftown, and Dave Turner, Macedonia, 1995 terms on the Order of Business Committee. Nominees were asked to stand. On behalf of the Nominating Committee, Ms. Jones moved that those listed on the Nominating Committee report, along with additions noted, serve as leaders in PMBA for 1992-1993. The motion was unanimously approved.

18. Reporting for the Language Missions Council, Ellen Tabor said their main goal the past year was to assist the Hispanic Mission to find land. On October 12 the mission closed on the purchase of 2.8 prime acreage located on Union Cross Road between Highway 311 and new I-40. "With 'Andrew' behind us," Mrs. Tabor said, "we want to see volunteers give of themselves to help the congregation build their structure.'' The mission hopes to be self supporting by 1995. ''The presence of ethnic work among us adds to our sense of global mission involvement and is a tangible example of missions in action,'' said Mrs. Tabor. She reported that the Vietnamese work as a separate ministry is expected to close at the end of 1992. Their ministry has added much to our association and the council commended Ardmore for their excellent work in this area.

Mrs. Conrad remarked that she was privileged to be a part of the Hispanic Mission's celebration service at their new property site this past Sunday and pledged the association's continuing support of this work.

19. Ed Evans, Evangelism Council director, said the association's five year partnership with Sao Paulo, Brazil has ended ''successfully,'' but that we will continue a relationship with them. He recognized Ken Boaz, who has coordinated this effort.

Mr. Boaz, the ''Sao Paulo man,'' expressed appreciation for the support he has received and said that we can take great ''Christian'' pride in the partnership. About 100 persons representing over 16 churches have gone from PMBA, along with a few from other associations. Thousands of decisions have been made in Sao Paulo, but the ''numbers cannot add up to what it has meant to our churches and the folks of Sao Paulo,'' remarked Mr. Boaz. He shared the experience of David Bissette, an architect and member of Ardmore, who helped draw up plans for one of the Sao Paulo churches that needed to expand. Members demolished the old structure and are in the process of rebuilding according to Mr. Bissette's blueprint. A new mission church has come into existence in a slum area because of the medical team work last year of Dr. Robert Kelly, Ardmore; Fran Bovender, Winston-Salem First; and Leslie Shenstein, Ardmore. As a result of the testimony of volunteers from Quaker Gap in 1991, a young man was baptized this year while PMBA's group was in Sao Paulo.

Mr. Boaz read from a plaque Brazilian Pastor Jairo de Brito' Gomes, president of the Sao Paulo Association, had made for our association:

Remembrance of Partnership
Pineheiros Baptist Association (SP - BRAZIL)
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association (NC - USA)
April 21 - May 5, 1992

Mr. Evans accepted the plaque on behalf of the association. It will be placed in the Resource Center.

Mr. Evans shared that the Evangelism Council is exploring the possibility of an area wide crusade in the spring of 1994. Eddie Brackett, King First, is coordinator. At the close of the meeting, churches were asked to turn in response cards to members of the Evangelism Council. These cards are to help the Evangelism Council gage the level of commitment to this effort and decide whether or not to proceed with plans.

20. Cyrus Bush led in singing ''God of Grace and God of Glory.''

21. Mr. Evans introduced Eddie Brackett, pastor of King First and member of the Evangelism Council, to bring the sermon. Mr. Brackett said he began his in ministry in PMBA over seventeen years ago at Immanuel Chapel, now Pfafftown. He then served at Troy before coming to King First in 1984. He expressed appreciation for what the association has meant to him and his family. After reading Matthew 4:18-22, Mr. Brackett said that in 1850 it took five Christians to lead one person to faith in Jesus Christ; in 1980, it took 100 people. The mission of the church has not changed. The commands in Scripture, such as Acts 1:8, have not changed. Two fundamental rights that the church and the association must remember are: (1) That every man, woman, boy and girl might have a personal experience with Jesus Christ and (2) that every individual have the opportunity to hear the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Mr. Brackett presented the command involved in getting out the good news of Jesus Christ — the call and command to every Christian to witness. The call to service is individually received. As disciples of Jesus, we want to be good at what He was good, and He is the best example of personal witnessing. He always had time for that one person — Nicodemus, Zaccheus, the woman at the well, Matthew. There is a commission in getting out the good news. Jesus went to busy places, where people were busy. Jesus doesn't call us to do anything without equipping us to do what He asks. He wants to help us become fishers of men. Good fishers go where the fish are. Effective tackle needs to be used because not all fish are caught with the same bait. We need to offer fresh, sweet, attractive bait to a lost and dying world. We also need to exhibit a lot of patience and perseverance. While a student at New Orleans Seminary, one of Mr. Brackett's professors impressed on him that successful witnessing is simply sharing, leaving the results with God. We are not to present ourselves or our denomination but Jesus — who He is, what He has done. The command and commission are followed by commitment. Mr. Brackett cited the examples of Peter, Andrew, James and John. He closed by asking if the task/responsibility of Christians should be any less than that of dedicated firemen who answer every call promptly because they know the danger that exists for loss of life and property. Mr. Brackett led in prayer.

22. The afternoon session ended with a time of remembrance led by Mike Bradshaw, Missions Ministries Director. He read Luke 6:20-36 and shared that 291 persons from PMBA congregations have died during the past year. Among those were the following ministers: Rev. David Boaz, Becks; Rev. Herbert Brown, Calvary; Rev. Henry Duggins, Mount Calvary; Dr. Allen Easley, Wake Forest; Dr. George Griffin, Wake Forest; Rev. Harold Heath; Bethany; Rev. Bill Moreland, Peter's Creek; Rev. N. C. Teague, Southside. Others included Mr. Paul Bodenhamer, Forsyth Park charter member; and the following deacons: R. Keith Blalock, Dewey Ed Parker, and Martin W. Snow, Mineral Springs; Moir Amos, Otis Shaffer, and Roy Steele, Sr., Oak Ridge; M. J. Tuttle, Quaker Gap; Harold A. Southern, Robin Hood Road; W. T. Hackett, Sprague Street; and Betty Scales, Wake Forest. Mr. Bradshaw then led in a prayer of thanksgiving for the lives and influence of these people.

EVENING SESSION

23. The evening session was reconvened by Moderator Peggy Conrad at 7:03 PM. She gave instructions regarding registration, expressed appreciation for those attending, and shared that Bill Guthrie, pastor of Crestwood, is helping with a crusade in Russia and Wade Dellinger, Old Town, will go to Russia November 19. Richard Groves, Wake Forest pastor, brought a report on the condition of Warren Carr, who is experiencing complications following recent surgery.

24. Mrs. Conrad recognized and welcomed members of the Hispanic congregation, a mission of Union Grove.

25. The congregation sang "The Master Hath Come."

26. Carlton Mitchell, Order of Business Committee chairman, introduced the second vignette reminding us of the history of the association. Another "giant" in our association was Henry A. Brown. His grandson, Henry Stokes, a member of Winston-Salem First, portrayed Mr. Brown.

27. Mr. Stokes, speaking as Henry Brown, told of being in the confederate army when he was 17 years old and how the death of men and horses affected him deeply. When the war was over, he went back to the family farm in Rockingham County. He accepted Christ as Saviour at age 18 and joined Summerfield Baptist Church. He attended Wake Forest College where he enjoyed his studies, especially debating and giving speeches. Following graduation, he worked for the State Mission Board in Rockingham, Guilford, Stokes, and Forsyth counties. For a number of years he preached, sang, and led revivals in a nine-county area of the Piedmont. He then was called to his first "town" church in Fayetteville. After three years, he went to Winston which was supported by the State Mission Board. He was called to pastor Winston and Red Bank churches — preaching three Sundays at Winston and one at Red Bank. His pastorate at Winston lasted 40 years. This church was strongly mission minded and helped establish churches throughout the area. He and Sidney Francis Conrad became good friends and allies in organizing and leading Pilot Mountain Association. Mr. Brown served 25 years on the Executive Committee which was primarily responsible for organizing new churches and helping bring churches into the association. Thirty-two churches became a part of the association during the time of Mr. Brown's leadership. The motto of Mr. Brown's life was "All my hope rests in the righteousness of Jesus Christ." He was a man of peace who emphasized the priceless legacy Jesus Christ left His followers—peace for the mind, heart, and conscience.

Mrs. Conrad called for a time of silent prayer to reflect on the rich heritage left us by men like Sidney Conrad and Henry Brown. She then closed with a vocal prayer.

28. Coley Rimmer, director of Church and Community Ministries Council, thanked people like Mr. Brown and Mr. Conrad for their commitment to the past, which is a foundation for our present ministry and points us to the future. He recognized members of the council, which seeks to involve people in our churches to minister and witness to persons with special needs. Mr. Rimmer shared "images" of the Baptist Toy Store, Third World Self Help Craft Store, literacy training, and special ministries to visually impaired and developmentally disabled people in this area. Over 1800 toys given by PMBA congregations were distributed last December to 506 children in 260 families. During the counseling sessions there were eight professions of faith and 45 families expressed an interest to be involved in a local church. Over 40 volunteers helped with the Self Help Craft Store and sold $12,500 worth of goods purchased directly from people in Third World countries. Three workshops trained 63 people to serve in literacy work. He expressed appreciation to Bess Hollingworth for her leadership in this area. Over half of all those trained in Forsyth County were trained through PMBA's workshops. Thirty volunteers helped with the Spring Celebration at Becks in June; 65 special persons attended. More than 60 people attended the Beep Ball game for visually impaired at Hines Park. Of the events planned by all ministry councils, there were 214 church involvements with 292 volunteers in direct ministries last year.

29. Stephan Kiser, chairman of the newly organized Mission FOCUS Team, told how this task force came into being through the Strategy Planning Committee. Part of the team's responsibility is to coordinate PMBA's partnership with Greater Detroit Baptist Association (GDBA) through September, 1995. Based on needs ascertained through two awareness trips to Detroit this year, the Mission FOCUS Team sees their strategy as four-pronged: Establish direct church to church partnerships (PMBA has 22 churches participating and GDBA, 17); undergird needs for the Baptist Center in Detroit; assist the Baptist Student Union at Wayne State University, especially Chinese students ("to see the gospel go from Winston Square to Cadillac Square to Tiananmen Square"); and begin an interfaith dialogue with members of the the Islamic community (50,000 Muslims, 26 mosques in Detroit). Mr. Kiser announced a partnership "kick off" dinner on November 24 which is open to all churches. He ended by saying, "My hope and prayer is that we will so conduct ourselves that at the end of the Detroit partnership we can say with Joshua, 'Shout, for the Lord has given you this city.' "

30. Cyrus Bush quoted I Peter 2:9 and led in singing "We Are God's People."

31. Joe Coltrane, chairman of the Credentials Committee, reported that North Winston Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Reuban Gilliam is a vibrant and committed congregation. Mr. Coltrane read the following: The Credentials Committee recommends that North Winston Baptist Church be received into full membership of the association because we are convinced that its faith, polity and practice are in harmony with the purposes of the association; and this church has been under the watchcare of the association for the one year required by our constitution and has reiterated its desire to be affiliated with us.

Mr. Coltrane moved that the recommendation be accepted by the association. The motion was unanimously approved. Members of the congregation were asked to stand as Pastor Gilliam went to the platform to be formally welcomed into the association. The moderator, executive director, and Mr. Coltrane gave him the right hand of fellowship.

Mr. Gilliam shared that the dream that began three years ago has become a reality. The congregation is not a group that came from outside the association, but from within. Members of the Church Growth Council were recognized for their role in nurturing North Winston.

32. Charles Edwards, Personnel Committee chairman, expressed appreciation for the administrative staff and recognized several anniversaries: Jim Hamblen, 9 years as executive director November 16; Mike Bradshaw, 6 years as missions ministries director November 1; Peggy Hall, 19 years as administrative assistant October 3; Sandra Hall, six years as financial secretary April 16. He introduced the newest team member, Karen Taylor, who began January 21 as communications secretary.

Mr. Edwards recalled the deliberate, extended process this past year in the calling of a new staff member as the committee worked with the Executive Board, Associational Coordinating Council, and other significant groups. A job description for a Congregational Development Director was developed and approved. The responsibility of the new staff member is a two-pronged focus — direct involvement with the local churches and working to train persons within the association to assist churches. Next the committee worked out a financial package that has been approved with the adoption of the 1993 budget. The Personnel Committee then became a Search Committee. After processing more than thirty resumes, the committee decided to interview the top candidate, Dr. John E. Saunders, Jr. Mr. Saunders is a graduate of Mars Hill College and the University of Maryland. He was ordained by Temple Baptist Church in Baltimore. His focus has been upon associational ministry for the past seven years. Mr. Saunders presently serves as the Congregational Development person in Long Run Association, Louisville, Kentucky.

Ann McKenzie, a member of the Personnel Committee, shared her perspective on Mr. Saunders' family — Sally, his wife; son Ryan, age 5; and daughter Amy, age 2. Mrs. Saunders is currently working on her master's degree in speech pathology at the University of Louisville. This same program is available at UNC-Greensboro. Mrs. McKenzie concluded by saying, "John is a warm, loving , family oriented person. Sally is very supportive."

Another committee member, Bill Yates, shared his personal impressions of the strengths Mr. Saunders brings to our association. His "sense" of who John Saunders is included humor, well read, articulate, a team player, supportive, honest about personal struggles in spiritual growth, aura of self confidence, inner strength, passion for people, and caring.

Mr. Hamblen recalled interviewing and recommending each of the current staff (with the exception of administrative assistant) through the hiring of Karen Taylor in January. He has been uniquely concerned and careful about the next staff persons's gifts and compatibility with present staff. Mr. Hamblen said that in his experience, PMBA is one of the finest units of work God has ever assembled. It was a pleasure to him to watch as subsequent opportunities allowed Mike Bradshaw, the support staff and their spouses to fellowship with the Saunders. As executive director, Mr. Hamblen "strongly recommended that the body give favorable consideration to calling this servant of God."

Mr. Edwards presented the following recommendation: "With approval of the Executive Board, the Personnel Committee unanimously recommends a call to John E. Saunders, Jr. to serve as Congregational Development Director of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association." A chorus of "Amens" signified unanimous approval to the call. Mr. Saunders hopes to be on the field the middle of January.

Mr. Saunders expressed appreciation to Charles Edwards and the Personnel Committee (which he called "outstanding") for their gracious and warm spirit and openness throughout the selection process. He thanked Mr. Hamblen for his hospitality and patience and the opportunity to be able to work with him. Mr. Saunders accepted the call extended to him and thanked everyone for the confidence placed in him. He said he has been amazed at how God has worked out the many details. He made the following pledges to the association as he anticipates coming in January:

1. To be faithful — faithful to God and His call, to his family, and to members of PMBA.
2. To love the people of PMBA by coming to live among them, getting to know them, and wanting the best for them as individuals and churches.
3. To be a servant as he listens, learns and leads.

Mr. Edwards recognized members of the Personnel Committee: Mazie Bumgarner, Carolyn Gilbert, Bob Hicks, Ann McKenzie, Alma Tedder and Bill Yates. New members include Al Fausch and Bettye Howell.

33. Following the singing of "Lord, Here Am I," Peggy Conrad led in prayer. An offering was taken to help pay off indebtedness on the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center. (Clerk's note: $878.35 was contributed to the Resource Center.)

34. J. L. Wilson, host pastor and chairman of the Servant Leadership Task Force, recognized other members of the Task Force: Mike Bradshaw, Peggy Conrad, Linda Lewis, Joyce Love, and Coley Rimmer. The coming year's focus will be on Servant Leadership. He called attention to a brochure outlining what is being planned in 1993 — events that are "unlike anything you have ever been offered before." Spiritual Preparation for Ministry, to be held April 30-May 1 at Winston-Salem First, will be led by Mary Cosby. Mr. Wilson said, "Something must happen on the inside before we can be a servant." This conference will focus on spiritual disciplines that help one stay close to God. Quest for Community is scheduled August 27-28 at Ardmore and will be led by William Linden and Judy Berno. Focus will be on helping understand how people get along on a deeper level. Marketplace Ministry will be held October 15-16 at College Park with Pete Hammond as leader. This event focuses on learning to witness in a natural, normal way to people with whom you spend most of your time. Mr. Wilson closed by saying, "I am convinced that this is one of the really worthwhile things planned by our association, doing together what no one church can do by itself."

35. Mr. Wilson introduced the evening's speaker, Mrs. Christine Gregory of Danville, Virginia, as one who embodies what we have been talking about in servant leadership. She is a native of South Carolina, graduate of Winthrop College, is married to Harrison Gregory, has three grown sons, served as a teacher and on a church staff, served as president of the WMU/SBC for six years, and on various committees and offices of the Virginia WMU, Baptist World Alliance, and Southern Baptist Convention.

36. Under the direction of Philip Mitchell, minister of music, Ardmore's Adult Choir sang ''Make a Joyful Noise,'' ''I'll Sing the Praise of Jesus,'' and ''He Never Failed Me Yet.''

37. In her inspirational address, Mrs. Gregory spoke on ''What am I doing leading the parade? I never planned to March!'' and asked that we take a look at the kind of portrait our lives as leaders paint. After telling about an incident in the life of an Acteen, she said, ''If you are leading and no one is following, you are simply taking a walk. We must lead, follow, or get out of the way.'' She gave three ways we present ourselves to be judged: How we perceive ourselves, how we present ourselves (we are either pleasers, controllers, avoiders, or life givers); and how we perform our tasks. Our performance is not always directed to the right one (God). We cannot practice servanthood unless we take stock in our lives to ''go back and see who the Master is.'' Citing the story of Elijah's placing his mantle of leadership on Elisha, she said that today we need a double measure of God's Spirit. However, we must look into the face of God and ask for it; only then can we lead. She concluded by saying, ''If we know the Master, we can have a servant heart.'' Mrs. Gregory led in prayer, asking that we all receive a double measure of God's Spirit.

38. Mrs. Conrad expressed gratitude for the honor of serving as moderator and for the cooperation she has had, saying it had been a humbling experience. ''God doesn't call those who are worthy, but those who are willing.'' She asked the new officers to come to the front of the sanctuary to be installed. Mrs. Conrad read the passage from John 13 of Jesus' washing the disciples feet. She thanked Mr. Hamblen for his nine years of emphasizing and modeling servant leadership and then passed the towel symbolizing servant leadership to the new moderator, Irvin Grigg.

39. The 107th annual session adjourned at 9:15 with a prayer of dedication and commitment by Mr. Grigg.

JACK THORNTON, Director

Chaplaincy Ministries Council

The Chaplaincy Ministries Council expanded its vision in 1992 and began laying the groundwork for new programs which will enable persons in the association to meet a variety of needs. Summer Chaplaincy Ministries Coordinator, Amy Merritt, began exploratory conversations with Wake Forest University concerning the needs of international students and ways in which churches and church members can respond to those needs. This program will be developed in 1993.

Amy also expanded our ministry to nursing homes by developing an ''Adopt-A-Resident'' program, whereby church members can provide personal ministry to residents of local long-term-care facilities. We continued our ongoing effort to enhance relationships between the association and nursing home activities directors so that the association is seen as a resource for meeting particular needs. A ''needs list'' was distributed to churches and many responded to meet those needs.

In response to an issue which many families are facing, the Chaplaincy Ministries Council conducted a workshop in August on ''Living Wills and Advance Medical Directive: The Decision of Your Life.'' Persons attending were assisted in thinking about this issue in a context which recognized the significance of theological concerns in making important decisions.

LINDA LEWIS, Director

Christian Life Council

Christian Life planned two workshops this past year - ''Showcase of Marriage Enrichment Models'' in April and one September 14 with John Savage. Mr. Savage shared with the Ministers Conference ''Skills for Calling-Caring Ministries: Learning the Language of Healing.''

The council continues to meet its objectives as outlined in the association's Bylaws:

- Make Christians aware of critical moral and social issues and lead in Christian action to meet those needs.
- Help churches apply the Gospel to all areas of life, demonstrate responsible concern for society, and assist churches in broader cooperative efforts and emphases.
- Mobilize and equip the members of the churches to be on mission in regard to moral and ethical concerns.

GLENDORA EPPERSON, Director

Church and Community Ministries Council

The purpose of the Church and Community Ministries Council is to assist churches to minister and witness to persons of special need. Program areas are: Visually Impaired, Adult Developmentally Disabled, Hunger, Literacy, Internationals, and Crisis Ministries.

Accomplishments this past year include:

1. The BAPTIST TOY STORE was held at the PMBA Resource Center. Nearly half of the families were families we had not helped before. We received 1,800 toys from our churches which were distributed to 506 children in 260 families. There were 8 professions of faith and some rededications of faith registered by our counselors. Forty-five families requested a visit from a local church. We want to thank the 75 volunteers and the many churches giving toys for children and strengthening these families.

2. The THIRD WORLD SELF HELP CRAFT SALE was held at the PMBA Resource Center. We sold $12,500 worth of goods purchased directly from people in under-developed Third World countries. We want to thank the 40+ volunteers who assisted with set-up, selling and clean-up.
3. LITERACY. We had a total of 63 tutors trained in three tutor training workshops organized by Bess Hollingsworth. This year an English as a Second Language Workshop was held for the first time and was very successful with an attendance of 16. We have planned three tutor training workshops and another English as a Second Language workshop for 1993.
4. David McLean was our summer worker for SPECIAL MINISTRIES. We appreciate his work with the visually impaired and developmentally disabled people of our area. We had over 65 attend with our workers at the Spring Celebration at Becks Baptist Church in June, with the help of 30 volunteers including the youth group from Quaker Gap Baptist Church. Twenty-three developmentally disabled people went to Carowinds in July for Super Summer Celebration. We appreciate the ball players from Becks Baptist who played in a Beep Ball game with the visually impaired at Hines Park, totaling about 60 people. We appreciate the Acteens group from Union Cross who provided refreshments.
5. A SERVANT LEADERSHIP TASK FORCE was enlisted to plan for the year of Ministry — 1993. A report on this group follows.

At our annual planning retreat at the home of Mike Bradshaw, we planned another Toy Store, Self Help Craft store, developmentally disabled retreat, three literacy workshops, an English as a Second Language workshop, and for a summer worker for visually impaired and disabled.

Again, we are encouraged and thankful for the number of churches and volunteers participating in the programs of our council and we pray you continue. Of the ministries planned by all ministry councils, there were 214 church involvements with 292 volunteers in direct ministries last year. Continue the Kingdom work.

COLEY RIMMER, Director

Servant Leadership Task Force

Peggy Conrad, Linda Lewis, Joyce Love, Coley Rimmer, and J. L. Wilson (chairman) and Mike Bradshaw met several times during the year to plan appropriate events to help members grow as servant leaders. Three events have been scheduled around the theme of "Developing the Hearts of Christ's Servants."

The first is centered on spiritual preparation. Mary Cosby (Church of the Savior) will be the leader. The dates are April 30-May 1, and the place is First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem.

The second event focuses on the dynamics of building genuine relationships for ministry. Bill Linden (Quest for Community leader) and Judy Berno, one of his associates, will be our guests. The dates are August 27-28. The place is Ardmore Baptist Church.

The third event places attention on Christ's servants in the world. Pete Hammond and Eddie Hammett will lead sessions on ministry in the marketplace. The dates are October 15-16, and the conferences will be at College Park Baptist Church.

Each of the conferences will keep the same format. There will be a Friday evening dinner, followed by an evening session. The Saturday session will begin at 9:00 a.m. and run until 3:00 p.m. A $15 registration fee for each two-day conference will provide for the meals and break time refreshments.

While the three events are related in theme, each one stands on its own. We encourage churches to enlist members to take part in each conference. We are fortunate to work with top level individuals who will be coming to lead the conferences.

J. L. WILSON, Chairman

Church Growth Council

The Church Growth Council's major emphasis for the 1991-92 year was the PACT Blitz.

The Blitz was completed in three stages. Stage one was the Awareness event in February. Purpose of this event was to introduce the churches of PMBA to the PACT process.

Stage two, the Training event, was conducted in April. The Training event had two purposes. One, Jack Washington, our PACT coordinator, interviewed the participating pastors to learn something of their ministry and vision for their church. Through this process, Mr. Washington made his selection of each church's consultant. The second purpose of this event was to train the PACT committee from each participating church.

Stage three was the PACT Blitz held on September 18-20, 1992. Seven churches participated in the Blitz. They were Advance, Becks, Forsyth Park, Glenn View, Goodwill, Northridge, and South Fork.

Stage four, the consultants report and recommendations will be completed by the end of the year. And the final stage is the implementation of the recommendations made by the consultants within each congregation!

RANDY GODWIN, Director

Cooperative Ministries Council

The Cooperative Ministries Council serves as a liaison between Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and Rowan Association. The council seeks ways to share in cooperative fellowship and ministry among the pastors and churches of the two associations.

In December the ministers and spouses of both associations came together for a joint worship service and lunch at College Park Baptist Church. The Christmas message was delivered by the Reverend Reuban Gilliam, the pastor of North Winston Baptist Church and president of the Baptist Ministers Conference of Rowan Association. North Winston Baptist Church is in fellowship with Pilot Mountain Association, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Rowan Association, and the General Baptist Convention.

In order to alleviate a paternalistic approach in joint ventures between the two associations, small team meetings have been held by Dr. Corbin Cooper, director of Cooperative Ministries with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, to receive input from selected ministers from both associations. On April 27, 1992, Dr. Cooper met in Winston-Salem with the Reverend Joseph Jones, the Reverend Reuban Gilliam, the Reverend James V. Hamblen and Dr. Cecil Cave. On June 4 Dr. Cooper met in Burlington with the eight regional teams of Cooperative Ministries from North Carolina.

Beginning in September of 1992 the Reverend James V. Hamblen, the Reverend Reuban Gilliam, and Dr. Cecil Cave began meeting with a newly-formed interracial group of ministers in Winston-Salem convened by Dr. James W. Ferree, District Superintendent, Winston-Salem District of the United Methodist Church.

The council is seeking workable suggestions from all participants from all gatherings so as to contribute to better relations among all people.

Creative Ministries Council

This year your Creative Ministries Council has continued its emphasis on using creative ministries in the marketplace. On February 1, 1992 the council conducted the workshop ''Puppetry in the Marketplace (Part II)'' at College Park Baptist Church. Program leaders were Cathy and Coley Rimmer. Members of the council have assisted various churches during the current year, both by providing creative programming and by offering guidance in developing creative ministries. Several council members are leaders in this Fall's ''Curtain Call'' (the N.C. Christian Drama Conference) in Greensboro.

Churches are encouraged to call on the Creative Ministries Council for assistance.

TRIPP MAY, Director

Deacon Ministries Council

The Deacon Ministries Council participated in the Key Leadership Conference held at Ridgecrest in the Spring. Also in the Spring, the PMBA hosted a dinner for deacons and their spouses at Ardmore Baptist Church. Bob Sheffield, deacon consultant from the SBC, spoke at this gathering. There was an excellent turnout.

Plans are in the works for Eddie Hammett from Discipleship Training, Baptist State Convention, to be at one of the Training Extravaganzas in 1993.

ROBERT E. BARBERA, Director

Evangelism Council

The Evangelism Council has continued its mission this year to stimulate a new awareness as to our Lord's command to spread the Gospel. The council has participated in the appropriate conferences and meetings. Assistance in evangelism training has been offered to all of our churches.

Plans toward the recommendation of an area crusade in the spring of 1994 continue. A WIN School will be offered in the fall of 1993. The five-year Sao Paulo/NC Partnership has been completed with great success. Many desire a continued relationship with Sao Paulo and will do so on a church to church or an individual basis.

ED EVANS, Director

Sao Paulo/NC Partnership

This year - 1992 - is the final official year of our five-year partnership with the Pinheiros Association of Sao Paulo, Brazil. This joint effort to begin 1,000 new Baptist churches in the state of Sao Paulo has been a blessed experience. It is projected that this goal will be met and missions started will exceed it in the near future.

Two major events were planned for this "harvest" year. First, in April, nine members of Pinheiros churches came to the PMBA to spend two weeks. These representatives spoke and sang in nearly 40 of our churches, shared in associational meetings, were involved in ministry training sessions led by PMBA leaders, and toured some of our state (Ridgecrest to Cary). It was a glorious time for all participants.

Then, in September, a team of 17 traveled to Sao Paulo for another mission in evangelism. Assistance was given in preaching, witnessing and Bible study. Mike Bradshaw did training in social ministry organization. This put our number traveling to Brazil at over 100 persons.

"To God be the glory, great things He hath done!"

Language Missions Council

The Language Missions Council has met every one to two months in the 1991-92 year to facilitate the progress of our language work. Our main goal was to assist the Hispanic Mission at Union Grove Baptist Church find and purchase land in 1992. On October 12, 1992 the mission closed on the purchase of some prime acreage. Their 2.8 acres is located on Union Cross Road between the new I-40 and Highway 311, south of Kernersville. The council has adopted a second goal of encouraging every PMBA church to participate in giving of labor, materials, money and prayers that we may see their building completed in 1993.

This new building is envisioned to accommodate the growing needs of the Hispanic Mission. It will allow the mission to offer programs in areas such as education, child care, counseling, health and emergency assistance. The mission hopes to be self-supporting by 1995, with a church building that can be a center of worship, information and assistance for the triad's rapidly growing Hispanic population. Also, the dream of the Hispanic Mission is to establish a center dedicated to developing leadership for Hispanic churches in this region of North Carolina. They envision such programs as an Ethnic Leadership Development Center, a Seminary Extension Center, and discipleship training.

PMBA objectives have been advanced in the renewal of the Hispanic Mission's faith in the association as we have worked to help them this year. The Korean and the Hispanic report that they are reaching new people, and Bible study attendance has increased. The presence of the ethnic work adds to our sense of global mission involvement and is a tangible example of missions in action.

Our weakness lies in the limited number who are involved in language work.

The Vietnamese work as a separate ministry is expected to close at the end of 1992. Their ministry has added much to our association, and we commend Ardmore in their excellent work with the Vietnamese.

ELLEN TABOR, Acting Director

Music Ministry Council

The 1991-92 year was our year to emphasize musical experiences for the association and develop musical skills in our children's choir workers.

In March the PMBA PraiSing '92 was held at Southside. It was an evening of inspiration and challenge as Mark Edwards, Dr. Tom Austin, Larry Keesler, and Dr. Jim Goode led 275 of us in a celebration of praise and introduced the new Baptist Hymnal at the same time.

In March Ardmore was host for an Older Children's Choir Workshop under the excellent leadership of Sue Ellen Page. Over 100 children participated.

A Handbell Workshop is scheduled for November 7, 1992 at Pfafftown Baptist Church. Bruce Hartgrove of First Baptist Church, High Point, will be the clinician.

The coming associational year promises to be exciting as the Music Council, along with the Single Adult Ministries Council, hosts contemporary Christian artist, Babby Mason, in a concert. The Music Council meets monthly for business as well as fellowship. We sincerely desire to be a resource to our churches and ministers of music.

CYRUS BUSH, Director

Ordination Council

The mission of the Ordination Council is to assist churches of the association in examining candidates for the ministry. When a request is made, the chairperson of the Ordination Council begins the process that ultimately leads to a recommendation to the ordaining church body.

During the past year the council received requests from four churches to assist in the examination of the following individuals:

1. Todd Byrd, Center Grove Baptist Church
2. David Clines, College Park Baptist Church
3. Tony Brown, Oaklawn Baptist Church
4. James Garrison, Quaker Gap Baptist Church

DONALD M. FARROW, Chairman

Pastoral Ministries Council

The Pastoral Ministries Council is really composed of three councils:

1. The Deacon Ministries Council works with deacons of churches in our association to plan training events and to be of assistance to deacons in any way. Bobby Barbera of Union Grove leads this council.

2. The Ordination Council is available to assist churches when they wish to interview a candidate for ordination to the ministry. Donald Farrow, pastor of Waughtown, leads this council.

3. The Church-Minister Relations Council has as its purpose that of assisting churches and ministers during periods of conflict. The council can only serve when it is called upon by a church or a minister. It is available to listen and to offer counsel. Tom Austin, pastor of Knollwood, leads this council.

In addition to these services, the Pastoral Ministries Council is exploring ways and means to be of help to ministers. It exists to be of service to the churches and the ministers.

RUSSELL WIMMER, Director

Seminary Extension

The Seminary Extension Council sponsored ten courses this year as follows: two courses completed, four scheduled for the Fall, and four at the Forsyth Prison. These opportunities enabled participants to enrich their spiritual development and enlarge their Christian perspective.

Seminary Extension is designed to increase our skills in reaching people, to develop the spiritual gifts of believers, to strengthen our sense of the mission of the church, and to improve the organization of the local church through better equipped leaders.

You need Seminary Extension. Our Pilot Mountain Institute for Biblical Studies, Seminary Extension, needs you. Let's get together. If you have a need for a particular course, or desire additional information, contact Sandra Hall at the Resource Center.

WILLIAM G. GUTHRIE, Director

Senior Adult Ministries Council

The Senior Adult Ministries Council sponsored their fifth annual senior adult luncheon at First Baptist Church, Kernersville on April 30, 1992 with approximately 206 people in attendance, representing about 20 churches in the association. The speaker for the luncheon was Dr. Tom Jenkins, director of the Division of Missions, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Twenty churches is a small representation out of 80 some churches in our association. We hope and pray we will do better this year. The luncheon for 1993 is scheduled for Thursday, April 29, place to be announced.

ARTHUR M. WETZEL, Director

Single Adult Ministries Council

The Single Adult Ministries Council devoted more time, energy, and effort to its annual Single's Spring Spectacular than in recent years. A promotional blitz included bulletin inserts, posters, mail-outs, press releases, and articles in both the Biblical Recorder and The Winston-Salem Journal.

First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem provided its complex for the event which ran from April 10-11, 1992. Activities included a Friday night square dance that was an excellent starter to a great two days of study, fellowship, fun, and worship.

Dr. Pamela Highfill of Dallas, Texas led the workshop sessions dealing with forgiveness. She received a marvelous response from participants. The climax of the event was a concert by Ms. Paula Kinney, Christian artist from Nashville, Tennessee. Ms. Kinney wowed the participants with some of the finest contemporary Christian music today.

Participants numbered 55 and represented 15 churches in the PMBA. It is the council's primary desire to attract more singles to these associational events. With the leadership of the council and the assistance of all 84 PMBA churches, we hope to do just that.

TIM WILKINS, Director

Sunday School Council/ASSISTeam

The five-year "Breakthrough" theme was continued in 1992 with the specific focus of "Teach the Bible to Win." Strengthened teaching has been the thrust of our work with PMBA Sunday Schools. Pilot Mountain has maintained itself as a "Standard Association" again this past year.

We conducted the following events in support of our churches:

1. Fall Training Clinic - October 28, 1991
2. Literature Clinic - October 7, 1991
3. Sunday School Rally - November 7, 1991
4. Vacation Bible School Training Clinic - May 9, 1992
5. Provided personal consultation/direct assistance to more than 25 churches.

Our ASSISTeam also participated in the following training events:

1. Personal Consultation Workshop in January
2. ASSIST Institute in February
3. Annual Planning Retreat in May
4. Key Leadership in May
5. Sunday School Week at Ridgecrest

Our goals for the coming year are:

1. Continue as a standard association
2. Learn new Formations curriculum lines to broaden our resourcing
3. Concentrate on developing personal consultation process with churches
4. Participate in the spring and fall Training Extravaganzas for our training clinics
5. Encourage and work to increase Sunday School enrollment and attendance.

Woman's Missionary Union

"Called and Accountable" was the theme for this year. Every follower of Christ is called. We are accountable for the assignments He gives. Your WMU Council was called and we had various and unique assignments to carry out during the year.

WMU plays a supporting role in the call of God to women, girls, and preschoolers. Missions organizations build a climate for God's call.

WMU Leadership Conference was September 9, 1991 at College Park with 138 attending from 39 churches.

Baptist Women's Day of Prayer - "Together in Christ, We Love" - was November 4th in two worship sessions at Rural Hall First with an attendance of 157 from 31 churches and an offering of $403 going to world wide ministries of the Baptist World Alliance.

A Baptist Young Women Spiritual Growth Fellowship was held at the PMBA Resource Center on February 6 with 32 attending from 12 churches. Six parables were used to lead BYWs in becoming more involved in missions.

Baptist Women and Baptist Young Women's annual Salad Supper Fellowship was held March 17 at Kernersville First with 304 in attendance representing 39 churches. The theme, ''Called and Accountable, was used. As we hear God's call and become sensitive, as we witness, and minister, we are a catalyst to help church members act on the leadership of the Holy Spirit in fulfilling the Great Commission.

The WMU Annual Meeting was April 13 at Robin Hood Road with 126 attending from 31 churches. Milllicent Monk, WMU Director of Greater Detroit Baptist Association, was guest speaker.

Acteens Mission ''Launch'' was held on April 20 with 11 people attending representing 4 churches. The purpose was to introduce and interpret new StudiAct materials for Acteens and their leaders.

Girls in Action Mother/Daughter event was held at Joanie Moser Memorial Park on May 16 with 26 attending from 6 churches. Speakers were Clara Brincefield, missionary to Chile, and Mary Martha Dobbs, who has a ministry in Florida. The theme was ''My place in God's World.''

Mission Action is Love in Action to reach out and touch those around us in need. You contributed over 200 health care kits to prison inmates for the Christmas Party we gave for them. Birthday parties are held every month at Goodwill Industries.

All WMU Council members attended WMU week at Ridgecrest or training at Caraway. Each church in our association was contacted by council members several times during the year and many training sessions for individual congregations were held when requested.

JOYCE LOVE, Director

Youth Ministries Council

The Youth Ministries Council met monthly during the associational year. Because of turnovers in the council, it has been hard to keep things consistent. We planned and carried out three events this past year. Two went far beyond our expectations; one did not.

The Fall Youth Retreat last November at Caraway was the best yet. John McGinnis from Charlotte and SALT, a contemporary music group from Greensboro, led the retreat. We know of 15 decisions that were made. The Youth Rally held at Becks this past March was attended by approximately 300 people representing 24 churches. Due to the hectic schedules during the summer months, the summer youth rally was poorly attended. We did have six churches represented.

In the events provided by the council last year for young people of our churches, we have sought to enhance the fellowship, reach people, and develop believers. We are currently involved in planning the 1992 Fall Youth Retreat scheduled November 13 and 14 at Merriwood Christian Camp.

SANDY STILES, Director

Administrative Committee

The Administrative Committee met quarterly to perform the administrative and executive functions for the association. The primary responsibility of the committee is to establish the agenda for the Executive Board, take action within the framework of the association and Executive Board, and to recommend all replacements to the Nominating Committee.

Relating to the recommendation for members to the Nominating Committee, an attempt was made to have representation from all our geographic areas as well as to include members from as many congregations as possible. In securing members for this committee we made a special effort to emphasize up front the importance of this group and the necessary commitment to the task required. The committee commends the hard work of the Nominating Committee and is grateful for the many hours spent in securing the outstanding leadership of our association.

Since our committee is made up of the chairpersons from all other committees, our deliberations have touched on all areas of associational work. Space will only allow for mention of a few important topics of interest during the year.

(1) Planning and looking forward to the new staff position of Congregational Development Director. This is significant, not because it is a new staff position, but because it represents new and added ability to serve our churches in carrying out "The Great Commission."

(2) While we are pleased with the fine financial support from our churches, we all need to be sensitive to the fact that inherent with offering greater services are the additional costs involved. We must all take our associational financial responsibilities seriously.

(3) We look forward with great anticipation to the Greater Detroit Baptist Association/PMBA Partnership. We believe the work of our Lord in both associations will be enhanced.

C. IRVIN GRIGG, Chairperson

Audit Committee

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association's 1991 Audit has been completed by Gray, Callison and Company, P.A., Certified Public Accountants. The Audit Report was presented to the Audit Committee by Timothy L. Jefferies, CPA, on August 19, 1992. The Audit Committee was responsible for securing this outside audit for the association and feels that we received a favorable report and commend the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association staff for their performance.

The full Audit Report, which has an unqualified opinion, is available for inspection at the association office. The Management Letter, which was prepared to strengthen internal controls and operating efficiency, follows.

The committee recommends that an outside audit be made annually.

Members:

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc., for the year ended December 31, 1991, we considered the Association's internal control structure to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

During our audit we became aware of a matter that is an opportunity for strengthening internal control and operating efficiency. The memorandum that accompanies this letter summarizes our comments and suggestions regarding this matter. This letter does not affect our report dated June 15, 1992, on the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.

We will review the status of these comments during our next audit engagement. We have already discussed many of these comments and suggestions with various staff personnel. We will be pleased to discuss them in further detail at your convenience, to perform any additional study of these matters, or to assist in implementing the recommendations.

Very truly yours,
GRAY, CALLISON & CO., P.A.
Timothy L. Jefferies

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.
Management Letter Memorandum

1. TRANSFERS BETWEEN FUNDS:

During our audit, we noted that funds which were designated for primarily New Work Projects, such as North Winston Baptist Church, were transferred from the Designated Fund to the Operating Fund as income, and the related disbursement to the Church was recorded as an expense in the Operating Fund. The Designated Fund reflected an expense for the transfer. The effect of this accounting treatment was to overstate income and expense equally in the General Fund by approximately $21,072. There was no effect on the General Fund balance.

In order to avoid the distortion of designated and general fund activity, we recommend that designated receipts and payments be reported only in the Designated Fund.

Furthermore, we noted that $2,000 was transferred between the General Fund and the Designated Fund for capital improvements. The transfer was recorded in the Designated Fund as revenue and as an expense in the General Fund. Generally accepted accounting principles require that transfers between funds be recorded as changes in fund balances, not income and expense.

We recommend that transfers of funds be recorded in the fund balance accounts in order to maintain an accounting for transfers and to avoid overstating or understating revenues and expenses.

Credentials Committee

The Credentials Committee held only one official meeting during the past associational year. However, there were other one-on-one conferences pertaining to the work of this committee.

There were three items upon which we focused our attention:

(1) The informal request of a church within the boundaries of the PMBA for consideration of being received under watchcare. No formal request has yet been received. We shall continue communications with the leadership of this particular congregation.

(2) The matter of procedures, or lack of, for the dismissal or disaffiliation of churches from the association. It was noted that the thrust of the Credential Committee's work should be that of inclusion rather than exclusion. Recognizing that cases could arise in the future when exclusion may become necessary, it was also noted that there is no provision for such action. It was agreed that there should be a statement drafted regarding the committee's duties/responsibilities in such cases. This statement would then be presented for inclusion in the Bylaws of the association as a part of the Credentials Committee's duties. We hope to complete this during the coming year.

(3) The presentation of North Winston Baptist Church for full membership in the PMBA was the third item our committee considered. After reviewing the history of this church, the committee unanimously approved the following motion:

> The Credentials Committee recommends that North Winston Baptist Church be received into full membership of the association because we are convinced that its faith, polity and practice are in harmony with the purposes of the association; and this church has been under the watchcare of the association for the one year required by our constitution and has reiterated its desire to be affiliated with us.

This motion will be presented for approval to the PMBA in its annual meeting, October 27, 1992.

Personnel Committee

The Personnel Committee continues to be grateful for the privilege of working with such a committed staff as serves the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. We met our regularly scheduled six meetings plus extra meetings as we sought to fulfill our responsibilities

Throughout the year we gave attention to the ministry of the association through ou staff as we shared in evaluations, administrative issues, and budget requests. The sense of mission, openness to suggestion, and awareness of belonging on a team shown by the staff is a source of joy and thanksgiving to us.

The year did bring concern as our Director of Missions suffered a mild heart attack. We thank God that he is recovering well. Throughout the experience he shared very openly with the committee as together we sought to work for his good and the good of the association. It was rewarding to see the association continue to function well as staff assumed leadership and the committees and councils of the association continued their work. It was a testimony to the broad ownership of responsibility Jim Hamblen has taught us to share.

Our Communications Secretary, Sally Hicks, resigned this year as she followed her husband in a new ministry in Kentucky. We were blessed with the coming of Karen Taylor to assume the responsibilities of Communications Secretary. Karen brings excellent skills to the task and has served previously on a church staff.

During the year the committee became a search committee for a new staff person when the Executive Board approved the job description and financial support for a Congregational Development Director to be added to the staff. It is hoped that a candidate will soon be ready to present to the association for a call.

CHARLES EDWARDS, Chairman

Properties Committee

Through October, 1992 the Properties Committee has held three called meetings to discuss, attend to, and make recommendations for some of the needs of the Resource Center.

In the March meeting the committee authorized Sandra Hall to spend up to $500 for general and property maintenance without Property Committee approval; to obtain bids for vinyl siding on the gables and dormers; to have three white pines planted in buffer area as required by City Ordinance; to get information from City regarding parking lot; to get bids for grading, paving, and curbing of additional parking; and also get prices for cleaning services.

In the May meeting we reviewed the bids for the vinyl siding and parking lot. The committee decided to delay the vinyl siding project at this time and proceed with the work on the parking lot. A two-phase undertaking on the parking lot was first considered:

clearing, grading and applying crushed stone as the first phase and paving/curbing done at a later time. The committee decided to recommend that we complete the parking lot in one project. This was approved and the following bids were let: David Cecil - grading and clearing lot ($800); Carter & Kirk Paving Company - stone base, asphalt paving, curbing and striping parking space ($5,296). These contracts have been executed and the parking lot is ready for use. The seeding of the perimeter is also completed. The committee approved the purchase of a paper stacking table.

In the October meeting the committee voted to execute a contract to put vinyl siding on the gables and dormers since the money is already approved in the budget. The contractor hopes to begin this work the first part of November.

The committee will continue working to meet the needs of our Center and will make recommendations to achieve their fulfillment. We express gratitude to all persons who contributed in any way to the things we were able to accomplish this past year.

D. J. REDDING, Chairman

Strategy Planning Committee

The Strategy Planning Committee met monthly during the 1991-92 year. The members were very faithful.

During the year, the role of the committee continued to be discussed. The evolving responsibilities of the committee caused the members to discuss the need to change the name and focus of the committee from Strategy Planning Committee to Strategy Committee. The Strategy Committee, like all other committees, focuses on the staff, organizational, and administrative needs and responsibilities of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. (Councils focus outward toward the local congregations.) The role of the Strategy Committee is to serve as an extension of the paid professional staff and Coordinating Council. The committee is charged with developing strategies for the association and for recommending them to the Coordinating Council.

The committee facilitates the meeting of the Coordinating Council by assisting the paid staff prepare the format and the substance of the agenda. Members of the Strategy Committee serve as conveners of the ''small groups'' portion of the meeting of the Coordinating Council. Also, the committee assisted in the Annual Planning Retreat of the Coordinating Council held in June.

Another major contribution the committee made during 1992 was providing leadership during the pre-planning phase of the three-year partnership between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Greater Detroit Baptist Association. The Strategy Committee provided the leadership in forming a Mission Focus Team to coordinate the partnership relationship between the local churches of the two associations. The Mission Focus Team was formally chartered in August 1992. The Team is very healthy spiritually and its leadership is excited and dedicated to the Mission of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association; i.e., assisting the local congregations to be on mission both individually and collectively.

The Strategy Committee is in the early stages of developing a PMBA Vision 2000 Strategy Plan which will be recommended to the Association-in-Session in October 1994. The Plan will provide direction for the Association in the final years of this century and prepare us to enter the 21st century.

Fellowship Conferences

Christian Educators Conference

This conference is designed to give anyone who has education responsibilities in their church a time to get together and give support to one another. We meet on the third Wednesday of each month, at 11:30 AM, for lunch. Our meetings are held in area restaurants.

This past year we had a person from the Step One programs come and tell us about the substance abuse services they provide. This past May we invited Jo Ann Stancil of Raleigh to come and share with our group some information about church growth.

Next year our conference will be inviting Bob Dale, Baptist General Association of Virginia, to lead us and other interested persons in a Success Style Profile Workshop. This workshop will be held on March 19, 1993.

SCOTT POND, President

Church Secretaries Conference

The PMBA Church Secretaries Conference strives to promote fellowship and encouragement to each secretary in the association. Interesting programs are provided to entertain and to keep the secretaries abreast of current trends and needs that affect the church staff.

The PMBA Church Secretaries Conference meets bi-monthly at noon on the second or third Thursday of the month. A luncheon and program are provided for those who attend at a nominal cost of $3.00 per person. Membership is open to secretaries and other staff members of Baptist churches, agencies and institutions in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, and other religious organizations in our area, whether full time, part time, or volunteer.

During the past year our programs have included the following:

November, 1991	PRACTICAL CHRISTIAN LIVING presented by Nancy Epperson. Calvary Baptist Church hosted this meeting.
January, 1992	CHANGES IN LAWS THAT AFFECT WOMEN presented by Marian Ackerman. Pfafftown Baptist Church hosted this meeting.
March, 1992	ESTATE PLANNING, POWER OF ATTORNEY, LIVING WILLS presented by Marc Moxley. Oaklawn Baptist Church hosted this meeting.
May, 1992	SUMMER SKIN CARE presented by Anca Safta of Dillard's. Hosted by Knollwood Baptist Church.
July, 1992	FLOWER ARRANGING presented by Betty Huff of Old Town Baptist Church. Hosted by Wake Forest Baptist Church.
September, 1992	DEALING WITH DIFFICULT PEOPLE IN DIFFICULT SITUATIONS Presented by Dr. Dewey Hobbs, director, Pastoral Care, NC Baptist Hospital. This meeting was hosted by secretaries at the Resource Center.

MARY ELLA BAREFOOT, President

Ministers Conference

The purpose of our Ministers Conference is to provide opportunities for fellowship among pastors, church staff members, retired ministers, and staff members from local Baptist institutions. This year we have sought to do this through:

- Monthly meetings
- Small support groups
- Sharing of personal testimonies (conversion, call, unique experiences in ministry, etc.)
- Worship opportunities
- Fellowship meals

We are blessed with a deep sense of respect, cooperation and love among the ministers in our association. In many respects, our PMBA Ministers Conference has been a positive witness to our community, state and convention. I am grateful to the churches and institutions that hosted our meetings this year and to all who served with me as Ministers Conference officers.

BILL GUTHRIE, President 1991-1992

Ministers of Music Conference

During the 1991-92 year the Ministers of Music Conference met monthly at various churches as well as at the associational office. These meetings, designed for fellowship and encouragement, was a wonderful source of help for all who were able to attend.

One event which proved to be truly delightful was the cookout which Mike and Penni Bradshaw so graciously hosted.

To all who have worked to make the 1991-92 conference an effective one, I wish to express my sincere gratitude.

CYRUS BUSH, President

Ministers' Wives

The Pilot Mountain Ministers' Wives had their opening Fall meeting September 21, 1991 at the home of Louise Noffsinger with Johnsie Liner as co-hostess. Six other meetings were held on the third Thursday of the month at 10:00 AM. The February meeting was the annual Valentine Banquet shared with husbands and was held at Knollwood Church.

Our programs are varied and are planned to achieve the purpose of our organization: "To promote fellowship among our members; to provide opportunities for friendship, learning and service; and to share, listen, and encourage one another."

Officers for 1992-93 are:

President	Martha Carr, Wake Forest
Vice-President	Velma McGee, College Park
Secretary/Treasurer/Historian	Johnsie Liner, Knollwood Ruth Lawrence, College Park
Devotional	Edna Myers, Wake Forest Georgie Kitchen, College Park
Program Coordinator	Louise Noffsinger, Knollwood
Decorations	Beverly Hamblen, Winston-Salem First Carolyn Wonders, Becks

MARTHA CARR, President 1991-1992

Ministers of Youth Conference

During 1992 the Youth Ministers Conference continued its efforts to give support and fellowship for the youth ministers and workers of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. At the monthly breakfast meetings, a forum is provided to share concerns of both personal and professional levels in an open, understanding, and confidential atmosphere.

For the Spring of 1993, a Youth Workers Clinic is being planned to provide information and training in an enjoyable and informative manner for associational churches.

Hopefully, the 1992-93 year will continue to provide fellowship opportunities, training, and support for the youth ministry coordinators in our association.

PHILIP WAGONER, President

PMBA MINISTERS CONFERENCES

Other Reports

Executive Board

It has been my privilege this year as moderator to serve as chairman of the Executive Board. I have enjoyed the beautiful spirit of cooperation and fellowship as we met quarterly to conduct the business of PMBA. Special emphasis was made to encourage the members to come at 7:00 p.m. for a fellowship time. The December meeting was a Christmas fellowship with music and hot cider and Moravian cookies. The March fellowship was a celebration of Jim Hamblen's birthday. We have so few opportunities to "enhance our fellowship" throughout the year that I appreciate the extra effort of folks coming for this time just prior to Executive Board meetings.

I would like to say a word of appreciation to Richard Groves for his presence and advice, as chairman of the Constitution Committee, in parliamentary matters.

Listed below are the actions taken at each meeting as well as the number of people attending and congregations represented:

December 17, 1991

40 people in attendance representing 28 congregations

- Elected Lynwood Shelton (1993), Bill Simmons (1994), and Thelma Vogler (1994) to serve onNominating Committee.
- Approved Finance Committee's request to move association's general checking account from Wachovia Bank to Centura Bank.
- Authorized Strategy Planning Committee to spend up to $2,500 from Designated Missions Development funds for mileage, lodging, and meals expense for PMBA leaders to go on a survey/planning trip to Greater Detroit Baptist Association January 10-14, 1992.
- Approved Evangelism Council's request to raise funds among PMBA congregations to help with costof airline tickets to bring a group from Sao Paulo, Brazil to our association.
- Approved Estimate of 1992 Housing Expenses for Jim Hamblen and Mike Bradshaw.

March 31, 1992

46 people attending representing 29 congregations

- Elected Fran Bovender as Nominating Committee chairperson 1992-93.
- Granted Finance Committee advance permission to negotiate new loan on Resource Center if it will benefit the association financially.
- Elected one council director, three council members, and four committee members to begin servingimmediately.
- Approved format for Spring Meeting program.
- Voted to allow Personnel Committee to bring to June 30 Executive Board both job description and recommended financial package for Congregational Development Director.

June 30, 1992

46 people attending representing 29 congregations

- Approved job description for Congregational Development Director.
- Authorized Personnel Committee to pursue finding Congregational Development Director with financial support of $43,090.
- Elected Stanley Howard to Ordination Council and R. L. Stanley to Senior Adult Ministries Council.

September 22, 1992

48 people attending representing 29 congregations

- Approved recommending at Annual Meeting that association call John E. Saunders, Jr. as Congregational Development Director.
- Approved program from Order of Business Committee for Annual Meeting October 27.
- Elected three program directors and ten council members, plus members of Mission FOCUS Team.
- Changed ending date of Detroit Partnership from September 30, 1994 to September 30, 1995.
- Approved recommending proposed budget for 1993 to Annual Meeting.
- Approved amended letter from Evangelism Council to be sent to pastors regarding area wide crusade in 1994.
- Accepted 1991 Audit report into the records.
- Voted to continue annual outside audit and that Gray, Callison & Co. be retained for 1992 audit.
- Elected John Davis (1994) and Mary Ruth Parrish (1995) to serve on Nominating Committee.
- Commended Peggy Conrad for good work done as moderator and chairperson of Executive Board.

PEGGY CONRAD, Moderator and
Chairperson, Executive Board

Executive Director

As I reflect on the past year, it appears that 1992 may be the most life-changing period in the lives of many of us. The following are but a few events which have impacted the present and which may influence our future for years to come.

1. The leadership of the Personnel Committee in the calling process of the Congregational Development Director for PMBA. The step-by-step process, the processing of over thirty potential candidates, and the broad sense of ownership of the decision prove the quality of our elected leadership.
2. The emergence of the Mission FOCUS Team which coordinates the partnership with the Greater Detroit Baptist Association. We have grown in our understanding and participation in mission partnerships through the years. If these opportunities continue, a Mission Partnership Council may be helpful.
3. The climax and celebration of the partnership with Pinheiros Association in Sao Paulo, Brazil. Our partners from the south were a blessing to all who met with them.
4. The Church Growth Council has led us in two significant areas:
   a. The balance between "new work" ...and...
   b. Assisting existing congregations in their own needs for growth and development.
5. Most significant to me, personally, was the support of the best associational staff I have everseen. Due to two heart attacks, the association discovered the real value of quality personnel.
   - MIKE BRADSHAW, Ministries Development Director, served so well in my absence during the weeks of my recovery.
   - PEGGY HALL, Administrative Assistant, stepped into the situation and performed above any normal expectations. Her contributions to PMBA over the past nineteen years are beyond any expression of appreciation.
   - SANDRA HALL, Financial Secretary, continues to expand her ministry through the responsibilities of finances, facilities, and other functions with Literacy Ministries and Seminary Extension.
   - KAREN TAYLOR, Communications Secretary, came to serve with us in January. Since her coming, she has added to our abilities to assist congregations, conferences, councils, committees and others to accomplish our common goals. Please welcome her to our family.

In summary, 1992 has been significant to all of us for different reasons. What are those memorable events in your experience that have marked your year?

JIM HAMBLEN, Executive Director

Historian

ARDMORE BAPTIST CHURCH
A Brief History Sketch

The need for a church in the Ardmore Road (now Hawthorne Road) area was apparent as early as 1928. Baptist Hospital had opened in 1923, and by 1928 twenty-eight doctors lived in the new development called Ardmore in Winston-Salem, NC. A census was taken, and over one hundred individuals indicated an interest in joining a neighborhood church. One other reason for a new church was the personal conflict between pastor P.C. James and the Baptist Council of Winston-Salem. Tabernacle, as the newly-formed church was called, was not allowed membership in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. When Reverend James resigned as president of the Baptist Council of Winston-Salem, Dr. J. R. Jester assisted in the constitution of the church on February 13, 1930 with thirty-six charter members.

The church was admitted to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in 1929 as Tabernacle Baptist Church. On April 6, 1938 the church voted to change its name to Ardmore. It has continued its membership in the association to the present and has made many valuable contributions to the work of the association.

Pastors who have served this congregation include C. F. Rogers, 1929-1935; J. Ned Taylor, 1935-1941; Marshall L. Mott, 1941-1946; William Eugene Pettit, 1947-1959; William Henry Crouch, 1959-1968; Harold A. Shirley, 1969-1977; J. L. Wilson, 1978-present.

JOHN R. WOODARD, Assistant Clerk/Historian

Honors Clerks

It is a privilege to recognize church clerks who achieved HONORS CLERK this year. These 16 clerks or church secretaries met the following requirements:

1. Attend the associational Clerks Conference in August
2. Have their church's Uniform Church Letter in to the PMBA office by the deadline
3. Turn in a neat and legible Uniform Church Letter.

Associational staff and leaders commend these hard working, dedicated people and we know the congregations they serve are very proud of them. Congratulations to:

Dedication

In the past we have dedicated the PMBA Annual to some leader who had died during the year. This year we chose to expand this honor by recognizing one who has given much to GOD's Kingdom Work in this area. It is our privilege to dedicate the 1993 Annual to Irvin Grigg.

James V. Hamble

C. IRVIN GRIGG, SR.

Christian, churchman, ethicist, businessman, concerned citizen. These characterizations summarize the life and service of Irvin Grigg to his Lord and his church.

Irvin often declares, "I don't really know where I'm from—my father is a Baptis minister." By the time high school graduation came around in 1949, his family was living in Winston-Salem. He began his service with Pilot Mountain Baptist Association during the summers while a student at Wake Forest working with the youth in the association He was also active with the Christian Service Fellowship during those years.

In his local church, First Baptist of Kernersville, Irvin is a deacon and has served o the Finance Committee, Budget Committee, and Child Development Center Committee In 1981-82 he provided leadership as Business Manager to Main Street Baptist Church in Kernersville to avert the bank's foreclosure on their property.

Irvin's dedicated service to PMBA through the years has been invaluable in the area of finance. He also served as Clerk for a number of years. He is the immediate pas Moderator and Chairman of the Executive Board.

To the larger Baptist family, Irvin has served on the Board of Trustees of North Carolina Baptist Hospital beginning in 1978 and the Board of Directors of Bowman Gray/Baptist Hospital Medical Center beginning in 1979. He was honored in 1991 by the Baptis State Convention of North Carolina as the recipient of the Annual Church Growth Award

In the extended Christian community, Irvin is currently serving on the Board of Directors of East Forsyth Citizens for Human Services and the Shepherd's Center of Kernersville, Inc. He has previously served on the Board of Directors of CONTACT o Winston-Salem.

Irvin has shared his life in the community on the Board of Directors of Kernersvill Chamber of Commerce and President in 1976. He was honored in 1985 with the Chamber's most prestigious award, the Community Service Award. He has also served on th Kernersville YMCA Board of Directors.

We honor Irvin as one among us who continues to be interested in and concerned fo God's work locally and to the "uttermost part of the earth."

Constitution

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this body shall be the ''Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Incorporated'' according to the laws and statutes of the State of North Carolina, and is hereinafter referred to as the Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

A. Purpose

The purpose of the Association is to glorify GOD by assisting congregations to be in fellowship and to fulfill their mission, individually and together.

B. Objectives

The objectives of the Association shall be:

1. To assist the congregations to ENHANCE THE FELLOWSHIP; (Help congregations relate to each other in a growing and mutually supportive fellowship within the family of believers in Christ)
2. To assist the congregations to REACH PEOPLE; (Help congregations accelerate their efforts to share the gospel with all people and to develop New Testament churches)
3. To assist the congregations to DEVELOP BELIEVERS; (Help congregations emphasize the biblical imperative to equip the saints by developing believers in prayer, discipleship, and stewardship and by calling out the called)
4. To assist the congregations to STRENGTHEN MISSIONS; (Help congregations fulfill the biblical mandate to go into all the world by strengthening their missions education, enlarging missions involvement, and increasing missions giving)
5. To assist the congregations to IMPROVE THE ORGANIZATION; (Help congregations determine the direction and participate in the life of the Association).

ARTICLE III. AUTHORITY

While the Association is autonomous under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, it claims no authority over any other Baptist body.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP

A. Composition

The Association shall be composed of Baptist churches which in their faith, polity and practice are in harmony with the purpose of the Association, and are actively participating in the support and work of the Association.

B. Affiliation

Any constituted Baptist church may be received under the watchcare of the Association for one year, after which it may be received by vote of the Association into this fellowship of churches, upon recommendation of the Credentials Committee to confirm evidence that the church is committed to harmonious and active involvement in the purpose and work of the Association.

C. Messengers

Messengers from the member churches shall constitute the session of the Association. Messengers shall be elected by the churches they represent. The pastors of member churches will be recognized as messengers; further, the number of messengers from each church, in addition to the pastor, shall be determined as follows:

> Three (3) messengers from each church for the first one hundred (100) members or fraction thereof, and one (1) messenger for each additional one hundred (100) members or major fraction thereof, up to a total of ten (10) messengers.

Such messengers shall be duly certified in the annual letter sent by the church to the Association.

The courtesies of the floor (report, discussion or debate) may be extended to non-messengers at the discretion of the body.

D. Withdrawal and Dismissal

1. A member church may withdraw from the Association by writing an official letter to that effect to the Credentials Committee. If, after consultation with the Credentials Committee, the member church maintains its desire to withdraw, the request for withdrawal will be referred to the Executive Board. The Executive Board shall recommend to the Association in session that the request be granted.
2. A member church may be dismissed from the Association if its faith, polity, or practice are not in harmony with the purpose of the Association, or if it fails to send a Uniform Church Letter and/or messengers for three (3) consecutive years. In such case, the Credentials Committee shall make every effort to resolve the problem; but if that is not possible, it will recommend dismissal of the Church to the Executive Board, which will, in turn, submit the matter for final action to the Association in session. A two-thirds majority vote of the Association in session shall be required for this action.

5. To develop an effective communications plan with various groups in the area.

D. Constitution Committee

The committee monitors the administration and the organization of the Association in the light of the Constitution, By-Laws, Policies and Procedures (PMBA Operations Manual) adopted by the Association. Its duties are:

1. To receive and consider changes/revisions to these documents as recommended by others;
2. To evaluate the primary documents (listed above) and recommend changes/ revisions as needed;
3. To serve as advisor to the Association in session and the Executive Board on matters regarding parliamentary procedure.

E. Credentials Committee

The committee assists the Association in determining when the churches are of like faith and order and can be properly accepted into the fellowship of the Association. It should work in close cooperation with the Church Growth Council and the primary officers of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To recommend and implement approved guidelines for receiving churches into the Association;
2. To counsel with churches seeking admission into the fellowship of the Association;
3. To examine the credentials of churches seeking admission into the fellowship of the Association.

F. Finance Committee

The committee assists the Association in securing, administering and reporting finances. Its duties are:

1. To develop and recommend the annual budget at the fall meeting of the Association;
2. To conduct studies and make recommendations concerning proposed expenditures not included in the annual budget of the Association;
3. To review expenditures periodically and recommend adjustments to the annual budget if needed;
4. To develop and recommend financial policies and procedures of the Association.

G. Nominating Committee

The committee leads in coordinating the selection of all elected leaders of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To select, interview, enlist and recommend general officers, program organization leaders, and committee personnel of the Association, entrusting to the Administrative Committee the recommendation of all replacements to the Nominating Committee; (NOTE: These leaders then become a part of the committee.)
2. To coordinate the selection of workers for all the organizations, councils, and committees of the Association;
3. To distribute leadership personnel according to the priority needs of the Association;
4. To assist program organization leaders in discovering and enlisting qualified persons to fill positions in their respective organizations;
5. To present workers to the Association in session for election;
6. To assist the Moderator in the appointment of special committees or workgroups as requested.

H. Order of Business Committee

The committee assists the Association in planning and conducting the regular and called meetings of the Association in session. Its duties are:

1. To propose to the Executive Board an order of business for the Association in session;
2. To enlist the program personnel for all meetings of the Association in session;
3. To publicize the proposed order of business for all meetings of the Association in session to the churches and at least thirty (30) days in advance of such meetings;
4. To arrange for all facilities needed for the Association in session in cooperation with the Moderator and other program personnel;
5. To arrange for and conduct proper registration of messengers and visitors to the Association in session and to report registration at such meetings as requested;
6. To assure that during the Association in session an appropriate recognition is given to those who have died;
7. To receive, consider and present (as appropriate) all resolutions to the Association in session;
8. To receive invitations from churches and suggestions for program emphases and personnel for future meetings of the Association in session;
9. To propose at each session the meeting place(s) and speaker(s) for the next Association in session.

I. Personnel Committee

The committee assists the Association in supervising all paid and volunteer staff of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To recommend policies and procedures for the selection, supervision, and termination of all staff personnel of the Association;
2. To prepare and maintain an organizational manual (as a part of the Operations Manual) relating to the personnel (professional, support and volunteer) of the Association;
3. To recruit, interview and recommend to the Association all new staff personnel in full cooperation with the appropriate supervisor;
4. To develop and recommend salaries and benefits for all employed personnel;
5. To develop and recommend to the Association all policies and procedures for paid and volunteer staff of the Association;
6. To develop and recommend policies and procedures regarding continuing education and development for paid staff of the Association.

J. Properties Committee

The committee maintains all properties owned by the Association. Its duties are:

1. To inspect and keep inventory of associational properties;
2. To make recommendations to the Personnel Committee regarding the employment, training, and supervision of maintenance personnel;
3. To develop and initiate scheduled cleaning procedures;
4. To develop and recommend a program of preventive maintenance;
5. To develop and recommend policies and procedures for using facilities and equipment;
6. To request and administer maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget;
7. To develop and recommend an adequate insurance plan.

K. Strategy Planning Committee

The committee assists the Association in determining its strategic objectives and staying on course in achieving them. Its duties are:

1. To monitor the needs and opportunities of the churches;
2. To provide updated information to the churches and to the programs of the Association;
3. To recommend annual planning guidelines for the Association;
4. To review and make recommendations regarding the coordinated plan in reference to planning guidelines for the Association;
5. To recommend modifications in the organizational structure of the Association in order to help fulfill the purpose and objectives of the Association;
6. To lead the Association to conduct strategic planning about every five (5) years.

A. Executive Staff

All executive staff members should retain the ''three-dimensional model'' of minister, strategist and leader with different emphases among the dimensions as the particular area of work demands. All employed staff will be accountable, through the Executive Director and the Personnel Committee, to the Executive Board and the Association in session. Job descriptions of all staff members are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

B. Support Staff

The support staff is primarily clerical and serves the executive staff, the general officers, program organization councils, and committees of the Association. Job descriptions are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

C. Volunteer Staff

Since the work of the Association exceeds the ability or propriety of employing sufficient persons to accomplish all the tasks of the Association, volunteers will be enlisted, trained and utilized wherever feasible. Appropriate expressions of gratitude and recognition for such workers are the responsibility of the executive staff of the Association.

IX. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The policies and procedures of the Association and the specific organizational units thereof hall be proposed by those specific units affected. These policies and procedures shall e considered by the Constitution Committee and approved by the Executive Board or he Association in session. These policies and procedures shall become the PMBA Operaions Manual.

X. REVISIONS

The By-Laws may be revised by the Association in session by a simple majority vote f the messengers present and voting. Any changes not recommended by the Constitution ommittee must first be referred to them for study and consideration. Proposed changes nust be mailed to Executive Board members of the member churches at least thirty (30) lays in advance of the meeting of the Association in which action on the change is proposed.

CHARGE

John, your call to the gospel ministry and response to the leadership of the Holy Spirit has led you to your ministry among us as a leader in congregational development. I Peter 3:10 tells us that as each has received a gift, it should be employed for one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace. We in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association affirm your gifts and have called you to an important position of leadership and service among us. Your duties include being an enabling minister to our congregations and congregational leaders as together we face the challenge of fulfilling our purpose as God's people. You will also serve as a mission strategist in the area of church programs and church growth and provide staff leadership to those councils of our association dealing with congregational development.

As you accept these responsibilities I trust you will begin with a prayer for guidance, and with a commitment to Christ who will provide the motivation and power to fulfill the opportunities in such a manner that His work will be enlarged by your ministry.

COVENANT OF INSTALLATION

Leader: John, do you accept this calling with its responsibilities in the larger context of your calling to serve the Lord?

Candidate: I accept the responsibilities to which I have been called and will seek to use the gifts which God has given me for His glory and ministry to those whom I serve.

Leader: Brothers and Sisters in Christ, we are gathered in the presence of God to dedicate this one who has been chosen to serve in a ministry among our congregations. As he gives himself to his work among us, so we must give ourselves to his support and encouragement, sharing with him the consecration which is from God that together we might be able to fulfill our calling with faithfulness and to the glory of God.

People: We give ourselves to the Spirit of God that, by His grace, we may fulfill the calling to which He has called us. We will support this one whom we have called to provide leadership for our Association, and to the best of our ability see that he has both the tools and the help that we may fulfill our tasks as an Association.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

RESPONSE .... John E. Saunders, Jr.

Proceedings

1993 Spring Session

of the

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

PETERS CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH
Lawsonville, North Carolina
April 25, 1993

THEME: "The Family of GOD"

1. The Spring Session of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held at Peters Creek Baptist Church, Lawsonville, NC on Sunday afternoon, April 25, 1993, with 190 people registered from 36 churches (78 messengers, officers and leaders, and 112 guests).

2. Following a prelude by Nora Watkins, organist, Moderator Irvin Grigg called the meeting to order at 3:00 p.m. He expressed appreciation to Peters Creek for inviting the association to meet with them for the Spring Session and for their faithfulness to the association.

3. Phil Carpenter, associate pastor and minister of music at Old Town, led in the congregational hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

4. Eugene Payne, pastor of the host church, welcomed everyone. He read from selected passages dealing with the theme, Family of God: Romans 8:16-17, Galatians 6:10, and Romans 12:13, 15. He commented that passages from both Old and New Testaments reveal we are part of a long heritage, the family of God, and that God directs us in carrying out our responsibilities as part of His family. Mr. Payne led in prayer.

5. A Men's Quartet from the host church sang "The Family of God."

6. Bill Adkerson, Communications Committee chairman, introduced "Missionary at Heart," a visual presentation whose purpose was to show how "this family of God—Pilot Mountain Association—pushes and pulls together to carry out the Great commission of our Lord." He said by pooling our resources, the extended family of God can do together what no single church can do alone. He recognized Committee Members Fred Flagler and Mike Apple, and Karen Taylor from the staff for their assistance with the preparation of the 1993 version of "Missionary at Heart," which was then shown.

7. Phil Carpenter led in singing "The Church's One Foundation."

8. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that those messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body of the Spring Session. Motion was approved by consensus.

9. Fran Bovender, chairperson, presented the report of the Nominating Committee of new officers and leaders for 1993-94 and moved that their recommendations be approved. Most will begin serving after the Annual Meeting in October. The motion carried unanimously. Officers for 1993-94 will be: Joyce Love, Moderator; Amis Daniel, Vice Moderator; Karen Taylor, Clerk; John Woodard, Assistant Clerk; Carl Christensen, Treasurer; and Bill Norris, Assistant Treasurer. (Complete list attached to original minutes)

10. Mike Bradshaw, ministries development director, gave an update on the executive director's condition. Mr. Hamblen underwent triple bypass surgery April 12th. Mr. Bradshaw presented Sandra Hall, who has served seven years this month as financial secretary of the association, with a certificate of completion in the Church Secretaries Personal Enrichment Program. This award was earned following many hours of study and passing a lengthy exam. Mr. Bradshaw also presented her with a gold pin for certified church/denomi-national secretaries. The moderator added his commendation to Mrs. Hall and said that all the staff is "very special."

11. Charlie Turner, Language Missions Council director, shared that their big project this year has been the Triad Hispanic Ministries. The association began financial support of the Hispanic work eleven years ago. The ministry was begun by Union Grove and is still under their sponsorship. The Mission recently purchased land on Union Cross Road between Highway 311 and new I-40 in anticipation of building a facility that will minister to Hispanics throughout the Triad. Almost the entire congregation was present at today's meeting.

Larry Doyle, pastor of the Hispanic congregation, expressed appreciation to Mr. Turner for his leadership of the Language Missions Council. Copies of their monthly newsletter, El Mensajero Bautista ("The Baptist Messenger"), were distributed. Anticipated ministries in the new facility will focus on education, pastoral care, and emergency care services. Ultimately they envision a regional ELD (ethnic leadership development) Center, offering college/seminary level training for Hispanic language pastors and other church leaders. He emphasized the need to offer help in the "heart language" of the people.

Mr. Doyle announced that this Spring Meeting is "Kick Off Sunday" for the ministry and fund raising drive. Goal is $100,000 for building materials with $20,000 already received. He introduced members of the congregation, who sang a hymn of rejoicing in Spanish under the direction of Carlos Cascante and with pianists Sam Triado and Andy Maldonaldo.

Mr. Turner said that a letter would be mailed soon from the Language Missions Council asking for assistance from sister churches for the Hispanic ministry. Help is needed in three areas: prayer, construction labor, and funds for building materials. Ground breaking is scheduled May 23rd at the new site. The moderator emphasized that this is an opportunity for hands on mission work and expressed hope that each individual and congregation would respond appropriately.

12. Mr. Grigg explained that Charles Edwards, Personnel Committee chairman, regretted that he could not be present because of a funeral. Mr. Grigg led in an installation service for PMBA's new congregational development director, John Saunders, Jr. He said that it is with a great deal of joy and satisfaction that we welcome Mr. Saunders, who meets the high standards already manifested in Jim Hamblen and Mike Bradshaw. Mr. Grigg introduced Mr. Saunders and his wife, Sally, and shared some of Mr. Saunders qualifications and experience, which have "ideally prepared him to serve as congregational development director." Mr. Grigg presented the charge, followed by a covenant of installation between Mr. Saunders and the people, and then led in a prayer of dedication.

In his response, Mr. Saunders thanked everyone for their affirmation to the call extended him last October. He expressed gratitude for all the welcomings and for the presence of the Hispanic Mission congregation. Remembering a short-lived television program about a lady lawyer, Rosie O'Neal, he quoted her as saying, "I am living my parents' dream for me. I need to dream again. I believe that people who don't dream die inside. It's time for me to dream." Mr. Saunders senses a great opportunity to create new dreams, new visions for our association, as individually and together we do what God has called us to do. He encouraged everyone to call on God to create a vision in us and through us.

He shared three "goose facts" and compared them to the work of the association. Geese flying in a "V" formation create a lift that helps increase the speed of all those following—as much as a 71 percent increase in flying range. People in churches who share a common direction get where they are going more quickly and easily because they go with others' lift—their thrust. When we are going together, we can get there more quickly and easily as we do what God would have us to do. We are traveling together and sense that we are part of God's family.

When a goose falls out of formation, he falls behind and it takes him longer to reach the destination. People in our associational churches need to stay in formation with those ahead, be willing to help each other by sharing resources, leadership, and facilities.

Geese flying in formation honk! This encourages those in front to keep up the speed. Honking from behind is for encouragement, not for something else. Together, we need to be encouragers of others in the PMBA family. He closed by saying that he hoped we would go forward stronger as we continue the journey together in the ministry of our Lord in Pilot Mountain Association.

13. Amis Daniel, member of the Administrative Committee, led in a celebration of debt retirement on the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center. He read excerpts from the loan papers and then burned a copy of the note of indebtedness. Mr. Daniel challenged everyone to participate in the offering, which will go toward maintenance of the building.

14. Mr. Daniel introduced Bill Yates, who was to bring the sermon. Mr. Yates, a graduate of Southeastern Seminary, is director of Church and Community Relations, NC Baptist Hospital. Mr. Daniel served on the search committee to find a new director for the hospital. When a lot of questions surfaced about the process, all members agreed that "somehow God would get in it and the cream would rise to the top." Although other candidates for the position may have been more experienced and older, the committee knew from God's leading that Bill Yates was the right person. Mr. Daniel said, "Today you have the opportunity to hear the cream of the crop."

15. Mr. Carpenter led in singing "Since I Have Been Redeemed."

16. Mike Bradshaw, ministries development director, led in an offertory prayer. An offering was received for maintenance on the Resource Center. (Clerk's note: $360.37 was received.)

17. The adult choir of Peters Creek, under the direction of Eldean Layman, sang "Brethren, We Have Met to Worship."

18. Bill Yates, speaking on the theme "Family of God," read I John 3:1-2, and 23 He shared an experience while a student at Southeastern Seminary concerning his firs pastorate. This church grew in spite of his "newness." In many ways, in words and actions, the people showed their care for him. He said, "Being a part of that congregation was my first in-depth experience with the family of God." By the time John wrote hi letters to the churches, discouragement was everywhere and conflict abounded due to false teachers. The Apostle had several goals in writing: To tell of the dangers of false teachers to speak of his faith in Christ and how Christ had met his needs, and to share severa tests of discipleship. John used "family language" throughout the passages in I John

Mr. Yates said the major sign of participation in the life of Christ is the commandmen given in John 13—the test of commitment, which is love. He shared an experience from his time in the sales marketing field with Exxon. During a sales retreat, they had to demonstrate their individual performance during the past year. The bottom line was "Did you sales marketing field make Exxon any money this year?" Mr. Yates said that Jesus had a bottom line—"Do you love the brothers and sisters?" He said he perceives that the concept Jesus talked about is diminishing significantly. The kind of love Jesus talked abou is a choice love—a love that openly declares that one could never say or do anything t harm, hurt, discredit another. He asked how one starts the reciprocity of love—givin and receiving. It cannot be conjured up; it is a gift love that God must place in our heart Mr. Yates said that whenever he goes to Hanes Mall, he is "invaded" by a marvelou aroma from the Cinnabon Store near the entrance he uses. Even if he doesn't purchase any of the cinnamon, he loves to stand, to stare, and to savor the smell. ''I have this dream,'' he said, ''that it would be so beautiful if this kind of irresistible love went forth from our lives into our churches, communities and our counties and in its own magnetic way would draw people into our congregations.'' Here they would realize that they are loved by a choice love. Mr. Yates said it can be a reality, but there are prerequisites on our part for it to happen: We must be honest, forgiving, understanding, and willing to face the inevitable pain that comes with loving this way.

Choice love is often a painful love that cannot be avoided. Most Christians, because of the fear of the pain, love ''about one quarter inch deep''—we are nice and cordial, but we are afraid. Mr. Yates said a greater pain than loving is that of not loving. Several years ago Mr. Yates heard Home Missionary Mildred McWhorter speak. Serving in the inner city of Houston, Texas, she touched everyone with her story about ''Anna,'' a six year old girl. Five times Anna came to a window and interrupted ''Missy McWert,'' who was trying to catch up on administrative duties and to meet some pressing deadlines. Anna said each time, ''Missy McWert, You sure are pretty.'' Miss McWhorter said she felt as if she would explode with frustration if Anna interrupted one more time. Anna did interrupt and, with tears rolling down her cheeks, said, ''Missy McWert, I just want somebody to love me.'' Remembering that Anna's father had abandoned her and that her mother was a prostitute who had no time for this little girl, Miss McWhorter pulled Anna through the window, held her on her lap, wiped away her tears, and just loved her. That night two of God's children went to bed with two very different and profound realizations in their heart. Miss McWhorter knew that loving is worth the cost regardless of what it may be because of the difference it makes in the other person's life and the difference it made in her own. Anna knew that when she was lonely, she could go to Christians and they would love her.

Mr. Yates concluded with a story told by Fred Craddock of an incident when he was mission pastor of a church in Appalachia. The event centered around a congregation's yearly outing and baptismal service at Easter on a lake. Everything was done according to long standing custom. Following the baptismal service, the new Christians were introduced, always by Glenn Hickey, who told where each one lived, worked, and one or two personal aspects. All the church members then formed a circle and each one told the newly baptized members their name, something they especially liked to do and offered this service to the new ones. Then they ate and fellowshipped. At the usual time, everyone left except Mr. Craddock and Percy Miller, who stayed to make sure the fire was out. Percy said, ''Craddock, people don't get any closer than this.'' Mr. Yates closed with the words, ''When people gather in that way, there is a name for it. They are called family—the family of God.''

19. Moderator Grigg expressed gratitude for a ''lot of cream'' in our association. Following a benediction by Joyce Love, vice moderator, the spring session was adjourned at 4:45 PM.

Proceedings

of the

108th Annual Session

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

SOUTH FORK BAPTIST CHURCH
Winston-Salem, NC
October 26, 1993

THEME: "Servanthood: Committed and Accountable"

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. The 108th Annual Meeting of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held October 26, 1993 at South Fork Baptist Church. Irvin Grigg, moderator and member of Kernersville First, convened the afternoon session at 3:01 PM.

2. Cyrus Bush, PMBA music director and minister of music at Becks, thanked Larry Keesler, organist at First Baptist, Mt. Airy, for serving as pianist during the afternoon session. Mr. Bush led in the singing of "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing."

3. Pastor Jerry Laughter, on behalf of the membership of South Fork, extended a cordial, warm welcome to their facilities. He expressed gratitude for the privilege of serving as chairman of the Order of Business Committee this past year and thanked members of the committee and Executive Director Jim Hamblen for their work in planning the program. Mr. Laughter announced that next year's Spring meeting will be held at First Baptist, King, and the Fall Meeting at Antioch. Macedonia will host the 1995 Spring Meeting and Oaklawn, the Fall Meeting. Mr. Laughter led in prayer.

4. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that those messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body of the 108th annual session. Boyce Wilson, Knollwood, seconded the motion and it was approved. (Clerk's note: There were 224 registered messengers, officers and leaders, and 82 visitors for a total of 306 in attendance representing 62 churches.)

5. Jim Hamblen, Executive Director, presented two study course awards. Sandra Hall, PMBA financial secretary and member of Calvary, received her Christian Developmen Diploma, representing over 100 hours of study. In absentia, Annette Horsley, a member of Parkway, received two Associational Leadership Diplomas—one in Sunday School and the other in Woman's Missionary Union.

Mr. Hamblen recognized Mrs. Bertha Sneed, Antioch, as one "who has a special place in our hearts." She has been present at 58 consecutive annual meetings. Mrs. Sneed thanked the Lord for her health and strength and said she hoped to attend the session to be held in her own church next year.

Mr. Hamblen recognized Reuban Gilliam, pastor of North Winston and president o the Baptist Ministers Conference of Winston-Salem, and Bruce Rabon, representing Gardner-Webb College. He announced that Ken Boaz, pastor of Fellowship, has been called as director of missions, Three Forks Association; and that Bill Guthrie, Crestwood will become pastor of Bannertown Church, Surry Association, November 1.

In addition to John Saunders, Jr., new congregational development director, the following new pastors (since last annual meeting) who were present were welcomed into the association: Craig Bowman, Pfafftown; Carl Childs, Olive Grove; Levy Goodrich Robinhood Road; Alan Hutchens, Mountain View; and Mike Willard, Main Street. Also welcomed were Alan Paschal, associate pastor of South Fork, and Sam Sorrells, Minister of Youth at Mount Olive. Mr. Hamblen recognized the following missionaries: Debra Norris, on furlough from Gaza; Victor Watts, retired from service in Bophuthatswana; and Luther and Mary Frances Morphis, recently returned from an assignment in Germany.

6. Mr. Hamblen introduced Jerry Potter, director of Deaf Ministries for the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and regional missionary. Mr. Potter recalled that the Baptist State Convention was originally formed for the support of our institutions. Through the years the focus has changed to missions. He announced a restructuring of the State Convention in the near future. Teams of people from the convention will be going to churches and asking how the convention can better help them in their task of fulfilling the Great Commission. He stressed that, to meet demands of changing times and to meet the challenge of diminishing funds, conventions and churches cannot continue doing things as they have in the past. He requested prayer as the State Convention goes through restructuring.

7. J. L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore, spoke on ''What I Have Seen and Experienced in PMBA.'' When he came to Winston-Salem in 1978 from Missouri, he found himself in a fellowship of warm and loving Baptists. He was impressed by the openness he encountered. However, the association was in trouble and experiencing difficult times. There was talk of starting a new association. During this time Mr. Wilson accepted the responsibility of serving on the Personnel Committee, which had to deal with tough staff situations. Ron Pinkerton served for two years as Director of Christian Social Ministries and then resigned. Jim McDowell served in the same position for only seven months amid ''heartaches and headaches.'' In 1982 the director of missions resigned. W. R. Grigg agreed to serve during the interim period. Mr. Wilson said, ''One of the things I have experienced in PMBA is W. R. Grigg, who has given a dimension of life to all who know him and gave us leadership at that troubled juncture in the life of the association.''

Mr. Wilson recalled his advice to Director of Missions Thurman Fox when Main Street Baptist Church was ''about to go under.'' He told Mr. Fox to ''back off; leave the situation alone.'' Mr. Fox did not listen to this ''sage'' advice but enlisted the services of Irvin Grigg, who worked with the church and ''salvaged it in a beautiful way.'' Mr. Wilson said he was grateful that Mr. Fox had the vision and determination to help Main Street become once again a strong and growing church.

''I have seen a rebirth of confidence in the leadership of the association,'' said Mr. Wilson. He was a ''champion'' of the Search Committee that brought Jim Hamblen to PMBA as executive director in 1983. Though he was ''overqualified,'' God had prepared him for this association. Mr. Wilson then saw the coming of additional staff: Mike Bradshaw and John Saunders. Mr. Wilson remembered the lengthy process of trying to get an associational building. One of his own members, Troy Hamrick, served for about 20 years on the committee. Property was found on Long Drive and purchased. He was privileged to work with Mark Corts to visit churches and help raise money for the building, which came to be known as the Resource Center. Mr. Wilson closed by saying he was grateful for the opportunity to work together and challenged each one to make a new commitment to the association, which is the closest connection Baptists have beyond the local church.

8. Mr. Bush led in singing the hymn, ''Serve the Lord with Gladness.''

9. For the Associational Coordinating Council Joyce Love, vice moderator and member of Clemmons First, moved that the 1993-94 Calendar of Activities be adopted. The motion carried.

10. Boyce Wilson, chairman of the Strategy Committee and member of Knollwood, recalled the privilege of being vice moderator and serving when W. R. Grigg was interim director of missions. He said that J. L. Wilson had looked back but the Strategy Committee is charged with the responsibility of looking forward. PMBA Vision 2000 is a planning process which creates an opportunity to sketch a portrait of how Pilot Mountain Association should look by the year 2000. It also is an opportunity to establish strategies to assist and guide in making the concept an actual portrait. Vision 2000 will be presented during the 1994 Fall Meeting for acceptance and approval. The committee will rely upon the following five planning strategies in developing the Vision 2000 portrait of PMBA:

1. The local congregations come first.
2. Assisting the local congregations encompasses facilitating joint ministry and mission.
3. All work of councils/committees is part of a process.
4. Effective planning minimizes unhealthy conflict.
5. The Pilot Mountain Association is a living organism.

Mr. Wilson asked everyone to pray for the Strategy Committee, employed staff, and the councils/committees as they continue to ''sketch the Vision 2000 portrait.''

11. Francis Yancey, Audit Committee chairman and member of Konnoak, reported that the 1992 audit of the financial books and records has been completed by the firm of Gray, Callison & Company. The full audit report is on file at the associational office and available for inspection. For the Audit Committee, Mr. Yancey moved that the audit for 1993 be done by Gray, Callison and Company. The motion carried.

12. Treasurer Carl Christensen, a member of United, reported that the association has not received the receipts projected for this year. Revenues have increased slightly since churches have become aware of the problem. The staff and financial leaders have studied ways to cut back on spending. Mr. Christensen said the association will be challenged again this year but, ''with prayer and financial stewardship, I am sure there will be many rewards also.''

13. Tom Moore, Finance Committee chairman and member of Winston-Salem First, said the committee will not present a proposed 1994 budget at this time. The association has experienced a deficit in anticipated receipts since June. A freeze on most programs is in effect. The staff, working with program leaders, formulated a priority spending list. The Finance Committee makes decisions regarding programs as monies become available. PMBA churches were contacted about the financial shortfall and have committed $5,649 in special offerings to date.

Mr. Moore said that programs for 1994 are in place and the association has the staff and manpower to carry out those programs, but does not have the finances. The Finance Committee is contacting each church to find what they have budgeted for missions through the association in 1994. When all figures are in, the committee will decide on a proposed 1994 budget to present to the December Executive Board for approval. Mr. Moore recognized Mr. Hamblen, who called attention to a sheet entitled ''Proposed 1994 Budget Summary.'' Receipts for 1993 are now projected at about $290,000. The budget for this year is $330,000, making a short fall of $40,000. Mr. Hamblen and leaders are all committed to closing 1993 in the black.

Based upon receipts for this year, a cap of $300,000 has been agreed upon for 1994. Requests from leaders to carry on a severely-scaled down program of ministries and activities totaled $349,155, about $50,000 short of projected receipts. Leaders will meet again November 22 to work through a proposed budget to present to the Executive Board in December.

PMBA churches showed a half million dollar increase in undesignated receipts last year; yet the association experienced a decrease in contributions. Mr. Hamblen said that if the churches decide to increase their contributions to missions through PMBA by 1/2% of their undesignated gifts, the association would have $353,307 available for mission causes throughout the PMBA area. Other associations in the state ask for/depend upon an average of 5% to 8% for their work. Whatever the churches give to the association is a vote on what the congregations expect the association to do. An increase of 1/2% from our churches would allow a long list of ministries—which have been funded in the past—to continue. "If not," said Mr. Hamblen, "most programs will not receive any money. We will 'cinch' up, do what families do when tough times come." He urged congregations to send their representatives to the December Executive Board meeting and asked prayer for the staff, for the Finance Committee, and for congregations who at this very time are determining their participation in missions through the association.

14. Richard Groves, Constitution Committee chairman and pastor of Wake Forest, called attention to their report in the Book of Reports which involves three changes: one in the Constitution, which requires a two-thirds vote of approval; and two in the Bylaws, which requires a simple majority to pass. Mr. Groves, for the Constitution Committee, moved that the following change be approved in the Constitution:

Article IV. D. Dismissal

D. Withdrawal and Dismissal

1. A member church may withdraw from the Association by writing an official letter to that effect to the Credentials Committee. If, after consultation with the Credentials Committee, the member church maintains its desire to withdraw, the request for withdrawal will be referred to the Executive Board. The Executive Board shall recommend to the Association in session that the request be granted.

2. A member church may be dismissed from the Association if its faith, polity, or practice is not in harmony with the purpose of the Association, or if it fails to send a Uniform Church Letter and/or messengers for three (3) consecutive years. In such case, the Credentials Committee shall make every effort to resolve the problem, but if that is not possible, it will recommend dismissal of the church to the Executive Board which will, in turn, submit the matter for final action to the Association in session. A two-thirds majority vote of the Association in session shall be required for this action.

Mr. Groves said the first paragraph is new. The first and last sentences of the second paragraph are essentially what is presently in the constitution; the second sentence is new. Currently the Credentials Committee plays no part in this process. Since the Credentials Committee deals with a church seeking fellowship with the association, it was felt that the same committee should deal with a church going out of the association. Joe Coltrane, chairman of the Credentials Committee and pastor of Lewisville, explained that the proposed change is primarily a provision not included before, one that the association may never have to use. The purpose is not to exclude anybody. He said the committee has been asked how the association goes about dismissing a church that is not cooperating. If we vote to receive a church into the association, there ought to be a provision to dismiss a church. Bobby Watson, Pilot Mountain First, asked if specific stipulations ought to be included in order to participate in the association.

Messengers were asked to stand to indicate their vote. The motion was approved.

For the Constitution Committee, Mr. Groves moved that the following changes be made in the Bylaws:

1. Name of the Church Secretaries Conference under Section V. Conferences be changed to Pilot Mountain Baptist Association (PMBA) Secretaries Conference.
2. Under VI. Mission Performance Councils, F. Church and Community Ministries Council, 2c. Handicapped Persons and 3d. Handicapped Ministries Coordinator be changed to Developmentally Disadvantaged and Developmentally Disadvantaged Ministries Coordinator, respectively.

The motions were approved.

15. Fran Bovender, chairperson of the Nominating Committee and member of Winston-Salem First, expressed her joy at serving, getting to know the association and staff better, and the commitment to God and His service she has seen in the lives of leaders. She thanked the members of the Nominating Committee.

Mrs. Bovender referred to their report in the Book of Reports and asked that Phil Mitchell, Ardmore, be added as PMBA Music Ministry Director. Calling attention to some unfilled positions, she said she trusts God to raise up someone to accept these responsibilities. She asked all who had accepted a leadership role to stand. For the Nominating Committee, Mrs. Bovender moved that nominees be approved for service in the association for 1993-94. The motion carried.

16. For the Language Missions Council report, John Saunders, Congregational Development Director, introduced Ellen Tabor, a leader in the Korean congregation and former missionary to Korea. Mrs. Tabor shared that it is a blessing for her to serve on the Language Missions Council and told of the beginning of a Japanese ministry through the Korean women's weekly Bible Study group. Virginia Highfill, retired missionary to Japan and member of Northwest, is leading in this new Japanese work which is sponsored by Northwest. Mrs. Tabor said the past year has been a difficult one in the Korean work. She then showed excerpts from a video of a baptismal service conducted at a recent retreat in Gatlinburg, Tennessee. Nine people were baptized.

Larry Doyle, pastor of the Hispanic Mission, shared a recent article from the Winston-Salem Journal which stated that Hispanics will become the largest minority group in this area by the year 2010. He reported that $43,000 has been received to date in contributions and pledges for the Triad Hispanic Ministry Center. A victory celebration is planned for early December with the goal of having all the money raised for building the Center. Teams from the Mission are sharing with churches a vision of what God can do ''right here in our back door.'' Volunteer construction teams are being organized. Target date for laying the foundation is January or February. Actual construction should begin about April 1. At the October Regional Brotherhood meeting, the Hispanic building was adopted as one of three projects for ''Homeland Missions'' in 1994. Steve Kiser is organizing construction teams on an associational level. Mr. Doyle is convinced that if one gives to the Hispanic work, individual churches and their programs will not suffer.

Mr. Saunders briefly reported on Japanese work at Northwest and the Asian Indian ministry at Calvary. The language groups are active and working, meeting many kinds of needs. He thanked the Lord for what He is continuing to do.

17. Ed Evans, Evangelism Council director and member of Forest Hill, reported that the Crusade Steering Committee has met several times. The Steering Committee recently decided that the crusade continue as scheduled but with the change that the ownership, the participation, the preaching, the music, every activity be from the people of this area.

It will be open to everyone who wants to participate. Cecil Cave, Mineral Springs, and Reuban Gilliam, North Winston, are leading in this effort. Mr. Evans asked for positive response and prayers.

18. Mr. Grigg introduced Mike Willard, the preacher for the afternoon session. Mr. Willard grew up in the Waughtown area until he moved to Kentucky when he was in seventh grade. He is a graduate of Wake Forest University and Southeastern Seminary. Mr. Grigg knew Mr. Willard's parents and maternal grandmother. He said he was reminded of Paul's statement to Timothy in II Timothy 1:5. He paraphrased it thus: "Mike, I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Irene and in your mother Jo Ann, and I am persuaded lives in you also."

19. Cyrus Bush, accompanied by Mr. Keesler, sang "If You Love Me, Keep My Commandments."

20. Mike Willard, new pastor of Main Street, brought the annual sermon based on the theme, "Servanthood: Committed and Accountable." He briefly commented on "PMBA is my home" by sharing that he came to know Jesus as his Saviour and was baptized at Waughtown Baptist Church. He attended Wake Forest University and worked part time at Baptist Hospital while a student. He was youth director at Southside for three years; pastor of Griffith for nine years, and for three months has served as pastor of the "Miracle of Main Street" in Kernersville. Taking his text from Joshua 24:14-15, Mr. Willard said he was going to share about two servants of the Lord who are often overshadowed by other Bible heroes. Samuel, nurtured by godly parents and grandparents, served during a difficult time of transition and "would understand the situation in our own association." Early in life, Samuel learned two important truths that enabled him to become the great hero that he was: How to be a servant and how to listen. The motto of his life was "Speak Lord, for thy servant is listening" (I Samuel 3:10). Samuel made the decision to serve God before he knew what God wanted him to do—prior commitment before God gave any instructions. Samuel also learned early the importance of listening. Mr. Willard said, "Before we serve with our mouths, we must serve with our ears; before we serve with our hands, talents, or tithes, we must serve with our ears." Samuel learned well the lessons of prior commitment and the priority of prayerful listening.

These two simple, yet powerful, truths were also the secret to Philip's life and ministry. Philip was among the first to reach beyond cultural, racial, and national boundaries. Mr. Willard read the account of Philip and the Ethiopian eunuch in Acts 8. When God said, "Go," Philip went without making excuses or asking for further explanations. He, too, became a great servant of the Lord because of his prior commitment to service and the priority of listening. Mr. Willard said, "Maybe it is time for us to choose now whom we are going to serve, to recognize that He is Lord and we are servants." He shared an incident in the life of Tony Compolo on a visit to Honolulu, when on an impulse he helped plan and carry out a surprise birthday party for a prostitute. When the owner of the small restaurant where all this was taking place found out Compolo was a "preacher," he asked about his church. Mr. Compolo replied, "I belong to the kind of church that throws surprise birthday parties for prostitutes at three o'clock in the morning." The restaurant owner remarked, "If there were such a church, I would join it!" This real life incident again affirmed the far reaching effects one individual can have on the lives of others if that individual has a prior commitment to service and a priority to listening.

21. John Saunders, Jr. led in a time of remembrance for those who have died since last annual meeting. He told of the sinking of the Lusitania in May, 1915, off the coast of Ireland. Out of 1,900 people on board, 1,200 lost their lives. Amid all the panic as everyone scrambled for lifeboats, one American, Charles Frohman, stood quietly by the rail. When asked if he were not afraid, he replied, "No. Why fear death? It is the most beautiful adventure of life." Mr. Saunders read from I Corinthians 15:50-57, Hebrews 12:1-2, and Revelation 14:13. He said those we remember are not strangers; they are family. They have faithfully run their race and challenge us to remain faithful to God, to be servants in a helpless, hopeless world. He read the names of some who had gone on to be with the Lord since last annual meeting: Missionary Helen Hayes, Charter Member Pearl Henning; Deacons: Wilson Ivey, W.P. Hendrix, T. Blaine Reavis, Cavosso Thomas, Norman Johnson, R. Jennings Money, Homer Carroll, Fred Smith, Herbert Rogers, Coy Baker, and John Wooten; Mrs. Hazel Good, wife of Rev. Homer Good, Kernersville First; Rev. Bill Pope, former pastor of Mount Olive; and Rev. Teddy Henry Key, first pastor of Old Town. Mr. Saunders called for a time of silence and then led in prayer.

22. The afternoon session was adjourned at 5:39.

EVENING SESSION

23. Pre-session music was provided by David Wooten, pastor of Forest Hill, in memory of his father, John Wooten, a leader in Robinhood Road Baptist Church who died soon after last year's annual meeting. Mr. Wooten sang "Champion of Love."

24. The moderator convened the evening session at 7:02 and gave instructions concerning registration.

25. Cyrus Bush led in singing "We Are Called to Be God's People." He expressed appreciation for John Darsey, minister of music of the host church; the chancel choir; JoAnna Queen, pianist; and Larry Keesler, organist.

26. Beverly Hatcher, member of Macedonia, shared "What I Have Seen and Experienced in PMBA." She told of her first contact with the association six years ago through the WMU at her church. Through the association, she saw "love in action"—the kind of love referred to in I John 3:18. As an associational WMU leader she received training at Caraway and Ridgecrest. During WMU Week at Ridgecrest she sensed for the first time the call of the Lord for broader avenues of service. Through the Baptist Toy Store and Forsyth Prison chaplaincy ministries, she was given the opportunity to witness to those in our community who needed to experience God's love. Mrs. Hatcher told of her involvement with the Detroit Partnership. She was part of the first survey team to go to Detroit; then she and her famly helped for a week with Vacation Bible Schools and working with the homeless at the Baptist Center in downtown Detroit. All of her experiences through Pilot Mountain Association helped her to grow personally and to better understand the kind of commitment the Lord requires of those who want to be His disciples.

27. J. L. Wilson, chairman of the Servant Leadership Task Force, reported on the three servant leadership conferences planned and carried out by the Task Force. Each centered around the theme, "Preparing the Hearts of Christ's servants." Sixty-eight took part in the conference April 30-May 1 at Winston-Salem First with Mary Cosby of the Church of the Saviour in Washington, DC leading. Bill Lenden and Judy Burno, Quest for Community, led in the second conference August 27-28 at Ardmore. They focused on how to build authentic, caring relationships. Fifty-six people participated. The last conference was held at College Park October 14-15 with Pete Hammond of InterVarsity as guest leader. The focus was on sharing one's faith "in the market place." Thirty-nine people took part. Mr. Wilson thanked the other members of the task force for their work: Mike Bradshaw, Peggy Conrad, Linda Lewis, Joyce Love and Coley Rimmer.

28. Mike Bradshaw, Ministries Development Director, said it was his privilege during the last seven years to work with the ministries councils. The Church and Community Ministries Council seeks to help congregations live out their call to minister to persons in need. He introduced Mrs. Fallie Fine, who is visually impaired. Ms. Fine shared how she had met Mr. Bradshaw four years ago at an ice cream social for the visually impaired. She was glad that she attended and expressed appreciation on behalf of all visually impaired people. ''Blind people are very lucky to have a group that cares about them. We get support, enjoy the fellowship, and have a good time.'' Two young people from Quaker Gap Baptist Church, Marty Baldwin and Cory Snow, shared their experiences at the Retreat held last June at Becks Baptist Church for developmentally disabled folks. They thanked the association for sponsoring this yearly event and for giving them the opportunity to help with games, crafts, and sharing one-on-one with these special people.

29. Steve Kiser, chairman of the Mission FOCUS Team and member of Bethany, reported that the past year has been a ''year of struggle and modest successes.'' Three churches from PMBA journeyed to Greater Detroit Baptist Association to work with their sister churches: Macedonia, Cornerstone and Fellowship. Four Detroit pastors and three PMBA pastors traveled to the others' field for revivals, January Bible Study, and other special events. Mr. Kiser expressed appreciation to churches for supplies and food donated for the Baptist Center and Wayne State University's Baptist Student Union. He also thanked the WMU Council for leading a WMU training conference in Detroit.

PMBA recently voted to participate in the North Carolina/Ukrainian partnership. Wade Dellinger, pastor of Old Town, is the coordinator. To date, five churches have agreed to sponsor a Ukrainian church planter: Ardmore, Brim's Grove, Calvary (2), Friends, and Old Town. Mr. Kiser commended Ken Boaz, one of the Team members who is leaving the association, for his capable leadership.

30. Bill Yates, director of church and community relations at North Carolina Baptist Hospital, was recognized. Mr. Yates is also incoming chairman of the Personnel Committee.

31. Charles Edwards, chairman of the Personnel Committee and pastor of College Park, thanked new members of the committee and those he has worked with the past three years. He introduced the present committee. He also thanked the ''great staff'' for their spiritual integrity and commitment to ministry through the association. Mr. Edwards recognized Peggy Hall, administrative assistant, on her twentieth anniversary. On behalf of the association, he expressed appreciation for her competence, faithfulness and ''steadfast love.'' Mrs. Hall was presented a monetary gift. She thanked the association—the staff, pastors, and leaders of the churches—for the privilege of serving the Lord through PMBA.

Mr. Edwards said that on October 18, 1983 the association made another significant decision in calling Jim Hamblen as director of missions. ''We have been blessed by Jim's presence. He has many gifts—administrator...encourager...counselor.'' Mr. Edwards complimented Mr. Hamblen for using his gift of ministry to equip the saints for ministry, for giving the ownership of the ministry of the association to the people. Mr. Hamblen responded by saying that this year's theme on servant leadership is really a celebration of the past decade. He reminded everyone of the pledge he made ten years ago to focus on servant leadership. God had blessed the ''three-way contract'' made between the association, Mr. Hamblen, and the Lord. He said the association is facing greater challenges in the coming years in the areas of identity, communication, and fellowship. He pledged to give his best to lead into the next decade ''so all who walk after us will know we had a prior commitment to serve, and the priority of listening.'' Mr. Hamblen was also presented a gift of appreciation.

32. Cyrus Bush lead in singing ''O Zion, Haste.''

33. Paul Edmond, incoming Finance Committee chairman and member of Winston-Salem First, said that the offerings taken at past annual meetings had been used to retire the debt on the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center. He announced that the offering tonight would be used for maintenance and upkeep of the facility. Mr. Edmond led in an offertory prayer. The organist played "I Come to the Garden Alone." (Clerk's note: The offering totaled $570.10.)

34. Charles Martin, Discipleship Training director, said one of the last directives the Lord gave to the church is recorded in Matthew 28:19. He stressed that we cannot begin to succeed in the ministry of the church unless we give serious attention to making disciples. Members of the Discipleship Training Council "are your servants, willing to come to where you are, assess your situation. Discipleship Training is an active, dynamic, experiential process." On behalf of the Discipleship Training Council, he thanked the association for the opportunity to serve and asked for prayer for wisdom and leadership.

35. Sunday School Director Ty Talton, Ardmore, invited everyone to join with the Council for the Sunday School emphasis in the Fall of 1994. The Council/ASSISTeam has been listening to the churches and will seek to meet expressed needs during this emphasis. He asked that leaders find a time on their church calendar and invite Sunday School resource people to come and share ideas on how to be more effective in doing Sunday School work. The council hopes during the fall months of 1994 to be in every church in the association. The only cost will be time and commitment on the part of the individual church's Sunday School leadership. Informational meetings will be held in the Spring. The theme for the coming year is "Breakthrough: Serve to Win."

Mr. Talton expressed appreciation to the associational staff for their work with the council and their encouragement. He recognized Irene Covington and Georgie Kitchen, who "personify servanthood" and have served for fourteen years or more on the ASSISTeam in the area of preschool and children's work. The State and Southern Baptist Conventions, as well as the association, look to these two expert workers and call upon them often to lead conferences. He thanked them for "touching the lives of children throughout the association by training workers to teach better, love better."

36. Mr. Grigg encouraged everyone to renew themselves by volunteering for mission causes within the association and supporting the work financially. He introduced Mark Harris, who was to bring the inspirational message. Mr. Harris grew up in the College Park Church, graduated from Appalachian State University and Southeastern Theological Seminary, served as minister of youth at Glenn View and Edgewood, and is currently pastor of Center Grove.

37. John Darsey, minister of music at the host church, led the chancel choir of South Fork in singing "Give Us Peace."

38. Mark Harris recognized local churches and individuals who had influenced his life. He especially thanked Jim Hamblen as a "brother who would never leave your side...a man who does not have an agenda. He seeks to do that which is right." Mr. Harris said his assignment was to give an inspirational message "to launch us into the year of 1994." Two things already planned for 1994 are an evangelistic crusade in the spring and the Sunday School emphasis in the fall. Reading Matthew 10:16-20, he said that Jesus knew His disciples needed an idea of some of the obstacles they would have to face as they served Him. Mr. Harris outlined four critical attitudes Jesus' disciples need:

- A proper perspective

  We need to teach new believers that they are sheep and they will be distinctly different from the "wolves" of this world. They will be different because the presence of the Holy Spirit is in their lives.
- A proper posture

  Disciples should always maintain the attitude of being as shrewd as serpents and innocent as doves. We can have this posture only as we walk in the Spirit of God; we have no power or authority of our own. God is in the active and command mode, not the neutral mode. The world is waiting to see the posture of the church, to see disciples who are shrewd as serpents and innocent as doves.

- A promised persecution

  Persecution is a reality in 1993 America. Persecution comes from religion, the government, and even families. The mere presence of believers brings others face to face with sin in their lives. Endurance of persecution is the hallmark of genuine salvation; it burns away chaff in the church (those who make superficial commitments).

- A Personal Provision

  The disciples knew Jesus was their only resource; without Him they could do nothing. Jesus promised in John 15:20 to send the Holy Spirit to indwell, empower, and encourage. If we come out of 1994 with churches "bursting at the seams" with people won to Christ during the crusade, and our Sunday Schools won't hold them anymore when we've involved them in Bible study, it will be only because we have shared with people that they can be indwelt, empowered, and encouraged by the Holy Spirit. Bill Gothard took youth groups to Russia and as they witnessed, multitudes of people came to know Christ. Mr. Gothard was told by a 70-year-old woman that the Russian people could "see in the eyes of the young people a glow and presence of God they had never seen before and people are hungrily coming to Christ." Mr. Harris contrasted this with what he saw in the eyes of the young people at West Forsyth High School—"pain of broken homes, of wondering if anybody loved them, and having no answers as to what they can hold on to."

Mr. Harris closed by saying his dream for PMBA in 1994 is that people living in Winston-Salem and Forsyth County will be able to say, "These people called Pilot Mountain Association are disciples, they have shared the message with the entire county and surrounding counties that people can be indwelt, empowered, and encouraged."

39. Mr. Grigg introduced the new officers: Joyce Love, moderator; Amis Daniel, vice moderator; Carl Christensen, treasurer; Bill Norris, assistant treasurer; Karen Taylor, clerk; and John Woodard, assistant clerk and historian. He said that God gifts individuals within the body of Christ with leadership qualities. Jesus modeled servant leadership, symbolized by a towel and basin, not a scepter or throne. He encouraged the new leaders to pattern themselves after Jesus, who came not to be served but to serve. He then passed the towel of servant leadership to Mrs. Love. Mr. Bush concluded the installation of officers by singing "Send Me, O Lord, Send Me," interspersed with a monologue bearing out the theme, "Servanthood: Committed and Accountable."

40. The 108th annual session was adjourned at 8:50 PM with a prayer by the new moderator, Joyce Love.

PEGGY HALL, Clerk

Reports

Chaplaincy Ministries Council

The Chaplaincy Ministries Council has focused attention on two primary areas of concern during the year. In the area of nursing home ministry, it was determined that one of the major needs in long-term care facilities was for ongoing supportive visits with residents who have limited family support. The ''Adopt-A-Resident'' Program, designed to respond to this need, has been presented to congregations as a way for individuals and groups to develop caring relationships with lonely individuals in our area nursing homes. Congregations are responding to this need and assignments are being made.

A new area of work begun this year is a ministry to international students. Working with Wake Forest University, the association is providing opportunities for families from our congregations to serve as ''host families'' for students from other countries who desire this kind of relationship. An ice cream social was held in September on the Wake Forest campus for international students and for potential host families as a way of opening the door to this ministry. Response has been very positive.

In addition to these projects, the council provided two training events during the year's Training Extravaganzas—''Living Wills and Advance Medical Directives'' and ''Developing a Ministry to Older Adults.''

During the summer the council sponsored a seminary student, Kimberly Baker, who worked in the association as Chaplaincy Ministries Coordinator.

By helping to link congregations with ministry needs, the Chaplaincy Ministries Council is enabling congregations to fulfill their mission individually and is helping us as an association to do together what one congregation cannot do alone.

LINDA LEWIS, Director

Christian Life Council

The Christian Life Council offered two workshops for 1993. The Full Circle Program, a workshop on mental illness led by Rev. Grey Brock-Loftis, was offered in March as a part of the Training Extravaganza. It was well received by those attending.

We are very fortunate to be able to offer our second workshop on Skills for Calling-Caring Ministries with Dr. John Savage. This workshop is scheduled for November 29-December 3, 1993. This workshop will prove extremely beneficial to our churches in reclaiming inactive church members.

LOUIS R. HILL, Director

SERVANT LEADERSHIP TASK FORCE

The Servant Leadership Task Force was formed in 1992 to plan events that would help the churches encourage members in service in the spirit of our Lord. Peggy Conrad, Joyce Love, Linda Lewis, Coley Rimmer, J. L. Wilson and Mike Bradshaw planned three Servant Leadership Conferences for 1993, guided by the theme, "Developing the Hearts of Christ's Servants."

The first conference, hosted by First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, focused on spiritual preparation for ministry and took place April 30-May 1. Mary Cosby of the Church of the Savior in Washington, DC, was the able resource person for the conference. Sixty-eight people attended the sessions.

The second conference was at Ardmore Baptist Church August 27-28. Fifty-six people took part. William Linden and Judy Berno, both on the staff of Quest for Community, outlined the bases of real community and pointed to ways of fostering authentic relationships within the church fellowship.

College Park Baptist Church was the meeting place for the third conference October 15-16. John "Pete" Hammond, director of Inter-Varsity Marketplace Development, was the conference leader. Marketplace ministry was the emphasis, and the 39 participants were challenged to use new ways of sharing their faith in their everyday lives, especially the workplace.

J. L. WILSON, Chairman

Church Growth Council

The Church Growth Council was active during the year.

We concluded our evaluation of the PACT Blitz and had one church do an individual study with Randy Godwin leading. The council sponsored a group of 17 PMBA ministers to attend a Metro-Ministry Conference in Raleigh. In 1994 this conference will be in Richmond; in 1995 it will be held in Winston-Salem.

Northridge no longer is receiving any assistance through us. They are making good progress on their own with continuing assistance from Becks. Both United and North Winston continue to receive assistance at a reduced level and we are pleased with the good reports coming from them. We are prayerfully considering two new mission start possibilities.

During the year John Saunders has helped us in preparing a statement of our purpose within the association and of the guidelines we will follow as we work with churches and mission opportunities. We are also considering reorganizing our council into three working groups:

1. Growth in existing churches
2. New work
3. Multi-housing residents ministry.

We are acutely aware of the reality of financial restraints right now. Yet we have begun talking about the pressing need for a mission fund so that we will be in a position to meet the need for work.

PAUL WONDERS, Director

Cooperative Ministries Council

The Cooperative Ministries Council serves as a liaison between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Association. The council seeks ways to share in cooperative fellowship and ministry among the pastors and churches of the two associations.

In December the ministers and spouses of both associations came together for a joint worship service and lunch at the First Baptist Church of Kernersville. The Christmas message was delivered by Dr. Paul A. Lowe, Jr., pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church of Winston-Salem.

The Reverend Joseph Jones, Dr. J. Ray Butler, and Dr. Cecil Cave, who serve on the State Joint Committee on Cooperative Ministries of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, attended a meeting of the Joint Committee on April 20, 1993, which was held in Burlington, NC at the Comfort Inn. Dr. Corbin Cooper, director of the Cooperative Ministries Division of the Baptist State Convention of NC, convened the meeting.

The director of the Cooperative Ministries Council of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has endeavored to develop relationships across racial lines by active participation in the Ministers' Conference of Winston-Salem and Vicinity, Religious Leaders for Reconcilation, and The Crossing 52 Initiative.

The Cooperative Ministries Council in a meeting on August 23, 1993, formulated a proposal that the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association endorse The Crossing 52 Initiative along with the Religious Leaders for Reconciliation, the Ministers' Conference of Winston-Salem and Vicinity, the Episcopal Churches of Winston-Salem, and the Citizens United for Justice.

The Reverend James V. Hamblen, the Reverend Reuban Gilliam, the Reverend Joseph Jones, and Dr. Cecil Cave have been actively involved in the Religious Leaders for Reconciliation since its beginning in September of 1992.

The Cooperative Ministries Council is seeking workable suggestions from all participants from all gatherings so as to contribute to better relations among all people.

CECIL CAVE, Director

Discipleship Training Council

This year has been a time of reorganization and growth for your Discipleship Training Council. New members bring new vision and ideas that are helping to shape the future of discipleship training in our association. In addition to participating in Discipleship Training Week at Ridgecrest, we also benefited from training opportunities held at Caraway Conference Center, both experiences proving quite beneficial.

Your Discipleship Training Council sponsored Children's Bible Drills in our association, participated in the Sunday School Board's "New Start" Discipleship Training project (involving ten of our churches), and currently is working with individual congregations needing assistance in this area of ministry. Our plans for this year include hosting a regional Children's Bible Drill Training Conference, sponsoring one of the new L.I.F.E. courses on the associational level, and a variety of training opportunities. We are excited about the new vision and spirit that our Lord has given to guide us as we serve you.

CHARLES MARTIN, Director

Evangelism Council

A good percentage of our meeting time this year was spent in prayer for the spiritual needs of our community. We have sought effective ways and means to enhance the spread of the Gospel. We have evaluated such projects as a ministry at the Dixie Classic Fair.

Several of the council members have been actively involved in Home Missions (Arizona) and Foreign Missions (Brazil and India). Major emphasis for 1994 will be on the Triad Area Crusade to be held in April at the Coliseum Annex.

We strongly urge every church in our association to insure that they have an active mechanism to keep emphasis on evangelism. Our council stands ready to assist in this when and where needed.

ED EVANS, Director

SAO PAULO PARTNERSHIP

Although the official five year Baptist State Convention Partnership concluded last year (1988-1992), a relationship between the Pinheiros Association of Sao Paulo and our PMBA was extended another year. It was just too rich an experience to let end!

A small but enthusiastic group of missionaries trekked to the megatropolis in Brazil this past June 17-30. We enjoyed the best weather and sweetest fellowship (personal evaluation) of all the seven trips made by PMBA individuals and groups.

While the emphasis was again in the area of evangelism, the mission took a slightly different form this time. Since it was probably the last in the series of trips, an effort was made to visit in every one of the congregations (churches and missions) that desired to participate. Our little group stayed on the move and shared with sixteen different fellowships of every size and situation.

PARTNERSHIP SUMMARY: Seven teams from PMBA over six years, over 100 total trips; one group of nine from Sao Paulo visited in the PMBA; the manifold blessings cannot begin to be counted.

Thank you for the blessed opportunity of serving in this ministry. "I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, thankful for your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now."

- Philippians 1:3-5. (RSV)

KEN BOAZ, Coordinator

Language Missions Council

The Language Missions Council met every other month to discuss and promote the language work of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

The Hispanic Ministry had ground breaking for a new building May 23, 1993. The following committee chairpersons have been elected: Robah Watson, construction; Hugo Rustrian, finance; and Carlos Cascante, fund raising. David Kessler was selected as architect. The building dedication is scheduled for August 14, 1994.

The Korean Ministry is progressing. Pastor Chung was called as interim May 15, 1993.

The Asian/Indian Ministry is now meeting at Calvary Baptist, and the Vietnamese group is no longer active.

One new mission was started by Northwest Church in 1992, and was incorporated in PMBA Language Missions in 1993 as the Japanese Ministry. Good attendance and growth, under the leadership of Ms. Virginia Highfill, are being experienced and the outlook for the future is very good.

CHARLIE TURNER, Director

Music Ministry Council

On April 29, 1993 the Music Ministry Council sponsored the Senior Adult Musical, Rejoicing in His Presence, directed by Richard Tucker, Jr. Some 90 to 100 senior adults participated in this choir, and approximately 300 were in attendance at the sixth annual Senior Adult Luncheon held at Ardmore.

During the spring and early summer, the Music Council, in cooperation with the Single Adult Ministries Council, planned, promoted, and presented Babbie Mason in a sacred concert. The event, held July 24th in Wait Chapel on the Wake Forest University campus, was well received and those who attended were inspired and blessed.

CYRUS BUSH, Director

Ordination Council

The mission of the Ordination Council is to assist churches of the Pilot Mountain association in examining candidates for the ministry. When a request is made, the chairperson of the Ordination Council begins the process that ultimately leads to the recommendation of the council to the ordaining church body. The recommendation comes from a thorough dialogue between the council members and the candidate. The agenda allows for the discussion of the person's conversion experience, call to ministry, family and background, and a recounting of the candidate's theological journey and perspective.

During this past year the council received requests from three churches to assist in the examination of the following individuals:

1. David A. Hasker, Northwest Baptist Church
2. Eric Morphis, Oaklawn Baptist Church
3. David Brown, Ardmore Baptist Church

Pastoral Ministries Council

The Pastoral Ministries Council is really composed of three councils:

1. The Deacon Ministries Council works with deacons of churches in our association to plan training events and to be of assistance to deacons in any way. Bobby Barbera of Union Groveleads this council.
2. The Ordination Council is available to assist churches when they wish to interview a candidate for ordination to the ministry. Donald Farrow, pastor of Waughtown, leads this council.
3. The Church-Minister Relations Council has as its purpose that of assisting churches and ministers during periods of conflict. The council can only serve when it is called upon by a church or minister. It is available to listen and to offer counsel. Tom Austin, pastor of Knollwood, leads this council.

The Pastoral Ministries Council will be conducting one of the programs for the associational Ministers Conference. Through this program we plan to offer inspiration and assistance for our fellow ministers.

RUSSELL WIMMER, Director

Seminary Extension Council

The Seminary Extension Council sponsored eight courses this year as follows: four courses completed, two scheduled for the Fall, and two at the Forsyth Prison. These opportunities enabled participants to enrich their spiritual development and enlarge their Christian perspective.

Seminary Extension is designed to increase our skills in reaching people, to develop the spiritual gifts of believers, to strengthen our sense of the mission of the church, and to improve the organization of the local church through better equipped leaders.

You need Seminary Extension. Our Pilot Mountain Institute for Biblical studies, Seminary Extension, needs you. Let's get together. If you have a need for a particular course or desire additional information, contact Sandra Hall at the Resource Center.

WILLIAM G. GUTHRIE, Director

Senior Adult Ministries Council

The Senior Adult Ministries Council sponsored their sixth annual senior adult luncheon at Ardmore Baptist Church on April 29, 1993 with approximately 368 people in attendance, representing about 27 churches in the association. Entertainment was provided by a Senior Adult Choir with participants from various churches. The choir was led by Rick Tucker.

The luncheon for 1994 will be held Thursday, May 5 (place to be announced).

ARTHUR WETZEL, Director

Single Adult Ministries Council

This past year the Single Adult Council and the Music Council of the PMBA combined their efforts to secure inspirational gospel singer Babbie Mason.

She appeared in concert at Wait Chapel on July 24 of the year. Babbie Mason has been nominated for five Dove awards—contemporary Christian music's highest award—including one for the inspirational album of the year for her current release, ''A World of Difference.'' She has also had three number one singles on the Christian charts.

She has appeared on the Arsenio Hall show, at Radio City Music Hall in New York City, and is a regular featured soloist for Billy Graham crusades.

The Single Adult Council, immediately prior to the concert itself, sponsored a single's banquet which was held in the fellowship hall at Wake Forest Baptist Church. The concert itself was free and open to the public. A good bit of publicity through the Winston-Salem Journal, as well as WSJS and several other radio stations, helped gather people to this event.

TIM WILKINS, Director

Sunday School Council/ASSISTeam

The ''Breakthrough'' emphasis continued in 1993 with the specific focus being ''Reach to Win.'' Outreach has been the primary point of emphasis during this past year. Pilot Mountain has continued to distinguish itself as a ''Standard Sunday School Association'' during 1993.

We assisted our churches through the following events:

1. Spring Training Extravaganza (8 courses) - March 18, 1993
2. Fall Training Extravaganza (10 courses) - September 23, 1993
3. Early Bird VBS Directors Clinic - February 4, 1993
4. VBS Training Clinics - April 1 and May 6, 1993

Our ASSISTeam continued training through:

1. ASSIST Institute in February
2. Annual Planning Retreat in May
3. Key Leadership in May
4. Sunday School Week at Ridgecrest
5. Several other age-specific conferences.

Our "Breakthrough: Serve to Win" goals for the coming year are:

1. Continue as a Standard Association
2. Conduct leadership training through Training Extravaganzas
3. Lead association in planning and conducting a major Fall Sunday School emphasis
4. Provide Vacation Bible School training for churches
5. Provide personal consultation to at least 10 churches
6. Determine what literature PMBA churches are using and how to resource other curriculum lines
7. Publish a list of Sunday School resources at PMBA center.

Woman's Missionary Union

The 1992-93 WMU emphasis was Lead on! Our watchword was taken from Joshua 1:6a TEV: "Be determined and confident, for you will be the leader of these people as they occupy this land." We were reminded that missions is the heartbeat of God and that His purpose is to redeem all creation. We, as Christians, have been gifted by God to bring about that purpose as He directs the use of those gifts. As we set about our tasks, we did so with renewed commitment "With a Servant Heart," as under-shepherds to the Great Shepherd, stressing the importance of servant leadership with the life of Christ as our "servant" model.

September 14, 1992 marked the beginning of our year. Leadership Training was held at College Park with 43 churches represented and 200 in attendance. A gift was presented to the WMU Director from Winston-Salem First for having the most in attendance at the conference—a total of 15 to be exact!

Baptist Women's Day of Prayer was held November 2, 1992 at Crestwood. The theme was "Together in Christ, We Hope." The morning service had an attendance of about 200 people with an offering of $194.22. The evening service had 76 people present with an offering of $178.05. School supplies were donated for the Baptist Center, Greater Detroit Baptist Association. People were also asked to make contributions to the Baptist Women's Department of the Baptist World Alliance. Churches participating in the program were Crestwood, Pfafftown, Rural Hall First, Kernersville First, Germanton, Main Street, Knollwood, Ardmore, North Winston, Union Grove, and Winston-Salem First. Vicki Ward, PMBA WMU director, and Joyce Love, assistant director, shared devotional thoughts.

Ministering to others outside the church family is the focus of Mission Action/Personal Witnessing. We received from our churches health kits that were given to the prison at the Christmas party held December 17, 1992. Birthday parties were held every month at Goodwill Industries by different age-level organizations from churches throughout the association.

A Pastor/Spouse Dinner was held January 28, 1993 at the Resource Center with a total present of 76. With ''Festival of Lights'' as a theme, a beautiful program was presented by the WMU Enlistment Director and we were reminded to ''let our little light shine'' for Jesus.

Yours for the Giving: Spiritual Gifts was the theme for the Baptist Young Women's Spiritual Growth and Fellowship held at the Resource Center on February 11, 1993. Each of us were challenged to find our spiritual gift(s). There were 10 churches represented and 18 people present.

Lead On! was the emphasis for the Baptist Women/Baptist Young Women's annual Salad Supper held March 16 at Ardmore. The ''Blizzard of '93'' was a factor in our attendance. With close to 400 reservations, 167 women braved the elements to attend a heartwarming and inspirational evening.

Woman's Missionary Union was represented at the associational Training Extravaganza on March 18th with Joyce Love, assistant WMU director, teaching Marsha Spradlin's LIVINGtouch on personal witnessing.

The WMU Annual Meeting was held on Monday evening, April 19, 1993 at Clemmons First Baptist Church. We were delighted to have Jan High, WMU Consultant for Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, as our guest speaker. Melody Vaughn from Crestwood blessed us with her beautiful voice. There were 21 churches represented with a total of 72 people in attendance.

Missions with Love, association Acteens Night, was held April 22, 1993 at the Resource Center, featuring music and shared experiences by Jeanie Connell of Spencer, North Carolina. There were three churches and 11 in attendance.

A GA Mother & Daughter Enlightening Experience was held on July 24, 1993 at Tanglewood Park. An ''MK'' shared real life experiences he had and helped our Girls in Action to see why we need to take care of this world. There were 5 churches and 33 in attendance.

All WMU Council members received training at WMU Week at Ridgecrest and/or Caraway. All churches were contacted by council members throughout the year and assistance given when requested.

This year of service is now completed. However, we will continue to ''Lead On'' as we ''Serve in Christ's Name,'' for we are ''laborers together with God.''

VICKI E. WARD, Director

Youth Ministries Council

On November 13-14, 1992 the associational Youth Ministries Council held the annual Fall Retreat, entitled The Faces of Me. Jan Cartledge, from Cary, NC, along with two focus teams from Appalachian State University, led approximately 100 youth in being honest with God, themselves, and others. Eight PMBA churches participated in this retreat on self-esteem.

On February 6, 1993 the council, along with Becks Baptist Church, sponsored a Gene Cotton Concert. There were 388 youth and adults present representing 30 churches and one Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

In both of these events our goal was to show the teenagers that they are not the only Christians in their high schools. We also were promoting fellowship among the churches.

SANDY STILES, Director

Administrative Services Committees

Administrative Committee

The Administrative Committee performs those administrative or executive functions for the association by meeting quarterly. Some of the duties are to serve the association or Executive Board in any specific or assigned matters or in case of emergencies within the policies of the association. One duty is to establish the agenda for Executive Board meetings. All committee members to serve on the Nominating Committee are recommended from the Administrative Committee.

Concerning the Nominating Committee, we always consider the vacancies prayerfully, seeking to enlist those persons who understand the scope of the association. The committee expresses gratitude for the commitment of the Nominating Committee in selecting qualified, dedicated leadership for our association.

The Administrative Committee is also made up of chairpersons from other committees embracing all areas of associational life. This is a partial list of actions taken this year:

1. The committee endorsed a Real Life Crusade (April 22-28, 1994) led by Jim Wilson with no financial responsibility of the association.
2. The Personnel Committee and association welcomed John Saunders, Congregational Development Director, with an installation service at the 1993 Spring meeting.
3. Endorsed the request of the Hispanic Mission to conduct an association wide fund raising campaign to purchase materials with which to build a multi-purpose facility, under the leadership of the Language Missions Council.
4. The committee called all pastors of churches to encourage additional money to help with the shortfall this year and to consider increasing their 1994 gifts to the association.

JOYCE LOVE, Chairperson

Audit Committee

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association's 1992 Audit has been completed by Gray, Callison and Company, P.A., Certified Public Accountants. The audit report was presented to the Audit Committee by Michael G. Callison, CPA, on August 25, 1993. The Audit Committee was responsible for securing this outside audit for the association and feels that we received a favorable report and commend the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association staff for their performance.

The full Audit Report, which has an unqualified opinion, is available for inspection at the association office. The Management Letter, which was prepared to strengthen internal controls and operating efficiency, follows.

The committee recommends that an outside audit be made annually.

Members:

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 1992, we considered the Association's internal control structure to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

During our audit we became aware of no significant opportunities for strengthening internal control and operating efficiency.

We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to you.

Very truly yours,
GRAY, CALLISON & CO., P.A.

Constitution Committee

The Constitution Committee met September 21 at Wake Forest Baptist Church. The following decisions were made regarding recommended changes to the Constitution and By-Laws:

To recommend to the Association that Article IV. D. Dismissal in the Constitution be changed to read:

D. Withdrawal and Dismissal

1. A member church may withdraw from the Association by writing an official letter to that effect to the Credentials Committee. If, after consultation with the Credentials Committee, the member church maintains its desire to withdraw, the request for withdrawal will be referred to the Executive Board. The Executive Board shall recommend to the Association in session that the request be granted.

2. A member church may be dismissed from the Association if its faith, polity,or practice are not in harmony with the purpose of the Association, or if it fails to send a Uniform Church Letter and/or messengers for three (3) consecutive years. In such case, the Credentials Committee shall make every effort to resolve the problem, but if that is not possible, it will recommend dismissal of the church to the Executive Board which will, in turn, submit the matter for final action to the Association in session. A two-thirds majority vote of the Association in session shall be required for this action.

(This proposal came to the Constitution Committee from the Credentials Committee.)

2. To recommend to the Association that V. Conferences, B. Church Secretaries Conference in the By-Laws be changed to Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Secretaries Conference. (This proposal came to the committee from the Secretaries Conference.)
3. To recommend that VI. Mission Performance Councils, F. Church and Community Ministries Council. 2c. Handicapped Persons and 3.d. Handicapped Ministries Coordinator of the By-Laws be changed to Developmentally Disadvantaged and Developmentally Disadvantaged Ministries Coordinator, respectively.

The committee received a recommendation from the Coordinating Council that a permanent budget promotion committee be established. The committee decided to postpone work on this recommendation until the suggestions from the recent listening sessions have been processed and the results are available.

RICHARD GROVES, Chairman

Credentials Committee

The Credentials Committee of the PMBA held our annual meeting on August 24, 1993. The main item on the agenda was to consider a recommended change in the association's constitution which would deal with the matter of dismissal of a church from membership in the association. It has been brought to the attention of the committee that, while there is a section presently in the constitution which addresses the matter of dismissal of a church, there is no explicit directive as to how, or by whom, this action is to be initiated, if and when it should ever be deemed necessary. Having received a request to look into this matter, the Credentials Committee proceeded to do so, as it seems to fall into the area of this committee's responsibility. The recommended change in the constitution simply places the responsibility upon the Credentials Committee to take the initiative in seeking to resolve the problem with the church in question, and, if failing to resolve the problem in a positive manner, to recommend dismissal to the Executive Board. The Executive Board would then have the responsibility of submitting the matter for final action to the association in session. This proposed change was prepared and forwarded to the Constitution Committee for their consideration and presentation to the association in the annual meeting.

The committee worked on the preparation of a letter which may be sent to churches which seem to be indicating their implicit desire to no longer be members of the association by their failure to meet the criteria of cooperating member churches.

The committee also began to prepare a form which might be used for the gathering of basic information about churches which should in the future express interest in becoming members of the association.

Work is continuing on these last two matters.

Bill Wagoner, Winston-Salem First

Personnel Committee

On October 27, 1992 the Personnel Committee was pleased to recommend to the Association in session at Ardmore that Dr. John E. Saunders, Jr. be called as Director of Congregational Development. At the time, John was serving as Director of Church Development in the Long Run Baptist Association of Louisville, Kentucky. The recommendation was approved unanimously and John, his wife Sally, and his children Ryan and Amy moved to Winston-Salem in January of 1993. He began his responsibilities in Pilot Mountain Association on January 15. As the newest executive staff member John will direct his attention to the role of consultant to local churches in the area of growth and development.

Executive Director Jim Hamblen underwent heart bypass surgery on April 12. Though we were concerned for him, we were pleased that the work of the association continued under the capable leadership of Mike Bradshaw and John Saunders. Jim's intention is that the work of the association be led by its organization and program leaders. His enabling leadership style revealed its strength as the programs and ministries of the association functioned well during his convalescence. It was a joy to welcome him back to his office on June 1.

Two highly significant anniversaries will occur this October. Administrative Secretary Peggy Hall will celebrate 20 years of service to the Association. Peggy began her ministry among us on October 3, 1973. Her faithful and efficient service has been a strength to the whole association. Executive Director Jim Hamblen was called to lead the association on October 18, 1983 and will celebrate his 10th year with us this November. Jim's visionary leadership and caring ministry has been instrumental in making Pilot Mountain one of the strongest Baptist associations in the state, and perhaps the nation.

The Personnel Committee has held six regular meetings with set agendas during the past year, along with other necessary conferences and letters. The committee works closely with the Executive Director in the correlation of job descriptions, staffing, evaluation, and budget issues. It also works closely with the Executive Board, the Finance Committee, and the Coordinating Council to give direction to all personnel matters.

We continue to thank God for a dedicated staff with whom it is a pleasure to serve.

CHARLES D. EDWARDS, Chairman

Properties Committee

Since the last reporting, the vinyl siding was completed in November, 1992.

- Door chimes installed
- Minor repairs to porch columns were made
- Mail deposit slot was installed
- For communication betterment, a telephone modem was installed to the Baptist State Convention headquarters
- As required by new insurance carrier, 3 illuminated exit lights were installed and a number of fluorescent lights were repaired
- Purchased walnut lateral files for Congregational Development Director's office; Also installed wall mounted book shelves
- Some minor plumbing maintenance and equipment repairs were made
- At an April 13, 1993 Properties Committee meeting a decision was made to change the property insurance carrier giving us a lower rate
- Discussion was held regarding the purchase of a fax machine and two new computers; however, action on this has been put on hold and will not be pursued for the time being
- An answering machine has been given and installed without charge to the PMBA

To the Committee members and all others having any part in the furthering of our service to the association, we convey our grateful appreciation.

D. J. REDDING, JR., Chairman

Strategy Committee

The Strategy Committee has been meeting monthly and at other special times during 1992-93. The membership of the committee has changed during the year due to persons leaving the Association and/or a shift in personal priorities. New members were elected to fill the vacancies. The members have been very faithful to the committee and its PMBA Vision 2000 planning process.

Some of the actions and/or accomplishments of the committee are listed below:

- Met at Caraway for an evening and next day retreat to focus on formalizing a ''PMBA Vision 2000 Planning Process,'' a Schedule and Plan of Action for completing the Process
- Prepared ''A Planning Strategy'' for PMBA Vision 2000 (See complete document at the end of this report)
- Presented the ''PMBA Vision 2000 Planning Process'' and ''A Planning Strategy'' for PMBA Vision 2000 to the Coordinating Council during its annual planning retreat in June and the Executive Board for review, recommended modifications and approval
- Participated in the Ministers Conference and the focus groups which were offered at later dates to receive data as to ''what the PMBA is doing now'' and suggestions as to ''what the PMBA should be doing differently now and in the near future'' to fulfill its PURPOSE of assisting the local congregations to fulfill their mission individually and together
- Held a ''special'' Saturday (6 hours) work session to receive and discuss the information gathered during the ministers' focus group meetings. The outcome of the meeting was to prioritize the themes which were heard during the sessions and focus on the top four of those which are clearly in the ''area of influence'' of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association through its staff, elected leaders, organizational structure, councils, committees, operating policy, practices and/or procedures. The focus groups were very beneficial in helping all of us to get to know the PMBA (ourselves) as it is ''now'' and to get a glimpse of what the PMBA should look like in the ''near future.'' ''Vision 2000'' will be the framework of transitional strategies for focusing our resources and continuing to move the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association toward becoming all that God wants and expects us to be.

The committee is devoted to focusing on meeting the needs and expectations of all of its stake-holders - YOU.

BOYCE R. WILSON, Chairman

VISION 2000: A Planning Strategy

PILOT MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

I. The local congregation comes first.

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association will respond to individual congregations, to groups of congregations, and to needs perceived by the leaders of the Association. This strategy focuses planning and activities toward assisting local congregations to be all that they care or want to become, honoring the principles of freedom and local church autonomy.

Serving local congregations is provided through customized responses to perceived needs. This focuses the Association toward dialoguing with individual congregations to determine their needs. This emphasis is in contrast to an approach wherein an association attempts to provide predetermined programs and ideas from other agencies to congregations with little regard to specific congregational concerns and desires. The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association should enter into dialogue with congregations and tailor responses very specifically to each congregation.

Serving local congregations also is provided through ideas, incentives and assistance. Staff and other leaders are resource persons. They will encourage, challenge and help congregations to enlarge their visions and become dynamic both through individual contact with associational leadership and through sponsored programs, workshops and specialized training.

II. Assisting the local congregation encompasses facilitating joint ministry and mission.

A major function of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association will be to facilitate congregations joining together to perform ministries and activities which are better accomplished together than separately.

III. All work of councils/committees is part of a process.

This strategy links the involvement of all councils, committees and staff with meeting the purpose, objectives and the strategy of the Association. All associational leadership will participate in developing the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association VISION 2000 plan. The Strategy Committee will propose definitions and objectives. Each council/committee will evaluate its mission/purpose statement to define its work and to assess its linkage to VISION 2000.

IV. Effective planning minimizes unhealthy conflict.

The mutual ministry of the Association and its congregations is enhanced when participants have a clear understanding of the purpose, their roles, and the relationships between work units. The intent of the planning process is to facilitate communication, cooperation and coordination.

V. The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is a living organism.

VISION 2000 is a dynamic plan. Its focus is to improve the process and the effectiveness of the Association as it serves congregations. Therefore, the VISION 2000 plan should continually monitor the process in order to provide changes when needed.

STRATEGY COMMITTEE

Christian Educators

Our conference is designed to give anyone who has education responsibilities at their church a chance to meet and share ideas and concerns with one another. At present, we meet on the third Wednesday of each month in an area restaurant at 11:30 AM for lunch.

During this past year we offered special programs and speakers to inform us of the educational ministries for churches.

In March we invited Bob Dale of the Baptist General Association of Virginia to lead us in a workshop on Personal Growth and the effect it can have on our ministry. This was open to all the ministers of the association and was very well attended and very informative.

In April we invited John Saunders, Congregational Development Director of the PMBA, to come and share with us some of the changes that were going to take place in the educational material from the Sunday School Board for the 1994-1995 year.

During the coming year we will continue to meet for fellowship as well as offer programs that will keep us up to date and informed about educational ministry and programs for churches.

SCOTT POND, President

Ministers Conference

The 1992-1993 year proved to be an inspiring, informative and, yet, rather interesting year for our Ministers Conference. In an attempt to fulfill its purpose, the leaders of the conference planned and provided programs that were both educational and inspirational. As a result of one of those meetings, our association found itself engaged in one of the most intense periods of ''self-evaluation'' in recent years.

We were blessed to enjoy uplifting moments of worship and fellowship not only with ministers from within our associational family, but also with those from churches, institutions and agencies outside our association.

I appreciate the cooperation and hospitality extended to our conference by those churches and individuals serving as hosts to our meetings.

CHARLES MARTIN, President 1992-93

Ministers of Music

During the 1992-93 year the Ministers of Music Conference met monthly at various churches as well as at the associational office. These meetings, designed for fellowship and encouragement, was a wonderful source of help for all who were able to attend.

One event which proved to be truly delightful was the progressive dinner on August 7th which several ministers of music graciously hosted in their homes.

To all who have worked to make the 1992-93 conference an effective one, I wish to express my sincere gratitude.

CYRUS BUSH, President

Ministers of Youth

The Ministers of Youth Conference has met monthly, with the exception of the summer months. Throughout the year, we have had opportunity to share in youth concerns, share in new information, and have had an open format to encourage one another.

Three training opportunities have been made available by the Youth Ministers Conference. In the Fall and Spring Training Extravaganzas, we hosted Mrs. Phillippa Mathis of Charlotte, who led in a curriculum and resource workshop. We also hosted Mrs. Joyce Wheeling, Miss Katrina Hamilton, and Ms. Julie Smith, who led in an overview of the OCTOPUS program designed by the Health Department. These ladies first shared this program with the youth ministers, and then in the Fall Extravaganza.

Our conference will continue to provide opportunities to help strengthen the ministry of youth within our association.

Ministers' Wives

Under the leadership of Martha Carr, president, the Ministers' Wives began the 1992-93 year in September with a Saturday morning breakfast meeting at the home of Louise Noffsinger. Other monthly meetings were held in members' homes on Thursday mornings. Exceptions were:

1. In November, the meeting of the NC Ministers' Wives on Monday afternoon preceding the opening session of the annual State Convention, when the Pilot Mountain Association's organization hosted this group and provided refreshments following the meeting.
2. In February a Valentine Banquet was shared with husbands.
3. In May, the final meeting of the year was a covered dish luncheon at the association's Resource Center.

The purpose of the organization remains unchanged: "to promote fellowship among the Baptist Ministers' Wives of our association; to provide opportunities for friendship, learning and service; and to share, listen, and encourage one another.

"We want our fellowship to provide not only fun, but also an opportunity for us to become all that God wants us to be as we share together."

Officers for 1993-94 are:

President .... Velma McGee, College Park
Vice President .... Etta Stokes, Winston-Salem First

Secretary/Treasurer/Historian .... Johnsie Liner, Knollwood and George Kitchen, College Park
Devotional Chairman .... Edna Myers, Wake Forest
Programs .... Frances Goss, Ardmore, and Martha Carr, Wake Forest

VELMA McGEE, Vice President 1992-93

PMBA Secretaries

The PMBA Secretaries Conference seeks to promote fellowship and encouragement between the secretaries and staff members of the various churches in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. We try to keep abreast of personal and business situations that need our prayer support. We provide programs that keep us aware of trends and needs that affect the church personnel staff.

This conference meets bi-monthly at noon, usually on the second Thursday of the month, at various churches in the association. A luncheon and program are provided for those who attend at a cost of $3.00 per person. Membership is open to secretaries and other staff members of Baptist churches, agencies and institutions in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, and other religious organizations in our area, whether full time, part time, or volunteer.

During the past year our programs have included the following:

November, 1992	SEASONS OF THE SOUTH led by Emily Cockerham, Duke Power Company. This meeting was hosted by Old Town Baptist Church. There was an error in scheduling and Ms. Cockerham presented her program of crafts and holiday ideas the following week at Fellowship Baptist Church.
January, 1993	A MINI CONCERT was presented by several vocalists at Calvary Baptist Church.
March, 1993	Dr. Judy Hopkins, Women's Cancer Specialist, presented a program on preventive and early detection of cancer in women. This meeting was hosted by Knollwood Baptist Church.
May, 1993	MINISTER'S EXPECTATIONS OF A SECRETARY, led by a panel of ministers. Union Cross Baptist was the host church.
July, 1993	CHRISTMAS IN JULY - This meeting was held at Miller Park with a picnic. Earlene Bowman, Oaklawn, and Charlott Mayhall, Calvary, were hostesses.
September, 1993	FIRE SAFETY IN THE HOME AND OFFICE, led by Ken West, Assistant Fire Marshall for the Winston-Salem Fire Department. Hostesses were Peggy Hall, Sandra Hall, and Karen Taylor at the PMBA Resource Center.

Executive Board

Serving as Moderator and Chairman of the Executive Board of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has indeed been a pleasure. I am certain that we have one of the best associations in the state. We have so many fine churches, talented people, and capable staff that we are in a unique position to work together to carry out the Great Commission of Christ. "Let us not become weary in well doing."

I would like to thank Peters Creek Church for hosting the Spring Meeting of the Association and South Fork for hosting this Fall Meeting.

While the financial support from the churches to the association was down this year, I am grateful to each church for the support received. I am especially thankful to those churches who gave above their budgeted amounts in order to ease the financial crunch. If each church could see fit to raise their budgeted giving to our association by one-half of one percent of undesignated giving, we would be in a good position to serve our churches better and to do missions for our Lord together.

The following is a brief account of each Executive Board Meeting.

December 15, 1992

45 leaders present representing 27 churches

- Elected the following to serve: Jane Pike, Louise Venable, Single Adult Council; Paul Edmond, Lloyd McNeill, and Jim Nelson, Finance Committee (1995 term); Rachel McKnight and Bill Wagoner, Nominating Committee (1995 term).
- Approved sales connected with the ministry of Self Help Crafts and literacy material.
- Endorsed a Real Life Crusade led by Jim Wilson April 24-28, 1994 with no financial responsibility on the part of the association.
- Approved housing allowances for executive staff.
- Voted for Finance Committee to establish a contingency fund line item and that it be funded by carry over money at the end of the calendar year.

March 30, 1993

35 leaders present representing 18 churches

- Approved the proposed program for Spring Meeting on April 25th at Peters Creek.
- Granted the Hispanic Church permission to compose a letter to be sent to every PMBA congregation asking them to take up a free will offering with which to buy materials to construct a Hispanic church building.
- Elected Steve Ayers, Union Cross, to fill unexpired term on Nominating Committee.
- Elected one council director, two council members, two committee members, and Mission FOCUS Team member.
- Voted for the association to participate in Simultaneous Revivals in the spring of 1995 with April 2-9 being suggested dates.

June 29, 1993

33 leaders present representing 23 churches

- Elected seven new council members and three committee members, plus one chairman for 1993-94.
- Thanked D. J. Redding for building two large collection bins for the Resource Center.
- Referred recommendation to sponsor Ukrainian home missionaries to Finance Committee.

September 28, 1993

39 leaders present representing 23 churches

- Voted to participate in the North Carolina/Ukrainian Partnership for the duration of the partnership (1993-1995).
- Received very positive Audit Committee report (Audit by Gray, Callison, and Company).
- Endorsed "The Crossing 52 Initiative."
- Elected seven new members to serve on PMBA Councils.
- Approved proposed program for Annual Meeting October 26 and gave Order of Business Committee authority to make any needed changes.
- Voted to set aside a Sunday this year as Day of Prayer for the association and asked staff to establish date and plan details.

C. IRVIN GRIGG, SR., Moderator and
Chairperson, Executive Board

Executive Director of Missions

Someone has said that everyday life is filled with "peaks" and "valleys." If this is true, then 1993 may be described by this time-worn cliche. Since we gathered as a PMBA family of churches in the fall of 1992, some of those high and low events have changed our lives, individually and collectively. Because of these experiences we will never be the same again.

1. In January, John Saunders assumed the responsibilities as Congregational Development Director. Those churches he has assisted will testify to his abilities, creative ideas and willingness to meet them where they are in order to help them move toward where they want to be.
2. Before the staff had the opportunity to adjust to this new relationship, I experienced my third or fourth heart attack (the doctors are still not sure) and the subsequent triple bypass surgery. I returned to work the first of June and discovered that the PMBA was in the midst of the most severe financial crisis we had experienced over the past decade. The Finance Committee and the Administrative Committee decided that several factors caused this situation. The difficulties of the economic crunch across our nation, the upheaval throughout our denomination, and the increased financial demands within the local congregations seem to be the most obvious causes. To the credit of the associational leaders, we have determined to operate within our financial means. And this is mature stewardship of the trust given to us by the churches.
3. During July and August the staff conducted open listening sessions for all the ministers in the association in an attempt to determine the wants, needs and expectations of the congregations from the PMBA. As a result of this experience, the Strategy Committee is gathering the insights and suggestions and will present recommendations for short term and long term changes which will enhance the purpose of the PMBA to glorify GOD...and...to assist the churches to be in fellowship and on mission individually and together.

As we move into the new year the staff, the elected leadership, and all work units will do all in our power to fine tune our efforts to help those struggling churches, to support those ministers in need, and to offer all our organizational structures as the channel for mission causes within our area. In years to come, may we look back on this year as a time of Faith/Commitment to the Will of GOD in all of our lives.

JAMES V. HAMBLEN, Executive Director

Honors Clerks

It is a privilege to recognize church clerks who achieved HONORS CLERK this year. These 14 clerks or church secretaries met the following requirements:

- Attend the associational Clerks Conference in August
- Have their church's Uniform Church Letter in to the PMBA office by the deadline
- Turn in a neat and legible Uniform Church Letter.

Associational staff and leaders commend these hard working, dedicated people and we know the congregations they serve are very proud of them. Congratulations to:

Dedication

This year we would like to dedicate the PMBA Annual to a faithful and dedicated servant, Mrs. Peggy Baucum Hall. Thank you, Peggy, for twenty years of loyalty and servanthood.

James V. Hamblen

Peggy Baucom Hall

Every now and then, not often, organizations have the privilege and opportunity to honor a person worthy of such esteem.

The time has now come of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association to so honor one of its own worthy servants in the person of Peggy Baucom Hall who served so excellently for a little more than twenty years.

Peggy was well-born and well-reared. She was also well-endowed to be the kind of servant that she was and still remains, though in retirement.

Her parents were humble, God-loving, God-fearing persons who loved each of their children and reared them in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord's leading each of them to a personal knowledge of and faith in God through faith in Jesus Christ.

Early in life Peggy learned the value of serving God as revealed in Jesus Christ through His church. It is no surprise that she married this kind of husband, Paul Hall.

She began her secretarial service as secretary for the Southside Baptist Church in Winston-Salem and its pastor in the early 1940s. A humble spirit and a strong desire to serve God by serving people led her to find a special means and place for meeting the needs of people wherever she happened to live and to teach others so to do.

Marrying a military man made it possible and necessary for them to live and serve in many parts of the world. Wherever they went, they found a place of service for and in the name of the Lord through His churches. As a result God called Paul, her husband, to preach the gospel and finally into the pastorate of churches.

They established and worked in church missions in Little Rock, Arkansas; Mount Home, Idaho; California, the interior of Panama, and Texas. Some of these missions grew to become organized Baptist churches. In Yokofuka, Japan, Peggy served as hostess of the Christian Men's Center.

From 1980-1985 they helped the Danbury Mission to grow into an organized church of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

The end is not yet. She still serves. May her tribe of God's servants increase around the world.

Constitution

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this body shall be the "Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Incorporated" according to the laws and statutes of the State of North Carolina, and is hereinafter referred to as the Association.

ARTICLE II. MISSION AND OBJECTIVES

A. Mission

The mission of the Association is to glorify GOD through Jesus Christ by assisting and encouraging congregations, individually and collectively, to be in fellowship and to fulfill their mission.

B. Objectives

The objectives of the Association shall be:

1. To assist the congregations to ENHANCE THE FELLOWSHIP;
   (Help congregations relate to each other in a growing and mutually supportive fellowship within the family of believers in Christ)
2. To assist the congregations to REACH PEOPLE;
   (Help congregations accelerate their efforts to share the gospel with all people and to develop New Testament churches)
3. To assist the congregations to DEVELOP BELIEVERS;
   (Help congregations emphasize the biblical imperative to equip the saints by developing believers in prayer, discipleship, and stewardship and by calling out the called)
4. To assist the congregations to STRENGTHEN MISSIONS;
   (Help congregations fulfill the biblical mandate to go into all the world by strengthening their missions education, enlarging missions involvement, and increasing missions giving)
5. To assist the congregations to IMPROVE THE ORGANIZATION;
   (Help congregations determine the direction and participate in the life of the Association).

ARTICLE III. AUTHORITY

While the Association is autonomous under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, it claims no authority over any other Baptist body.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP

A. Composition

The Association shall be composed of Baptist churches which in their faith, polity and practice are in harmony with the purpose of the Association, and are actively participating in the support and work of the Association.

B. Affiliation

Any constituted Baptist church may be received under the watchcare of the Association for one year, after which it may be received by vote of the Association into this fellowship of churches, upon recommendation of the Credentials Committee to confirm evidence that the church is committed to harmonious and active involvement in the purpose and work of the Association.

C. Messengers

Messengers from the member churches shall constitute the session of the Association. Messengers shall be elected by the churches they represent. The pastors of member churches will be recognized as messengers; further, the number of messengers from each church, in addition to the pastor, shall be determined as follows:

Three (3) messengers from each church for the first one hundred (100) members or fraction thereof, and one (1) messenger for each additional one hundred (100) members or major fraction thereof, up to a total of ten (10) messengers.

Such messengers shall be duly certified in the annual letter sent by the church to the Association.

The courtesies of the floor (report, discussion or debate) may be extended to non-messengers at the discretion of the body.

D. Withdrawal and Dismissal

1. A member church may withdraw from the Association by writing an official letter to that effect to the Credentials Committee. If, after consultation with the Credentials Committee, the member church maintains its desire to withdraw, the request for withdrawal will be referred to the Executive Board. The Executive Board shall recommend to the Association in session that the request be granted.
2. A member church may be dismissed from the Association if its faith, polity, or practice are not in harmony with the purpose of the Association, or if it fails to send a Uniform Church Letter and/or messengers for three (3) consecutive years. In such case, the Credentials Committee shall make every effort to resolve the problem; but if that is not possible, it will recommend dismissal of the Church to the Executive Board, which will, in turn, submit the matter for final action to the Association in session. A two-thirds majority vote of the Association in session shall be required or this action.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS

A. Regular Meetings

The Association shall meet semiannually during the months of April and October.

B. Special Meetings

The Executive Board may call special sessions of the Association as the need arises. The Executive Board shall determine the time and place of called meetings. Written notices of special sessions with a statement of purpose for the meeting must be sent to all pastors and church-elected members of the Executive Board at least thirty (30) days before the session.

ARTICLE VI. ORGANIZATION

A. General Officers

The general officers of the Association shall be moderator, vice-moderator, clerk, assistant clerk, treasurer, and assistant treasurer. The general officers shall be the trustees of and the legal agent of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Incorporated. They shall have power to hold title; to buy, sell, lease, convey and receive gifts of and personal) for the Association; and to incur indebtedness in accord with the instructions of the Association in session or the Executive Board. The moderator shall sign as president; the vice-moderator as vice-president; the clerk or assistant clerk as secretary; and the treasurer or assistant treasurer as treasurer of the corporation. The signatures of any two of the officers named above shall be binding upon the corporation.

B. Associational Representatives

The Association may provide a representative for each requesting institution, agency or board.

C. Executive Board

The Executive Board shall act as the Association ad interim, except as limited by the constitution and bylaws of the Association.

D. Councils

1. Associational Coordinating Council
   The Association shall have a Coordinating Council whose function shall be to coordinate the overall purpose and objectives of the Association as stated in Article II.
2. Mission Performance Councils
   The Association shall have Mission Performance Councils designed to accomplish the Association's purpose and objectives by assisting the churches in the various areas of program development

E. Conferences [See Policies & Procedures Manual]

F. Committees

1. Standing Committees
   The Association shall have standing committees whose purposes and functions shall be to perform appropriate administrative services for the Association as an organizational entity.
2. Special Committees
   The Association may have such special committees whose task shall be clearly defined at the time of appointment by the moderator. These special committees will serve for limited duration.

G. Staff

The Association may employ such staff persons as it deems necessary to carry on its work. Unless otherwise provided by the Association, the staff shall be elected by the Association upon nomination by the Personnel Committee.

ARTICLE VII. FINANCES

The Association shall have power to raise funds by voluntary contributions for carrying out its purpose and objectives. The financial records of the Association shall be audited annually.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENT

This constitution may be amended or revised only by the Association in session by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the messengers present. Any changes not brought by the Constitution Committee must first be referred to it for consideration. Proposed changes must be mailed to Executive Board members of the member churches at least thirty (30) days in advance of the associational meeting in which action on the change is proposed.

Revised October 18, 1994

VII. ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES COMMITTEES

Members of all administrative services committees shall be elected for a three (3) year term on a rotational basis. Policies and procedures of the administrative services committees are set forth in PMBA Operations Manual.

A. Communications Committee

The committee designs, implements and evaluates an effective program of communications for the Association. Its duties are:

1. To develop and implement an annual Associational Emphasis Week promotion plan;
2. To foster mutually beneficial relationships with secular media in the community;
3. To develop and implement a total communications plan to and from the churches;
4. To provide communications assistance to the churches;
5. To develop an effective communications plan with various groups in the area.

B. Constitution Committee

The committee monitors the administration and the organization of the Association in the light of the Constitution, By-Laws, Policies and Procedures (PMBA Operations Manual) adopted by the Association. Its duties are:

1. To receive and consider changes/revisions to these documents as recommended by others;
2. To evaluate the primary documents (listed above) and recommend changes/ revisions as needed;
3. To serve as advisor to the Association in session and the Executive Board on matters regarding parliamentary procedure.

C. Credentials Committee

The committee assists the Association in determining when the churches are of like faith and order and can be properly accepted into the fellowship of the Association. It should work in close cooperation with the Church Growth Council and the primary officers of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To recommend and implement approved guidelines for receiving churches into the Association;
2. To counsel with churches seeking admission into the fellowship of the Association;
3. To examine the credentials of churches seeking admission into the fellowship of the Association.

D. Finance Committee

The committee assists the Association in securing, administering and reporting finances.

Its duties are:

1. To develop and recommend the annual budget at the fall meeting of the Association;
2. To conduct studies and make recommendations concerning proposed expenditures not included in the annual budget of the Association;
3. To review expenditures periodically and recommend adjustments to the annual budget if needed;

4. To develop and recommend financial policies and procedures of the Association.
5. To select the independent auditor for annual external audit.
6. To review the findings of the auditor and submit the annual report to the Association.

E. Nominating Committee

The committee leads in coordinating the selection of all elected leaders of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To select, interview, enlist and recommend general officers, program organization leaders, and committee personnel of the Association, entrusting to the Administrative Committee the recommendation of all replacements to the Nominating Committee;
   (NOTE: These leaders then become a part of the committee.)
2. To coordinate the selection of workers for all the organizations, councils, and committees of the Association;
3. To distribute leadership personnel according to the priority needs of the Association;
4. To assist program organization leaders in discovering and enlisting qualified persons to fill positions in their respective organizations;
5. To present workers to the Association in session for election;
6. To assist the Moderator in the appointment of special committees or work groups as requested.

F. Order of Business Committee

The committee assists the Association in planning and conducting the regular and called meetings of the Association in session. Its duties are:

1. To propose to the Executive Board an order of business for the Association in session;
2. To enlist the program personnel for all meetings of the Association in session;
3. To publicize the proposed order of business for all meetings of the Association in session to the churches and at least thirty (30) days in advance of such meetings;
4. To arrange for all facilities needed for the Association in session in cooperation with the Moderator and other program personnel;
5. To arrange for and conduct proper registration of messengers and visitors to the Association in session and to report registration at such meetings as requested;
6. To assure that during the Association in session an appropriate recognition is given to those who have died;
7. To receive, consider and present (as appropriate) all resolutions to the Association in session;
8. To receive invitations from churches and suggestions for program emphases and personnel for future meetings of the Association in session;
9. To propose at each session the meeting place(s) and speaker(s) for the next Association in session.

G. Personnel Committee

The committee assists the Association in supervising all paid and volunteer staff of the Association. Its duties are:

1. To recommend policies and procedures for the selection, supervision, and termination of all staff personnel of the Association;
2. To prepare and maintain an organizational manual (as a part of the Operations Manual) relating to the personnel (professional, support and volunteer) of the Association;
3. To recruit, interview and recommend to the Association all new staff personnel in full cooperation with the appropriate supervisor;
4. To develop and recommend salaries and benefits for all employed personnel;
5. To develop and recommend to the Association all policies and procedures for paid and volunteer staff of the Association;
6. To develop and recommend policies and procedures regarding continuing education and development for paid staff of the Association.

H. Properties Committee

The committee maintains all properties owned by the Association. Its duties are:

1. To inspect and keep inventory of associational properties;
2. To make recommendations to the Personnel Committee regarding the employment, training, and supervision of maintenance personnel;
3. To develop and initiate scheduled cleaning procedures;
4. To develop and recommend a program of preventive maintenance;
5. To develop and recommend policies and procedures for using facilities and equipment;
6. To request and administer maintenance, furniture, and equipment budget;
7. To develop and recommend an adequate insurance plan.

I. Strategy Committee

The committee assists the Association in determining its strategic objectives and staying on course in achieving them. Its duties are:

1. To monitor the needs and opportunities of the churches;
2. To provide updated information to the churches and to the programs of the Association;
3. To recommend annual planning guidelines for the Association;
4. To review and make recommendations regarding the coordinated plan in reference to planning guidelines for the Association;
5. To recommend modifications in the organizational structure of the Association in order to help fulfill the purpose and objectives of the Association;
6. To lead the Association to conduct strategic planning

A. Executive Staff

All executive staff members should retain the “three-dimensional model” of minister, strategist and leader with different emphases among the dimensions as the particular area of work demands. All employed staff will be accountable, through the Executive Director and the Personnel Committee, to the Executive Board and the Association in session.

Job descriptions of all staff members are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

B. Support Staff

The support staff is primarily clerical and serves the executive staff, the general officers, program organization councils, and committees of the Association. Job descriptions are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

C. Volunteer Staff
Since the work of the Association exceeds the ability or propriety of employing sufficient persons to accomplish all the tasks of the Association, volunteers will be enlisted, trained and utilized wherever feasible. Appropriate expressions of gratitude and recognition for such workers are the responsibility of the executive staff of the Association.

IX. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The policies and procedures of the Association and the specific organizational units thereof shall be proposed by those specific units affected. These policies and procedures shall be considered by the Constitution Committee and approved by the Executive Board or the Association in session. These policies and procedures shall become the PMBA Operations Manual.

X. REVISIONS

The By-Laws may be revised by the Association in session by a simple majority vote of the messengers present and voting. Any changes not recommended by the Constitution Committee must first be referred to them for study and consideration. Proposed changes must be mailed to Executive Board members of the member churches at least thirty (30) days in advance of the meeting of the Association in which action on the change is proposed.

Proceedings

1994 SPRING SESSION
of the

King, North Carolina

THEME: Changed Lives...Changing the World

1. The Spring Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held Sunday, April 17, 1994 at King First Baptist. Joyce Love, moderator and member of Clemmons First, convened the session at 3:05 PM with a warm welcome to all attending. Mrs. Love expressed gratitude to Eddie Brackett and King first for the use of the church facilities as well as the participation of so many members in making the Spring Session a success. Mrs. Love then requested that those attending to be sure to fill out a registration card which would be collected later in the meeting.

2. Jim Hamblen, Director of Missions of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, presented prayer requests for two associational families: Charlie and Marjorie Turner, in the death of Marjorie's mother, Hattie Bodenhammer, on Friday, April 15; and Johnny Pitts, minister of music and youth at Glenn View, in the death of his wife, Kaye Pitts, early Sunday morning, April 17. Charlie Turner is director of the Language Missions Council and Marjorie Turner is a PMBA office volunteer.

3. Eddie Brackett, pastor of King First, led the Spring session in a brief devotional. His text was taken from Romans 12:2, "I Beseech you brethren..." Rev. Brackett reminded those present of the theme for Spring session, "Changed Lives...Changing the World." He went on to say that regrettably the church has been so infiltrated by the world that instead of turning the world upside down for Christ, we have been turned upside down by the world.

4. David Hasker, minister of music at Northwest, blessed the congregation with the song, "Each One, Reach One."

5. Joyce Love introduced the two speakers, who were to give their personal testimony. Randy Tesh, the first speaker, is the nephew of Mrs. Love. Mr. Tesh grew up in Clemmons and is the son of Ray and Sue Tesh. (Sue Tesh is a PMBA office volunteer and active in the association.) Randy owns his own construction company and attends Center Grove Baptist Church.

   The second speaker, Dennis Wingate, is a member of New Beginning Baptist church. Mr. Wingate was raised in Oregon and is also in the construction business.

In his testimony, Randy Tesh brought out the fact that many people come from broken homes--but not him. He cannot blame the poor choices he made on his upbringing. Mr. Tesh told how he got messed up with drugs, and that from this experience he has to remind himself not to be judgmental of kids coming up today who make the same mistakes as he made. Randy Tesh went on to say that it took him many years, with the perseverance of prayers from especially his mother, to come to the realization that he needed to get help. Even after Randy had made a decision to stop using drugs, his concept of God was only "generic." For over 13 years, Mr. Tesh stated, he had been "in" the world. Only God could bring him back. Now he has recommitted his life to the Lord. Many times he still finds himself asking, "Why me? Why was I allowed to survive and live, to be saved? I am so grateful for the price God paid for me."

6. Rich Lowder led the congregation in "There Is A Savior."

7. Karen Taylor, PMBA clerk, moved that those messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body of the Spring Session. Motion was seconded and approved.

8. Carlton Mitchell, chairman of Nominating Committee, on behalf of the Nominating Committee, moved that the nominees listed (see attached) be elected. There were no nominations from the floor and the motion carried.

9. Congregational Development Director, John Saunders, presented two associational leadership diplomas to Mrs. Shirley Dudley, who received the Family Ministry Diploma, and Annette Horsley, who received the Missions Leadership Diploma. Shirley Dudley is a member of Clemmons First and serves on the PMBA Discipleship Training Council, and Annette Horsley is a member of Parkway.

10. Ty Talton, director of the PMBA Sunday School Council, presented certificates of achievement to the following churches:

    Highest Numerical Increase in Sunday School Enrollment - Calvary & Center Grove
    Highest Percentage Increase in Sunday School Enrollment - Hispanic Mission
    Highest Numerical Increase in Sunday School Attendance - Center Grove
    Highest Percentage Increase in Sunday School Attendance - New Life

11. Mike Bradshaw, Ministries Development Director, presented two awards for Training Extravaganza. Before presenting the awards he said that the spring of 1993 was the first Training Extravaganza in the association. The idea had been growing for sometime mainly because so many churches were complaining that the association was overloading their calendar with conferences and workshops. The Training Extravaganza, which is held twice per year, was implemented. Each time there has been 30 plus churches participating.

    To congregation with highest number of participants - Glenn View.
    To congregation with highest percentage of participants - Stoney Ridge.

12. Charlie Turner, director of the Language Missions Council, gave a report on the work of the Language Missions Council:

- Korean Mission now has a full-time pastor, Peter Cho.
- Japanese Mission is having very good attendance. They use Northwest Baptist Church's facilities.
- International Community Church is headed up by Joseph Jesudason. They use facilities at Calvary Baptist Church.
- Mr. Turner said that by fall the association hopes to have a China Ministry started.
- By the fall meeting the Triad Hispanic Ministries will have their new facility finished.

Mr. Turner concluded by saying, "We must accept the challenge to 'go ye therefore.' Whatever it takes, our progress depends on what we are willing to do. The Language Missions program at PMBA is growing by leaps and bounds--make no mistake about it!"

Larry Doyle, minister of Triad Hispanic Baptist Church was introduced by Charlie Turner. Mr. Doyle gave an update on the progress of the building of the new facility. He reported that there is now $75,000 contributed toward the building fund and they are now ready to begin construction. Next week they hope to pour the slab. Many churches from Welcome, North Carolina, and Greensboro have donated materials, totaling over $23,000. If other churches want to get in on the blessings, Mr. Doyle requested that they pick up a brochure before leaving the Spring Meeting today.

Mr. Doyle went on to report that the Lord is really blessing the Hispanic Ministry. The beginning of the migrant ministry is just now starting up. The Triad Hispanic Ministries aim is to reach as many migrants as possible with health kits, etc. He ended his report by asking the people to continue to pray for the Language Missions Council and its work. And to pray that the council will find another "spark" plug like Charlie Turner, who will be rotating off the council in October.

13. Dennis Wingate gave the second testimony for the meeting. Mr. Wingate told that he had been a Christian since 1985, yet the number of times he actually attended church could be counted on his hand. He has been a Christian for nine years. Prior to that he was on the gradual road to hell. Before his conversion, he said he had all the trappings of a successful life but was not happy. But at the time he accepted Christ as savior, he realized his life was headed in a different direction. Up until January 1990 he had plea bargained with the Lord. But on that particular night he gave up all the areas of his life and stepped out of the comfort zone. Now, Mr. Wingate said, he is focused on Jesus Christ. A couple of years ago the Lord called Dennis Wingate to full-time Christian service. He ended his testimony by saying, "I feel I'm back in the Potter's House and he is molding me once again."

14. Martha Lopez, minister of music at King First, led the choir in the song, "Lord, Here Am I."

15. Levy Goodrich, pastor of Robinhood Road, led the congregation in the offertory prayer. Before praying, Pastor Goodrich recounted the impact that two men had upon Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The first was Lewis Ludlum. He mentioned that there were two words that described Lewis Ludlum. The first word is love. Lewis loved the Lord Jesus Christ with all his heart. He loved the association and all the people connected with it with such a love. The other word is wisdom. He had a dream to build the PMBA Resource Center.

The second man Pastor Goodrich mentioned was Harold Southern. He mentioned that he had not the privilege of knowing Mr. Southern. Mr. Southern's love for his family, as well as his deep love for missions, Robinhood Road Baptist Church, Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, and the state and foreign missions, led him to bequeath a large sum of money to the cause of Christ, upon his death. He gave over $38,000 to these causes, including a substantial gift to the association. And a year after his death, he is still making his dream for missions come to reality.

16. Joyce Love introduced Charles Martin, pastor of Cornerstone Baptist Church and PMBA Discipleship Training Council director. Mrs. Love told that Pastor Martin has been with Cornerstone for over seven years and is very active in the association. Mr. Martin is past president of the Ministers Conference, Discipleship Training Council director, and Prayer Chairman of the Greater Winston-Salem Area Crusade.

17. Martha Bond Lopez, minister of music at King First, led the choir in "Jesus Is Lord of All."

18. Charles Martin brought greetings from Cornerstone Baptist Church. He told how proud they were to be a part of such a fine association. Looking back over the last seven years, he cannot help but remember how the association has stood by Cornerstone in its growing stages. Mr. Martin thanked the staff personally as he said, "It is a great privilege for me to stand here today and thank you, Associational staff--Karen, Sandra, Mike, John, and Jim--and yes, Peggy as well. You exemplify Christ and all He means to us."

    Mr. Martin spoke about how this was a special honor and a very humble experience for him. He told he had to ask himself, "What are you doing here?" Rev. Martin recounted the number of movies that have recently been made regarding the subject of "ghosts." His favorite was "Ghost Dad" with actor Bill Cosby. On the surface, the actor's antics seemed fantastic until suddenly he was confronted with the fact that he could not be seen. This was very frustrating. Mr. Martin said that in the real world our church faces being a "Phantom Church." Unless we change how we do church, the world will walk away from us. Pastor Martin said that according to Matthew 5:13-16 Jesus called us to be the salt of the world. He went on to say that he believes Jesus called us to be changed agents of the world. And then he reflected upon the theme for the Spring Meeting, "Changed lives...Changing the World." He charged that we are called to have an impact on society, be agents of change for the glory of God. Mr. Martin went on to say we must ask ourselves, "What impact am I making? What is my influence for the glory of God? Are we fast becoming a "Ghost Church?"

    Mr. Martin said that in Acts 2 the Holy Spirit was poured out on the early church and endued the church with His power. The Apostle Peter preached a bold, penetrating message that touched the lives of 3,000 that day. The Christians healed the lame..the beggars...thousands were transformed. According to the Acts 17, from which the text for the Spring Meeting was taken, there was a great multitude to join Paul and Silas. However, many Jews who were not persuaded to convert, called a special meeting to complain about the early Christians. They charged that the Christians were "turning the world upside down." Charles Martin asked us to imagine what it would be like for our town officials to call and complain to Pilot Mountain Baptist Association that we were turning their world upside down! Mr. Martin said that the way in which we change lives comes down to three words:

(The following are excerpts from his sermon.)

- Conversion - Changing the world and influencing our own society is kingdom work and we cannot participate in Kingdom work if we can't see the King. Charles told how he was hearing of many, many pastors finally coming to really "know" Christ as Savior. There are many stories he has recently heard regarding the transformation of servants of God. Then he asked if those of us sitting in the audience knew Christ as savior. "Have you," he asked, "given yourself to Jesus--asking Him to change you and make you transformed?" "We cannot", he said, "change this world unless we have personally experienced that "transforming power" of Jesus Christ."
- Confrontation - "This is where we get a little nervous." said Pastor Martin. If we ever hope to be effective we have to confront the world for Christ....People are not interested in phonies...If we are going to have an impact on the world then we must be like Paul and "not be ashamed."
- Compassion - We can't just confront...We must show compassion. Why did God give us John 3:16? It was because he had compassion. The New Testament tells us that He was moved with compassion on them...I ask you what Jesus, watching people and seeing abuse, wanderings toward the abyss of hell, is feeling? Compassion...Jesus must show divine, eternal compassion through us.

Pastor Martin concluded his sermon by charging us to reveal these areas of our lives to others. He brought out the fact that if Christ can actually transform our lives whereby we live up to these three important steps, then Jim Hamblen just might get a call from some government official that "these Baptist are indeed turning the world upside down!" He then charged those present to pray that he, Charles Martin, would be that kind of pastor. "After all," said Charles, "that is what being a Christian is all about. Changed lives...changing the world."

The message was brought to a close with an invitation.

Joyce Love thanked Charles Martin for his challenge, and to those who came to make the Spring Meeting so special. Following closing prayer by Mrs. Love, the meeting was adjourned.

Proceedings

of the

109th Annual Session

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

Antioch Baptist Church
Winston-Salem, NC
October 18, 1995

THEME: "Expanding the Vision"
Text: Isaiah 54:1-3; Habakkuk 2:3

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. The 109th Annual Meeting of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held on Tuesday, October 26, 1994 at Antioch Baptist Church. Joyce Love, moderator and member of Clemmons First, convened the afternoon session at 3:02 PM.

2. David Lane, PMBA music director and minister of music at College Park, led the congregation in singing, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

3. Pastor Don Davis, on behalf of the congregation of Antioch, welcomed everyone to their church. He asked that each person present allow God to speak to their hearts. Pastor Davis led in prayer.

4. Karen Taylor, clerk for the association, made the motion those messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body of the 109th annual session. Tripp May, Northwest, seconded the motion and it carried. There were 236 registered messengers, officers and leaders, and 88 visitors for a total of 324 in attendance representing 69 churches.

5. Boyce Wilson, chairman of the Strategy Committee and member of Knollwood, presented Vision 2000 - A Framework for Planning 1995 and Beyond. Mr. Wilson explained what Vision 2000 means to the association. He then moved that the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association adopt PMBA:Vision 2000 as its framework for planning for 1995 and beyond.

6. Jim Hamblen, Executive Director, announced to the session that special prayer was needed for the congregation of Union Grove Baptist Church. A church member was murdered early Monday morning and discovered by her mother. She was survived by a husband and two children. Pastor Charles Stevens, Kernersville First, led in a special time of prayer for Union Grove and the family of this slain mother.

   Mr. Hamblen called everyone's attention to the Resource Pak. This packet of information was designed by the Communications Committee as a means of communicating the plans and programs of the councils and committees of the association. Mr. Hamblen recognized Tim Love, son of moderator Joyce Love, for his design cover. He also praised Bill Adkerson, chairman of the Communications Committee and member of Winston-Salem First, for his contribution in making the Resource Pak a reality.

7. Pastor Don Davis escorted ninety-three year old Bertha Sneed to the front of the church. This was Mrs. Sneed's 59th consecutive meeting. Mrs. Sneed told those present that this was the second time an associational meeting was held at Antioch.

   Mr. Hamblen recognized Paul Faircloth, representative of the Baptist State Convention Church Extension Department. Mr. Faircloth stated that the Baptist State Convention was ready to help the churches in any way possible.

   Bill Yates, representative of the North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc. was recognized. Mr. Hamblen told everyone that Mr. Yates would soon have a collection of articles he had written published in book form.

   New ministers were recognized. They were asked to stand.

8. Peggy Conrad brought greetings from the Baptist State Convention. Mrs. Conrad reported that the Baptist State Convention has tried new ways to communicate the cause of Southern Baptists across the state. Through hosting listening sessions they hope to better understand the hurts and needs of the Baptists of North Carolina. She said that "the key to Baptist life was flexibility, freedom and cooperation."

9. David Hasker led the congregation in singing, "To Worship, Work, and Witness."

10. Amis Daniel, vice moderator of the association and member of King First, spoke on What I Have Seen and Experienced in PMBA. Mr. Daniel told the congregation that he has been involved in the association for approximately 28 years, most of that time serving on the Finance Committee. "My experience," said Mr. Daniel, "has been of encouragement. Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has encouraged me as a pastor and has encouraged the churches where I have pastored." Mr. Daniel said that he has seen this association struggling for money over the years to do its work. "We have had no trouble raising money for Lottie Moon...Should have no struggles raising money for the association--cause that's missions too!" said Mr. Daniel. He told the audience that the trouble with the association's finances stem from our inability to see missions unless its way off across the ocean.

11. David Lane, PMBA music director and minister of music at College Park, sang "Be Thou My Vision."

12. Jerry Benfield, pastor of Walkertown First, led in a Time of Remembrance for those who died this past year: Marguerite Years, Wake Forest Baptist Church; Hilda Warfford, Ardmore Baptist Church; and Phil Epperson, Ardmore Baptist Church. These three individuals had served over the years in several capacities in the PMBA. Mr. Benefield led the congregation in prayer for those mentioned as well as for others who had died in the past year.

13. Moderator Love recommended that we adopt the calendar as presented. The recommendation was seconded by Tripp May and it carried.
14. Frances Yancey, chairman of the Audit Committee reported that the audit was done by Gray, Callison and Company, Inc., and was very favorable. There were no problems reflected in the report. The report in its entirety will be placed in the associational office. Those interested in reading it should go by the associational office. Mr. Yancey made the motion that the Audit Report as given by Gray, Callison and Company, Inc. be accepted as presented. The motion carried.

15. Bill Norris, assistant treasurer and member of Griffith, gave the Treasurer's Report. In referring everyone to page 36 of the Book of Reports, Mr. Norris said that it looks much better this year than last year. He pointed out that we are now operating in the black.

16. The Proposed 1995 Budget Summary was presented to the association in session. Mr. Snyder pointed out that finances are better than they were last year. Reasons for this (1) a church that had pledged a percentage of its budget but was unable to fulfill pledge on time honored its commitment at a later date; (2) Some of the churches increased their given on a percentage basis. Mr. Snyder encouraged the congregations to consider basing their amount to the association on a percentage. As God blesses each church the association will share in the increase.

17. Mr. Wilson Harmon, chairman of the Constitution Committee, submitted revisions to the Constitution and Bylaws. These proposed revisions were presented the Associational Coordinating Council and the Executive Board. Mr. Wilson made the motion that these revisions be approved. The motion carried.

18. Carlton Mitchell, chairman of the Nominating Committee and member of Wake Forest, presented the slate of officers/leaders for 1994-1995. Mr. Mitchell encouraged anyone interested in serving on a committee or council to please notify the Nominating Committee. He praised the committee for their high perseverance. He made the motion that the 109th Annual Session adopt the list of associational leaders as presented on their report.

19. Charlie Turner, director of the Language Missions Council, praised the work being done in the area of language missions. He told those present that we have a mission field right here in the Triad. Mr. Turner gave a glowing report of the work involved in completing the Hispanic Baptist Church. He also praised the work of the Korean Mission, whose mother church is Winston-Salem First. The Japanese work at Northwest is growing according to the report from Mr. Turner. He asked for our prayers for the Asian Indian work going on at Calvary. He also mentioned the need for revitalizing the Vietnamese work at Ardmore Baptist Church.

20. Pastor Larry Doyle, Hispanic Baptist Church, reported on the work that is presently going on. Mr. Doyle recalled the early days when the Hispanic Mission began meeting with the Language Missions Council. He told the congregation what a thrill it was for him to hear Charlie Turner say, "What are we going to do for our mission." The association has shared in the ownership of the work in progress. Construction is now over, the building is now being used and the Hispanic Baptist Church is moving toward an organizational effort. Since the first service they have grown from 49 to 76 in attendance. Already they are thinking and planning for the second building phase. Mr.Doyle stated that cooperation and vision is the basis of their ministry. He said, "Cooperation is never a past-tense word...Together We Build sometimes fizzles out, and that is why they changed theirs to say, Together We Serve. Triad Hispanic Ministries is a reality. Although the organizational structure is still being formed, the ministries are still on going."

Mr. Doyle said that their goal is to get more volunteers lined up to help the Hispanic boys and girls with homework. Boyce Bible School extension classes are going strong. Through cooperation with Boyce Bible School of Kentucky, this is one of six centers. Eighty individuals are now being trained in the Triad region. They hope to have health centers set up by early 1995. Pastor Doyle said, "The association has given birth to more than must another mission. The Language Center is being used as a model...This association has glorified our Heavenly Father...this association has strengthened and encouraged each congregation. We can serve the Lord together. We can give a little more...On behalf of Hispanic Baptist Church, thank you, thank you very much."

The afternoon session adjourned at 4:45 PM.

EVENING SESSION

21. The evening session was called to order by Moderator Love at 7:01 PM. She welcomed everyone to the 109th Annual Session.

22. David Lane led the congregation in "Be Thou My Vision."

23. Pastor Reg Alderman, Hillsdale Community Church, spoke to the session on "Dream for the Future." Mr. Alderman said he was very impressed with the work being done by the Church Growth Council. Pastor Alderman said that he first was introduced to the work in the Advance area at a meeting with the Church Growth Council. After that first meeting he began to ponder over the matter and several meetings later he met with Paul Wonders and John Saunders who helped him to see their vision. This is really something God has allowed them to be a part of.

    Hillsdale Community Baptist Church has leased an old hardware store to use for church services. Mr. Alderman stated that their aim is to have a morning service in these new facilities beginning in November. He said that the church planter motto is taken from Habakkuk 2:3, "Though it tarries, wait for it." He then challenged everyone to be sensitive to the work of the Holy Spirit in PMBA.

24. Paul Wonders, director of the Church Growth Council, thanked Reg Alderman for his vision. He stated that God has worked in many wonderful ways within the Church Growth Council. Mr. Wonders then introduced Mr. Steve Pegram, pastor of Goodwill Baptist Church and the new director for the Church Growth Council.

    Mr. Pegram stated that the Church Growth Council has been divided into three sub-groups: (1) new work - representing new growth in the association; (2) existing work - the secret for growth of believers. (It takes existing churches to start new work); and (3) multi-housing ministry - an opportunity to expand churches without having to go through expensive building programs.

Mr. Pegram expressed gratitude for the tremendous assistance of Randy Godwin, Paul Wonders, and John Saunders. He stated that John Saunders had brought a whole new dimension to the Church Growth Council. He also thanked Jim Hamblen for his vast resources and experience. "However," he said, "the highest praise and gratitude goes to our Lord Jesus Christ."

25. Herman Kitchen, chairman of the Credentials Committee and member of College Park, brought forth the following recommendation:

    Since the Credentials Committee has made every effort to renew a relationship with New Hope Baptist Church by phone calls, personal visits, and correspondence without success, we do hereby recommend that New Hope Baptist Church be dismissed from affiliation with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for we are convinced that their polity is not in accordance with this association.

    The recommendation was approved.

    Mr. Kitchen announced that two churches were under watchcare of the association. These two churches are New Beginning Baptist Church and Northridge Baptist Church.

26. Ed Evans, director for the Evangelism Council, gave a report on the Simultaneous Revivals. He challenged the churches to participate in the revivals. Mr. Evans said that we are the "voice" of Christ and must share the Good News with those around us.

27. Wade Dellinger, Ukraine Partnership Coordinator, addressed the association in session on the needs of the Ukraine. Mr. Dellinger related his experiences from the associational trip in June 1994. He reported that seven people went: two from Calvary; three from Ardmore; one from Friends; and one from Old Town.

    Mr. Dellinger stated that there are more than 300 Baptist Churches in the Ukraine, and 60 new mission points have been established. He said, "People are literally dying every day from radiation poisoning. This generation of Belarussians are considered the lost generation." Mr. Dellinger said that the people are hungry for the gospel.

    Rev. Dellinger challenged us to respond to the call from a hungry people. He reported that almost every week North Carolina Baptist Men are traveling to the Ukraine to do construction work and assist in numerous ways in helping to make these people's way of life better.

28. John Saunders, Congregational Development Director for PMBA, gave a report on the Training Extravaganzas for 1994. He said that the association can make a difference in the churches by offering vital leadership training.

    Mr. Saunders awarded two plaques from the Spring Training Extravaganza.

- Highest number in attendance - Robinhood Road Baptist Church
- Highest percentage of church participants - North Winston Baptist Church.

29. Mike Bradshaw gave the prayer for the offering for the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center.

30. Nathan Parrish, coordinator of the Belarussian Children's Project, reported that the project was a great success. The association hosted 15 children and one adult chaperon in homes from June 27 through August 7. He reported that the generosity of the churches and individuals was overwhelming. The project received approximately $8400. There were ten host families representing eight churches who participated in the Belarussian Children's Project. Rev. Parrish said, "Anytime we as an association can reach out and show compassion and mercy in a world lacking in these qualities and can do it in the name of Jesus--then we call that MISSIONS!."

31. Bill Flynn, a host for a Belarussian child, reported from the view of a host family. Mr. Flynn, a member of Union Cross, said that he and his wife were both challenged by the announcement that host families were needed. After consulting with their own children, he said they decided this would be a wonderful experience for their family as well as a Belarussian child. The child that was assigned to stay in the home of the Flynn's was Dmitri Firsovv. His one English phrase was, "I do not understand you."

    Mr. Flynn related some information about Dmitri's family in Belarus. He conveyed the love and support of the family unit in Deema's family and how very special the "Babushka" (grandmother) was in a Russian family.

    Many humorous antidotes were shared with all as Mr. Flynn tried to capture the differences in culture and the possibilities in overcoming the language barrier. After the Belarussian children left to go back home, the Flynn family discussed Dmitri's departure. When his children were asked if they ever thought they would see Dmitri again, they said, "No, probably not." Even though there is some sadness in this fact, Mr. Flynn said that even his children realize that "we must live, we must do, and we must go for the moment--for that is all we really have in this lifetime."

32. Joyce Love, director of the PMBA WMU Council, gave a report on the upcoming changes in the Woman's Missionary Union. She said that this year's theme is "A Time to Grow." Mrs. Love stated that although there are many changes to be seen in WMU, the purpose will not change.

    Mary Ella Barefoot, Beverly Hamblen, and Ann McKenzie announced future WMU events and encouraged all the churches to participated.

33. The Antioch Adult Choir sang the Choral Anthem, "Ye Shall Be Witness."

34. Joyce Love, moderator, introduced the 1994-1995 officers for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association: Amis Daniel, moderator; James Baldwin, vice moderator; Carl Christensen, treasurer; Bill Norris, assistant treasurer; Karen Taylor, clerk; and John Woodard, assistant clerk and historian.
    Mrs. Love charged the new officers to remember their roles as servants. "Just as Jesus modeled servant leadership," she said, "the new officers now must take up their roles as servants of PMBA."

Mrs. Love then passed the towel of servant leadership to Amis Daniel.

35. Pastor Tommy Hall, Oaklawn Baptist Church, delivered the sermon entitled, "I'll See It When I Believe It." Beginning his sermon, Rev. Hall related an incident from an Indiana Jones movie, where Indiana Jones found himself confronted by severe obstacles that could cost him his life. Jones' father had given him advice on how to overcome the obstacles. One part of the advice was, "You shall see the way if you believe."

Vision is when we dare to walk where we cannot see. Vision is the operative word. Proverbs 29 states that "where the people are without vision, they will perish." Mr. Hall continued by saying that if we have to see before we can believe, then we have it backwards. As a Christian we must have the vision to "believe before we see." We must look forward here in Forsyth County to capture the vision of tomorrow.

Vision is the song by which we as Christians must dance. It is the foundation of life that helps us overcome the fear of life. Pastor Hall reminded us that according to God's Word, "perfect love casts away all fear."

Pastor Hall said that vision is the foundation that enables us to serve others. Only through this vision can we reach out to others. This vision foundation enables us to get up when we are knocked down.

Rev. Hall said that we Baptists live to dissect and categorize people Basically there are two categories: Good guys and bad guys. If Jesus were here with us today, he would be with the good guys. Jesus had a problem with our categorizing. He drank with the drunkards, mixed with the sinners, but He (Jesus) was very much a good guy.

Vision, according to Pastor Hall, gives us goals and purpose that involves risks. If our vision is nothing more than our desires...then the vision is not large enough. If we allow, vision creates the ability to build bridges of a transcendental level. According to Jesus Christ, if we as Christians cannot love those around us...cannot see the vision for their needs to be met...then we cannot love Him. If we go to Christ from our mission trips, prayer meetings, etc., but do not have love for our brothers in our hearts, then we are a liar."

C.S. Lewis said that we must operate not from a need love mentality but from a give love mentality. Only through giving love can we really hope to share the love of Christ.

In closing Rev. Hall challenged the churches to catch hold of the vision of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. He said that once we dare to catch hold of this vision then the work of the association will grow stronger and stronger.

36. The 109th annual session was adjourned at 8:40 PM with a prayer by Amis Daniel, the new moderator.

KAREN TAYLOR, Clerk

REPORTS

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Athletic Ministry Council is in an era of change. To begin the process of change, the council has asked that the Constitution Committee bring forth their request for a name change to The Recreational Ministry Council, which will better reflect what this council does.

The council has met certain objectives for 1993-94:

- The council no longer gives the League Championship Awards. They have been replaced with Sportsmanship Awards.
- Church teams use the Basketball League and Softball league as an outreach/inreach tool.
- Praying before the games enhances our testimony that we have recognized God's leadership in all we do.
- As a result of competing against each other we come to appreciate what each church is trying to do and thus have a better understanding of who we are and what it takes to get there.

DOUG HILL, Director

CHAPLAINCY MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The major emphasis of Chaplaincy Ministries in 1993-94 has been the development of a ministry to international students at Wake Forest University. A traditional Thanksgiving dinner at the PMBA Resource Center and a spring picnic at College Park Baptist Church resulted in the building of relationships and created interest in our Host Family Program, whereby families or groups in our PMBA congregations adopt a student for the school year. Three such relationships are already underway as the 1994-95 school year begins, and additional students are expressing interest in having a family to befriend and support them.

There is an increasing need for members of our congregations to minister to residents of our area nursing homes. The Chaplaincy Ministries Council helps to address this need by helping to coordinate an Adopt-A-Resident program and by maintaining an updated list of needs identified by Nursing Home Activities Directors. Individuals and groups within our churches are encouraged to respond to these needs.

In cooperation with the Church and Community Ministries Council, the Chaplaincy Ministries Council sponsored seminary student Elizabeth Jones as Summer Chaplain to Special Populations.

Elizabeth helped to plan and coordinate many of the council's projects and, in the process, learned about the work of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

LINDA LEWIS, Director

CHURCH AND COMMUNITY MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Church and Community Ministries Council held 12 council meetings and eight conferences/events. The conferences/events were all well attended and very much worth the effort put into them. Many of the events need to be expanded by individual churches (i.e., Developmentally disabled needs ongoing involvement from churches; the visually impaired group also needs more attention.) It is the hope of our council to help churches develop programs throughout the year for these groups.

This council represents 11 different churches from small to very large. The volunteers who participate in the projects represent the majority of PMBA congregations. The Toy Store reached over 600 children, representing 240 families. The Developmentally Disabled Retreat saw 65 individuals ministered to and involved both adult and youth volunteers. Over 90 volunteers were involved in various ministries. The hands and legs and hearts were added to prayers.

It is the opinion of the Church and Community Ministries Council that our area of Christian leadership and ministry is one of the most visible in the PMBA. It is one of the most easily understood and has some of the most emotional appeal. We need to do more to encourage individual congregations to see this as their ministries. Ownership will strengthen the ministries.

WADE DELLINGER, Director

CHURCH GROWTH COUNCIL

The Church Growth Council has been very busy in 1993-94. Two new church starts were begun: New Beginning Baptist Church, and the Hillsdale Community Fellowship. New Beginning and Northridge have both constituted and are now under Watchcare within the association.

The following is a list of accomplished PMBA objectives:

- Two new churches were started
- Worked with five missions
- Continue to look for opportunities for new work, multi-housing, and strengthening existing churches.
- Adopted New Work Guidelines.

The Church Growth Council would like to extend a big debt of gratitude to John Saunders, PMBA Congregational Development Director, for outstanding guidance.

PAUL WONDERS, Director

COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Cooperative Ministries Council serves as a liaison between Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and Rowan Association. The Council seeks ways to share in cooperative fellowship and ministry among the pastors and churches of the two associations.

In December the ministers and spouses of both associations came together for a joint worship service and lunch at the Mineral Springs Baptist Church of Winston-Salem. The Christmas message was delivered by the Reverend Glenn Pettiford, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lexington, North Carolina. The Reverend Joseph Jones, pastor of the Zion Memorial Baptist Church of Winston-Salem, gave his testimony.

The Reverend Joseph Jones, Dr. J. Ray Butler, and Dr. Cecil Cave, who serve on the State Joint Committee on Cooperative Ministries of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, attended a meeting of the Joint Committee on April 28, 1994, which was held in Burlington, North Carolina, at the Holiday Inn. The Reverend Reuban J. Gilliam, Sr., who was serving with Dr. Cecil Cave as co-chairman of the Greater Winston-Salem, Crusade for Reconciliation, attended with the delegation from the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Association. Dr. Corbin Cooper, Director of the Cooperative Ministries Division of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, convened the meeting.

The Cooperative Ministries Council joined with the Evangelism Council (Mr. Ed Evans, director) in proposing an evangelistic effort which would involve pastors and churches across denominational and racial lines. This cooperative endeavor, named Greater Winston-Salem Crusade for Reconciliation was held at the Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum on April 24-27. The Reverend Reuban J. Gilliam, Sr., pastor of the North Winston Baptist Church, and Dr. Cecil Cave, pastor of the Mineral Springs Baptist Church served as co-chairmen of the Greater Winston-Salem Crusade for Reconciliation. Dr. Corbin Cooper attended on the first night of the Crusade.

The Director of the Cooperative Ministries Council of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has endeavored to develop relationships across racial lines by active participation in the Ministers' Conference of Winston-Salem and vicinity, Religious Leaders for Reconciliation, the Crossing 52 Initiative, the Greater Winston-Salem Crusade for Reconciliation, and the Interfaith Partnership/Visions of Hope.

The Reverend James V. Hamblen, the Reverend Reuban J. Gilliam, Sr., the Reverend Joseph Jones, Dr. J. Ray Butler, and Dr. Cecil Cave have been actively involved in the Religious Leaders for Reconciliation since its beginning in September of 1992.

The Cooperative Ministries Council is seeking workable suggestions from all participants from all gatherings so as to contribute to better relations among all people.

CECIL CAVE, Director

CREATIVE MINISTRIES COUNCIL

During 1994 the Creative Ministries Council sponsored four workshops dealing with ways to strengthen creative ministries and worship in the local church.

Spring 1994 - Two Workshops

1. Acting Out the Truth - How to Be a Shepherd Without a Bathrobe used many dramas to portray biblical characters
2. Opportunities For Using Clowning In a Ministry Setting

Fall 1994 - Two Workshops

1. Visual Elements In Worship - In this workshop the leader dealt with the use of banners, color of choir robes, texture and color of carpet, pew pads, stain glass windows, etc. and their impact on creating an atmosphere for worship.
2. Behind the Scene - Dealt with all the many facts that go into producing good theater.

In the Fall 1993 the council produced Louise Noffsinger's drama, The Greatest Christmas Pageant Ever, with numerous churches participating in the cast.

MARY BERRIDGE, Director

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING COUNCIL

The Discipleship Training Council completed a total of 5 projects or special events for 1993-94. Our training extravaganza workshops accomplished our desired objectives and were well attended. The Discipleship Training Strategy Session was well attended and proved to be a very productive endeavor. Our pilot group, Experiencing God, was very successful. Bible drill activities went over very well.

The following PMBA objectives were accomplished this year:

- Our Strategy Session brought Discipleship Training leaders together. Experiencing God group provided fellowship as well as growth.
- Through publicity and personal contact as well as support, our council reached congregations.
- The Experiencing God group proved to be a big help in the area of developing believers. The Training Extravaganza workshops also aided in this area.
- Overall, as Discipleship Training becomes more of a priority in our churches, we will see more commitment and involvement in missions.
- With the reorganization of our council we hope to improve the flow of informa tion and enhance interaction with local churches.

It is my hope that our council will be successful in moving from the role of Program Promoters to becoming Discipleship Supporter in our relationship with local church leaders.

CHARLES MARTIN, Director

EVANGELISM COUNCIL

Three special projects were planned for 1993-94 in the area of Evangelism. The Evangelism Council is sponsoring the 1995 Simultaneous Revivals. This project is just getting underway and the response has been very good so far.

The results of the Greater Winston-Salem Crusade for Reconciliation is still under evaluation. I believe that, for the most part, the crusade was very successful for those who participated.

As director of the Evangelism Council, I took part in a mission work in India this year. It was a highly successful endeavor.

The Evangelism Council has enhanced fellowship with improved communication and two well-attended luncheons promoting the 1995 Simultaneous Revivals. The council participated in a Training Extravaganza and offered assistance to churches in evangelism training.

ED EVANS, Director

MISSION PARTNERSHIP COUNCIL

The Mission Partnership Council encouraged congregations to be involved in the Detroit Partnership. In addition to the one-on-one church partnership, they collected special items monthly for the Baptist Student Union at Wayne State University and the Baptist Center in downtown Detroit.

The council coordinated our involvement with the North Carolina/Ukraine Partnership, and secured six sponsorships of Ukrainian Home Missionaries for a three-year period. In July a team of five individuals from our association went to Kiev to work on the Baptist Seminary located in that city.

They also led the association to sponsor a group of sixteen Belarussian children for a period of six weeks during the summer. This partnership proved to be a very heartwarming experience for ten host families from eight PMBA congregations. Plans are already underway to sponsor this endeavor for a second year.

STEVE KISER, Director

PASTORAL MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Pastoral Ministries Council is the umbrella council for three councils: (1) Deacon Ministries Council, (2) Ordination Council, and the (3) Church-Minister Relations Council. The chairman of the Deacon Ministries Council had to give up his position resulting in no activity pending a new chairman.

The Church-Minister Relations Council performed a number of interventions for churches in crises/conflict. This function, performed primarily by chairman Thomas Austin, is primarily one of providing consulting services to alleviate conflict in the requesting congregations.

The Ordination Council interviewed two candidates for ordination at the request of churches.

The primary emphasis of the overall Pastoral Ministries Council has evolved to be encouraging pastors to become involved in sharing groups. In addition to making numerous personal contacts with individual pastors, the Council sponsored an event called "Pastor's Morning Out" in conjunction with Baptist Hospital. This event was designed to encourage pastors to get involved and did provide the nucleus for several sharing groups. The emphasis will continue into next year.

PAUL KENNEDY, Director

SEMINARY EXTENSION COUNCIL

Seminary Extension is an endeavor to bring the very courses taught in our six Southern Baptist Seminaries to ministers and lay people in our own locality. One may work toward a diploma, but most of those who participated just want a better understanding of God's Word that they might deepen their Christian life and be more able to do the service God would have them to do. Students from all walks of life and with different points of view learn in these classes to have a wholesome respect for one another, recognizing the common love and loyalty they have to the Lord Jesus, and grow together in"grace and knowledge" of Him.

This past year the Bible study has been centered on the Old Testament. Old Testament Survey I was completed in the spring and Old Testament Survey II is being offered in the fall and Old Testament Survey III beginning in January 1995. An important part of our work has been in connection with our Forsyth Prison Ministries, where studies in Psalms and Jeremiah have been done along with the Gospel of Luke. Although the Biblical area is usually the most popular, as the need arises, courses are offered in the wide practical area of the whole life and work of the church. For example, a course in the "Formation in Ministry" was taught this year.

GERALD T. SMITH, Director

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Senior Adult Ministries Council sponsored their seventh annual senior adult luncheon at Ardmore Baptist Church on May 5, 1994 with approximately 300 people in attendance, representing about 20 churches in the association. The meal was cooked by Evelyn Osborne and her helpers. Entertainment was provided by F.B.I. Secret Servants from First Baptist Church of Icard, North Carolina.

The Council in conjunction with the Spring Training Extravaganza in March held a workshop on how to start a Senior Adult Ministry in a Church. The class was taught by David Moore.

The Council is planning a bus trip in the fall of 1995, more details will follow. The luncheon for 1995 will be held Thursday, May 4, at Calvary Baptist Church.

ARTHUR WETZEL, Director

SINGLE ADULT MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Single Adult Ministries Council sponsored a workshop in Spring 1994 at Ardmore Baptist Church. The workshop, Seeking Mr. Perfect and Miss Awesome, dealt with expectations dating partners bring to their new relationship and creative dating in the nineties.

SHEREE JONES, Director

STUDENT MINISTRIES COUNCIL

The Student Ministries Council began Baptist Student work at Salem College, hosting their first event in March 1994 for the 40 plus Baptist students on campus. In Fall 1994 we hope to begin a regular BSU work at Salem College utilizing volunteers from the local churches to conduct fellowship and Bible study events.

The council sponsored two workshops led by Joe Clontz, Director of Volunteer Student Ministries, Baptist State Convention, dealing with Developing a Ministry To College Students and How to Be a Great College Sunday School Teacher.

SAM SORRELLS, Director

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

The WMU Council planned eight special events with seven of the events being completed for 1993-94. Participation was very good in some areas and after evaluation one event was canceled. We are meeting the local church needs by personal contacts and conferences.

The following objectives were accomplished through Woman's Missionary Union this year:

- The Baptist Women Salad Supper was held on March 8 at Ardmore Baptist Church, with over 460 reservations.
- WMU gave over 200 personal care packets and a Christmas Party for prison inmates. Birthday parties and devotions for Goodwill Industries were held each month.
- The Day of Prayer on November 7, morning and evening meetings, brought believers together with 121 attending. An offering of $479.35 was collected.

- WMU contacted every congregation within PMBA and provided individual conferences.
- WMU Leadership Conference on September 13 at Old Town Baptist Church had 169 in attendance with 37 churches represented.

The WMU Council has looked at different ways to reach people because numbers indicate we must change our approach to missions involvement. We have contacted each church and feel that this is still very helpful.

JOYCE LOVE, Director

The Youth Ministries Council of PMBA held a Back to Basic Youth Retreat at Blowing Rock Assembly Grounds in Blowing Rock, North Carolina. Phillipa Mathis, from Charlotte, North Carolina, was the program leader. One hundred forty-five youth and adult sponsors attended the retreat.

His was a year to capture the attention of our youth. On Saturday, January 8, the Youth Council of PMBA hosted a True Love Waits campaign. The musical group, SALT performed. The rally focused entirely on inviting teenagers to make a promise to God concerning sexual abstinence outside of marriage. It encouraged them to communicate that promise in a way that would express their values and convictions to a nation in desperate need of some good news that some youth are standing for a value that our culture seems to have set aside. Over 150 youth and sponsors attended the rally.

The Youth Ministries Council sponsored a special Spring Rally with Kyle and Susan Matthews in concert at College Park Baptist Church. One hundred sixty people attended representing eighteen churches in the association. The Matthews are well-known in the Christian music world. Their concert reflected a deep desire for people to be challenged by the gospel of Christ and to respond to relational issues.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES COMMITTEES

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The 1993 Audit Report has been completed by Gray, Callison and Company, P.A., Certified Public Accountants. The audit report was presented to the Audit Committee by Michael G. Callison, on June 9, 1994. The Audit Committee was responsible for securing this outside audit for the association and feels that we received a favorable report and commend the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association staff for their performances.

A copy of the management letter from Gray, Callison and Company, P.A., is included in the Annual Minutes. The full Audit Report is available in the associational office.

To The Audit Committee
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for the year ended December 31, 1993, we considered the Association's internal control structure to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

However, during our audit we became aware of certain issues related to the recording of the Association's minutes. We understand the Association is in the process of developing policy as to the recording and maintaining of minutes of meetings of the Board and its various committees. In the development of such policy, the underlying premise of maintaining minutes, whether by a governing board or any special committee, is the documentation of actions undertaken and authorizations by the Board. Accordingly, should fiduciary responsibilities of the governing board be delegated to a member committee, minutes should be maintained at the committee level. Conversely, if it is the role of the committee to provide guidance or recommendations to the governing board on specific issues, consideration should be given to having such recommendations submitted in writing for formal action by the governing board.

We suggest the various committees prepare written recommendations for authorization and adoption by the executive board. This will minimize the volume of minutes and the duplication of efforts, and will define accountability at the executive board and committee levels.

We will review the status of the above comment during our next audit engagement. We have already discussed the comment and suggestion with various Association personnel, and we will be pleased to discuss them in further detail at your convenience, to perform any additional study of these matters, or to assist you in implementing the recommendations.

We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to you.

Very truly yours,
GRAY, CALLISON & CO., P.A.

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

The Communications Committee met five times this year. Three major projects were completed:

Associational Day of Prayer - November 7, 1994

Promotional materials were sent to each of the PMBA churches, asking them to set aside a specific time during their Sunday morning worship service to pray for the needs of the association.

Associational Missions Week - May 16-22, 1994

The theme for the Associational Missions Week was "Partners in New Work." Churches were given materials to assist them in promoting this emphasis.

PMBA Resource Pak

This is a new promotional packet designed to provide orientation and training for new ministerial staff and to have available for general public relations use. The Resource Pak will be given to one member of each church attending the Fall Meeting, October 18, at Antioch Baptist Church.

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

The Credentials Committee, which usually has only one meeting per year, has been very active with four group meetings plus one-on-one conferences with officers of the association and representatives of churches.

After interviewing representatives of New Beginning Baptist Church and Northridge Baptist Church, the committee recommended to the Executive Board that these churches be received under the watchcare of the Association for one year. The Executive Board approved the recommendations by receiving Northridge on June 28, 1994, and New Beginning on September 27, 1994.

The committee prepared a much needed Request for Affiliation form to be used by churches seeking membership in the association. We also developed an Areas of Discussion guideline for use in interviewing applicant churches.

The committee prepared guidelines for receiving churches under watchcare, full fellowship, and for dismissal of churches from membership in the association.

The committee met with representatives of a member church which had filed a verbal protest against receiving a church in affiliation with the Association. The protest is being withheld with prayer that differences might be resolved during the watchcare period.

The committee has recommended to the Executive Board that New Hope Baptist Church be dismissed from affiliation with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The Executive Board approved the recommendation and will present the matter for final action to the Association in session October 18, 1994.

ORDER OF BUSINESS COMMITTEE

The Order of Business Committee met one time each month during this past year to plan the Spring and Fall meetings. We have worked diligently to enhance our PMBA objectives: enhance the fellowship, reach the people, develop believers, and strengthen missions.

As chairman, I am deeply indebted to our faithful committee members, our staff liaison Jim Hamblen, our moderator Joyce Love, and to all those who have willingly participated in our Spring and Fall meetings. We invite your comments and suggestions to further enhance our meetings together.

DAVID TURNER, Chairman

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

The Personnel Committee has held six regular meetings with set agendas during the past year. The committee has worked closely with the Executive Director in the correlation of job descriptions, staffing, evaluation, and budget issues.

A significant change in personnel was the retirement of Peggy Hall, administrative assistant to Jim Hamblen on March 31. On Sunday, March 13, a reception was held at the Resource Center in gratitude to her for all that she has done and meant to our PMBA family of congregations. Her loving spirit and outstanding competence has helped make PMBA what it is today.

The committee has worked closely with the Executive Staff in developing a "shepherding" ministry to the ministers and congregations of PMBA. Jim Hamblen, John Saunders, and Mike Bradshaw meet on a regular basis with the ministers of the association to offer support and encouragement.

We thank God for a committed and caring staff with whom it is a pleasure to serve.

BILL YATES, Chairman

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT MAINTENANCE:

1. Water leak repaired at meter box. Toilet fixture valve replaced and sink faucet repaired.
2. Replaced metal Halide vapor light and transformer on one of the pole lights.
3. Desk and credenza repaired and usual copier maintenance.
4. Installed pole light in upper parking lot (Duke Power).
5. Approved replacing shutters on left end of building with vinyl shutters.
6. Arranged for one coat of washable paint on most painted walls. Painting to be scheduled at times convenient to staff and committee meetings which would cause the least interruptions. Also approved cleaning downstairs carpet, washing windows and cleaning upholstered chairs.

EQUIPMENT:

1. Accepted Phone Tree Plus Message sending system (donation)
2. Purchased a U.S. Postal approved scale.
3. Accepted starting donations for a second dishwasher.
4. Approved the purchase of a new computer the next time the old one needs repair/replacement.
5. Accepted from Crisis Control a pulpit stand, which was used by Rev. Ron Rice during his work at Patterson Avenue Mission.
6. Approved Properties Committee request for 1995 Budget.

D.J. REDDING, Chairman

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

VISION 2000

MISSION

The mission of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is to glorify God through Jesus Christ by assisting and encouraging congregations, individually and collectively, to be in fellowship and to fulfill their missions.

CORE VALUES

I. THE LOCAL CONGREGATION COMES FIRST.

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association will respond to individual congregations, to groups of congregations, and to needs perceived by the leaders of the Association. This strategy focuses planning and activities toward assisting local congregations to be all that they care or want to become, honoring the principles of freedom and local church autonomy.

SERVING LOCAL CONGREGATIONS IS PROVIDED THROUGH CUSTOMIZED RESPONSES TO PERCEIVED NEEDS.
This focuses the Association toward dialoguing with individual congregations to determine their needs. This emphasis is in contrast to an approach wherein an association attempts to provide predetermined programs and ideas from other agencies to congregations with little regard to specific congregational concerns and desires. The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association should enter into dialogue with congregations and tailor responses very specifically to each congregation.

SERVING LOCAL CONGREGATIONS ALSO IS PROVIDED THROUGH IDEAS, INCENTIVES AND ASSISTANCE.
Staff and other leaders are resource persons. They will encourage, challenge and help congregations to enlarge their visions and become dynamic both through individual contact with associational leadership and through sponsored programs, workshops and specialized training.

II. ASSISTING THE LOCAL CONGREGATION ENCOMPASSES FACILITAT-ING JOINT MINISTRY AND MISSION.

A major function of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association will be to facilitate congregations joining together to perform ministries and activities which are better accomplished together than separately.

II. ALL WORK OF COUNCILS/COMMITTEES IS PART OF A PROCESS.
This strategy links the involvement of all councils, committees and staff with meeting the mission, objectives and the strategy of the Association. All associational leadership will participate in developing the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association VISION 2000 plan. The Strategy Committee will propose definitions and objectives. Each council/committee will evaluate its mission to define its work and to assess its linkage to VISION 2000.

IV. EFFECTIVE PLANNING MINIMIZES UNHEALTHY CONFLICT.
The mutual ministry of the Association and its congregations is enhanced when participants have a clear understanding of the purpose, their roles, and the relationships among work units. The intent of the planning process is to facilitate communication, cooperation and coordination.

V. THE PILOT MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION IS A LIVING ORGANISM.
VISION 2000 is a dynamic plan. Its focus is to improve the process and the effectiveness of the Association as it serves congregations. Therefore, the VISION 2000 plan should continually monitor the process in order to provide changes when needed.

OBJECTIVES

(All work units should attempt to focus on both objective areas and establish action plans accordingly.)

I. TO ENHANCE LOCAL CONGREGATIONS
A. to foster wholesome relationships and fellowship among clergy and laity...
B. to engender a spirit of sharing of resources and talents...
C. to identify, and encourage utilization of resources...
D. to develop teamwork...
E. to provide training...
F. to give encouragement and affirmation through recognition...

II TO FACILITATE COOPERATIVE MINISTRY
A. to foster a vision for ministry in
- the community...
- the area/region...
- the state...
- the nation...
- the world...

B. to identify ministry opportunities for the churches.
C. to facilitate the implementation of ministries among the congregations.

ACTION PLANS
(To be determined annually by Councils, Committees, and/or other work units.)

BOYCE WILSON, Chairman

PMBA SECRETARIES

The PMBA Secretaries Conference seeks to promote fellowship and encouragement between the secretaries and staff members of the various churches in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Programs are developed to keep us abreast of the trends and needs that affect the church office.

This conference meets bi-monthly at noon, usually on the second Thursday of the month, at various churches in the association. A luncheon and program are provided for those who attend at a cost of $3.00 per person. Membership is open to secretaries and other staff members of Baptist churches, agencies and institutions in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, and other religious organizations in our area.

The 1994-95 Officers are:

President	Dail Callahan, Old Town
Vice President	Clara Johnston, Konnoak
Secretary/Treasurer	Earlene Bowman, Oaklawn
Publicity Chairman	Eloise Howell, Mineral Springs
Program Committee:	Sandra Hall, PMBA - Chairman Beverly Anderson, Wake Forest Dot Dunlap, Calvary Brenda West, Glenn View

The programs for 1992-93 included the following:

November, 1993 - NUTRITION FOR THE HOLIDAYS led by Martha Isenburg, Agricultural Extension office. This meeting was hosted by Mineral Springs Baptist church.

January, 1994 - DEALING WITH DIFFICULT PEOPLE AND SITUATIONS, led by Maurice Briggs, Pastoral Care Department of Baptist Hospital. The meeting was hosted by Old Town Baptist Church.

March, 1994 - NEWSLETTERS AND IDEAS, led by Don Schmidt, Family Life Assistant/Communications Coordinator at Calvary. Calvary Baptist Church hosted the meeting. During this meeting recognition was also given to Peggy Hall, administrative assistant at PMBA, who was retiring after twenty years of faithful service.

May, 1994 - PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR THE CHURCH SECRETARY, led by Steve Klipowicz from Christian Ministries Resources. This was an all day seminar, and the host church was Wake Forest Baptist Church.

July, 1994 - LET'S CHAT. This was an informal time for fellowship among all the church secretaries. No special program was planned. Oaklawn Baptist Church was the host of this get together.

September, 1994 - CREATIVE TABLE DECORATIONS, led by Patience Teany. Pilot Mountain Baptist Association hosted the meeting at the Resource Center.

DAIL CALLAHAN, President

MINISTERS' WIVES

The purpose of the Ministers' Wives organization "shall be to promote fellowship among the Baptist Ministers' wives of our association; to provide opportunities for friendship, learning, and service; and to share, listen, and encourage one another."

"We want our fellowship to provide not only fun, but also an opportunity for us to become all that God wants us to be as we share together."

Six meetings were held during the year. Four of these were in the homes of members, one was at Brookridge, and another was a covered-dish luncheon in May at the associational Resource Center. The group was invited to share in the state Ministers' Wives meeting at Calvary Baptist Church in November, and in February attended the Valentine Banquet with their husbands.

Programs were primarily inspirational and social. In the April meeting, when an unscheduled announcement was made concerning the coming of the Belarussian children and the financial support needed for the project, a spontaneous offering of $50 was given.

Officers for 1994-95 are as follows:

President	Beverly Hamblen
Vice president	Georgie Kitchen
Secretary/Treasurer, Historian	Johnsie Liner
Devotions	Loudene Riggs

Velma P. McGee, President '93/'94

Executive Board

This has been an exciting year to serve as your moderator and chairperson of the Executive Board along side the best staff and association. To be Laborers together with God (I Cor. 3:9), I thank you for this opportunity. It is a joy to visit your churches and see each bring unique gifts, abilities, and talents together as the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association family.

We have the privilege of knowing those family members that passed our way and gave then and continue to give like the gift we received at the December meeting.

Our family include Koreans, Japanese, Hispanics, and our newest members, The Asian Indians. We heard about the Hispanic Mission building update at the March meeting. We met 15 beautiful Belarussian children at the June meeting. Each child was presented a children's Russian Bible.

The Mission Study Group is the newest committee appointed for the purpose of researching possible mission giving models that would encourage the financial enhancement of the PMBA into the next century.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETINGS

December 28, 1993

43 leaders present representing 25 congregations.

- Voted to adopt the Proposed 1994 Budget and that the $6,000 funds in the Designated Contingency Fund be put back in the General Budget.
- Voted for the Administrative Committee to be absorbed into the Coordinating Council as a working unit.

- Approved the recommendation for Executive Board meetings to be conducted in local church facilities instead of the PMBA Resource Center.
- Agreed that the vice moderator should preside over all Coordinating Council meetings and the moderator over all Executive Board meetings.
- Approved the recommendation that Strategy Committee be divided into three groups with the following: Congregational Development Group, Ministries Development Group, and Organizational Development Group.

March 29, 1994

35 leaders present representing 21 congregations.

- Approved the recommendation from the Church Growth Council that we approve the Cooperative Agreement for New Beginning Baptist Church. Total funds allocated by Baptist State Convention is $600 plus $200 for renting of facilities.
- Approved the recommendation that we create a special task force, whose function will be to oversee the enlistment of sponsors and solicitation of funds for 14 children and one adult chaperon from Belarussia, who will be here for approximately six weeks this summer.
- Approved the recommendation from the Order of Business Committee for proposed Spring Meeting program.
- Approved the list of people to serve on various councils and committees as submitted by the Nominating Committee.
- Approved the list of 12 people to consider for the Belarussian Task Force. (Eight people from the list were actually selected from the list.)

June 28, 1994

34 leaders present representing 22 congregations.

- Approved the recommendation that Northridge Baptist Church be received under the watchcare of the association for one year, after which it may be received by vote of the association into full fellowship.
- Approved Credentials Committee's recommendation that New Hope Baptist Church be dismissed as a member of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in compliance with Article 4, Section D, Paragraph 4 of the constitution. The Credentials Committee is to bring the recommendation to the association in session at the Fall Meeting on October 18, 1994.
- Approved the recommendation that a Study Group be developed to research current association responses toward mission dollar spending trends, to seek out channels that would enhance future associational mission giving and to report such findings at the earliest possible time.
- Approved the recommendation that Executive Board authorize the Credentials Committee and Church Growth Council to meet with Macedonia and New Beginning to come to an understanding. The Credentials Committee and Church Growth Council is to be prepared to bring a recommendation to Coordinating Council on August 23.

September 27, 1994

35 leaders present representing 20 congregations.

- Approved the list of nominees for various councils and committees as presented by the Nominating Committee.
- Approved the Credentials Committee recommendation that New Beginning be received under the watchcare of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for the period of one year.
- Approved the New Work Guidelines as presented by the Church Growth Council.
- Reviewed the Constitutional revisions as presented by the Constitution Committee. The Constitution Committee will present the proposed revisions at the Fall Meeting on October 18.
- Received a report from the Language Missions Council regarding the work of the following Language missions: Korean Mission, Japanese Mission, Hispanic Baptist Church, Asian Indian Mission and the possibility of a Chinese Mission.
- Received the first report submitted by Craig Bowman for the Mission Study Group.
- Approved the recommendation from Order of Business Committee to accept the program as set for the Fall Meeting.
- Received the recommendation from the Audit Committee to accept the Audit Report as submitted by Gray and Callison, auditors of the association.
- Received a report that the Redwine property will be taken over by the WMU Council. As soon as renovations are completed on the property (which is owned by the Baptist Foundation), the PMBA WMU Council will enlist congregations and WMU groups to furnish the house.
- Recognized Tim Love for his design of the PMBA Resource Pak.

JOYCE LOVE, Moderator and
Chairperson, Executive Board

Executive Director of Missions

The past fifteen months have produced as many (...if not more...) insights for me than any other similar time period in my ministry. Although none of us realized it at the time, our time together during the Fall Association Meeting (October 26, 1993) was the beginning of a new era in "Kingdom-work" here in the PMBA. Emerging from several listening sessions with ministers and other church leaders we heard a repetitive message from the churches, "Listen to our needs. Help us to find ways to grow spiritually and numerically. Guide us as we do ministry in our own community." (Although, this is not a specific direct quote, it is my distillation of a lot of the comments that were offered.)

Obviously, there was a commitment on the part of many individual leaders and congregations to cooperate with each other through our association.

I extend my sincere appreciation to the PMBA Ministers Conference for allowing me two opportunities (February 14, 1994 and July 11, 1994) to present personal summaries and challenges from the perspective of the Executive Director. From the data gathered during these "listening sessions" (1993) and other contemporary materials, the Strategy Committee recommended the following priorities:

Primary Priorities:

1. Communications throughout the congregations
2. Personnel (PMBA staff and elected leaders)
3. Fellowship (among the ministers and church leaders)
4. Identity...focus (redirection)...ownership of PMBA by the congregations

Secondary Priorities:

1. Balance between doing for... and facilitating of... missions and ministries in the individual congregations
2. Building ownership of the PMBA by each congregation
3. Networking and resourcing throughout the congregations
4. Data gathering and information for the churches

Since we met last year the staff and the work units have tried to implement those priorities in the activities of PMBA. The congregations have responded by providing the financial resources which supported those programs and projects which seem to fulfill the hopes, needs and expectations of the churches and church leaders. One of the most significant changes has been among your staff in what the Personnel Committee has called the "shepherding" ministry. It means that Mike Bradshaw, John Saunders and I intentionally and regularly meet with the ministers to listen, affirm and support them where they are in their spiritual journey.

Finally, a special Mission Study Group has been appointed and are working to determine the best organizational structures and channels of mission giving which will assist the churches in doing what they believe to be God's will for them in mission and ministry in their unique context. In the midst of this new era of opportunities and challenges let us recommit ourselves to do that which encourages the ministers and other church leaders; to do that which helps the churches; and to do that which please God as we join in our authentic fellowship which helps us all.

JAMES V. HAMBLEN, Executive Director
